 the many religious best sellers?
 At the Bible House there are hundreds of such items from which to choose a meaningful gift for Mother on her special day. Here you may also make a contribution to the great work of the British and Foreign

W.C.T.U. NOTES
DEADLY HAZARD
 It is to be hoped that never in Canada will airlines adopt the practice of serving liquor on the domestic runs.
 A group of commercial pilots and stewardesses in the United States has just told a congressional committee that liquor dispensing aboard planes in their country has turned airlines into saloons and burlesques and creates a definite safety hazard.
 It may be, as the vice-chairman of the US Civil Aeronautics Board has said in reply, that the board has not received an authentic account of a single accident in which liquor serving affected safety. But it doesn't take much imagination to visualize what would happen with a liquor-crazed passenger loose in a plane thousands of feet in the air. Possibly some of the mystery plane crashes have been due to this. Besides, there are many people, and with a couple around them, and plane passengers can't get up and walk away from them.
 Liquor should never be favorably considered for use in domestic airline planes. And at international air conferences, Canadian authorities should do everything possible to discourage its use aboard planes of other nations, and over non-Canadian territory, so that who wants to drink while travelling should be compelled to take some other means of transportation.

IN MEMORIAM
IVAN WILLIAM O'CONNOR
 The death occurred suddenly on Wednesday morning, April 18, at the P.E.I. Orphanage, Mt. Herbert, of Ivan William, age eight months, infant son of Mr. and Mrs.
 Elmer O'Connor formerly of Glen Martin.
 Surviving beside his parents are two other children, Maureen and Garry.
 The funeral service was held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday afternoon from the Christian Church at Montague and was conducted by the pastor, Mr. Kenneth Norris, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved.
 The hymn sung were two Solos by Mrs. Ralph Beck, Safe in the Arms of Jesus, requested by Mrs.
 O'Connor, and Jesus Loves Little Children.
 The pallbearers were Ralph Beck and Stewart Nelson. Interment was at the Montague Community Cemetery.

BARTENDERS BAR CANS
OSHAWA, Ont. (CP)— Stanley Daily, president of the Ontario Retail Grocers' Association, said Wednesday night members of a bar-tender's union have threatened to boycott the first brewery that puts beer in cans for sale in Ontario. He said the union also has protested to the Ontario liquor control board the proposed sale of beer in grocery stores.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR TIME

By His Eminence Cardinal McGuigan (Copyright)

CONSCIENCE MAKES MAN
CO-CREATOR WITH GOD
 The experience of all men and the literature of all races bear witness to the voice of Conscience.
 This mysterious faculty that commends or reproves our moral actions, this trait of our nature sleeps, plays a vital part in every step we take.
 Everyone has had experience of the warnings of Conscience, and of the remorse that follows when these warnings are ignored. Try as we will, we cannot escape the promptings of this 'internal monitor. Yet, despite the all-pervading influence and the supreme importance of Conscience, it remains mysterious and much misunderstood.
 Conscience is closely tied up with the word obligation. We are all familiar with the conditional type of obligation: If I want to be rich, I am obliged to save; if I want to go to England, I am obliged to cross the ocean.
 We are also aware of the unconditional type of obligation: I must be just, I must tell the truth and so forth. To this last type of obligation we are tempted to ask the question: "Why must I?" and the only answer to this is: "Because it is Good." This one principle is the basis of all moral life—we must do what is good. And it is Conscience that takes this abstract principle of morality and applies it to the concrete tasks of life.
 There exists in me something which is able to respond to the good, just as the eye responds to light, and this is Conscience.
DISCERN GOOD
 What is this "Good" that we must do? We cannot say that the Good is "love of our fellowmen," "loyalty toward ourselves."
 There are only expressions of the Good. The Good which I must do is that which is right and reasonable for me in every concrete situation that I face.
 In the tangle of persons, events and circumstances, it is Conscience that takes the law of my nature and my eternal destiny. I must penetrate to the Good, and will to follow it. It is my conscience that points out the Good in every situation I face, and commands that it be done.
 The problems faced by Conscience are no easy ones. To begin with, every situation in which we find ourselves is absolutely unique. This combination of circumstances which I now face have never occurred before, and will never occur again. The situation is subject to infinite variations. Moreover, there is the conflict between what I want, and what is good in itself, the conscious or unconscious resistance to the Good on the part of our weak human will.
 The task facing Conscience, then, becomes apparent: it must see clearly the situation in all its fullness; it must rid itself of all obscurities, of all self-deception, and attain to that candor which can penetrate and grasp the demands of the Good, as objectively as possible.
 If Conscience were the voice of God speaking to us, as some would have it, then Conscience would be infallible: it could not err in determining the Good.
 But Conscience is not the voice of God, any more than the roaring we hear in a sea-shell is really the voice of the ocean. Conscience is nothing more nor less than the practical judgment of our mind, in a particular case, determining the rightness or wrongness of this act to be performed. And since it is a judgment, it is liable to be erroneous, to judge that a thing is good which is really not so.
TRAIN CONSCIENCE
 The fact that Conscience is liable to error does not so much mean that we should distrust our conscience; but rather that we should realize the necessity of training it, of perfecting it, so that it may judge rightly. Lack of knowledge may invalidate it, false knowledge may pervert it, sin may blind it; self-pity may lead it astray. Every man must strive to grow in self-knowledge, in knowledge of God and his laws, in co-operation with grace, so that his perception of the Good will be in harmony with the reality.
 The reason why many today do not lead good and upright lives is not that they find the moral task too difficult; it is that they regard goodness and virtue as too paltry, too unexciting, to be worth the effort required.
 Nothing could be farther from the truth. For God, in giving us free will, in allowing us freely to choose the Good, conferred on us our highest human dignity.
 We are called upon to co-operate with God in producing good actions. All creation is good; indeed, creation can be described as the overflowing of God's goodness into Time.
 And the man who follows the demands of an upright conscience, who "walks uprightly before the face of God," is imitating the Eternal and Infinite Goodness of God; he is giving earthly expression to something of infinite richness and eternal worth. It is no small thing to be a co-creator with God, to be the active focal point at which the fire of Eternal Goodness strikes an answering spark in Time.

