You Will Have a Good Clock

If you buy it here. We are showing a large line of clocks that are RELIABLE, DURABLE and STYLISH. One that we fancy most is a block-wood clock, strikes the hours on a musical gong bell, and the half hours on a tinkling cup bell; it is tastefully decorated in gilt scrolls and has a beautiful ornamented dial

If you have any intention of buying a clock it will be well worth your time to see us and get prices.

Sweeping Through Africa.

Sweeping through