RAISIN DAY
 Raising Day will be held different times in different localities this year. In Charlottetown it will be held June 16. The raisins will be bagged Monday evening June 4th, and it is to be hoped that everybody who is called will make a big effort to help back up our finance committee by making a big effort to be at St. James Hall on that date.
1st CLASS HIKE
 Once again reminding you, the 1st class hike is being held June 9th, all second class Guides may take part in this hike, providing they have two escorts. The weather

 By J. A. Clark, D.Sc.
B.C. UNIVERSITY
ON POINT GREY
 Lying to the west of the City of Vancouver, between the Strait of Georgia and English Bay lies a great rounded promontory, known as Point Grey. This high plateau was discovered in 1782 by Captain George Vancouver when he "ushered in the dawn of British Columbia."
 There are three natural parks that extend all around the immense University Endowment Lands on Point Grey from Blanca Street, Vancouver, at English Bay on the north, to the Indian Reservation on the south, a distance of about five miles.
 These parks lie along the top of the cliffs between the Marine Drives and the shore of the Strait of Georgia they circle the area as follows: Spanish Banks Park on the north, along the NorthWest Marine Drive; Marine Park on the West, along the Marine Drive, and the Furbush Park on the south, of Point Grey along the South West Marine Drive.
PICTURESQUE VIEWS
 These parks retain a great many of the giant Douglas spruce and other great forest trees. There are trails and open spaces and a number of lookout points, so that visitors on the marine drives around Point Grey may see the magnificent views on the north across English Bay to Stanley Park and the mountains behind West Vancouver.
 Two of the mountain tops that show over the first high mountain ridge are called "The Lions" because they are shaped so like two lions resting, and the other is named "Lions Gate," to the first Narrows at the entrance to Vancouver Harbour and Burrard Inlet.
 A little to the east of the Lions is the form of the "Sleeping Beauty" a mountain slope outlining the form of a woman resting. The lighthouse at Point Atkinson and the entrance to Howe Sound are less than four miles away. To the northwest Bowen Island and Gibson's Landing are in the distance.
 To the west many boats and steamships are constantly moving through the Strait of Georgia on their way to or from Vancouver.
 New Westminster and other ports on the Fraser River are along the coast. Tugboats with huge rafts of logs and ferry boats loaded with freight cars may be seen making slow progress as they move towards their destination which may be the great mills on False Creek.
 Away to the south west can be seen the green mountains and hills of the "islands" between which ships pass on their way to Victoria, the Capital of British Columbia.
U.B.C.
 In 1907 Dr. Henry E. Young, then Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education in Sir Richard MacBride's Cabinet, drafted his own legislation and his first bill, dated March 25th, 1907, was entitled: "An Act to Aid the University of British Columbia by a Reservation of Provincial Lands." This legislation was passed in 1908.
 A University Site Commission was appointed, and after touring

Highways Department Moves To Promote Safer Driving

As a means of promoting safer driving on the highways of the Province a tighter system of examining operator's licenses is being used this year. This is according to information released by Mr. J. A. Gallant, Registrar of the Motor Vehicle Registration Department.
 Applicants will have to submit to and pass a written, visual and operational test. The Department has a number of safety films on hand which will be shown in halls and rural theatres. And it is hoped that when the local television station goes into operation, broadcast films on safe driving will be shown.
 Registration for the year 1956 to the end of April shows that approximately 15,000 cars and trucks have received licenses. This is about a 3,000 increase over the same period of time in the year 1955.
 Traffic fatalities during 1955 were 13. This is one in excess of the previous year. Five of these fatalities took place in a single accident.
SCHOOL BUSES
 In an amendment to the Highway Traffic Act passed at the last session of the Legislature provides that the driver of a vehicle approaching from either direction of a vehicle clearly marked as a school bus which has stopped for the purpose of receiving any child shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing such school bus.
 Another amendment provides that where the license or permit of any person or the registration of a motor vehicle registered in his name has been suspended or cancelled under the provisions of the Provincial Treasurer has paid from the fund any amount towards satisfaction of a judgment and the costs or either of them recovered against that person, the cancellation or suspension shall not be removed nor the license or permit restored nor shall any new license or permit be issued or granted or registration permitted to be made by that person until he has:
 Repaid in full to the Provincial Treasurer the amount so paid together with interest thereon at four per cent per annum from the date of such payment or has made an arrangement with the Provincial Treasurer for payment to him of the said amount and interest by regularly monthly instalments of not less than $25 each.
 If the person making the payment defaults in any instalment under the arrangement, within ten days of the date upon which any instalment falls due, the license or permit of such person shall immediately be cancelled and no registration shall be permitted until the full amount is paid toward the satisfaction of the judgment.
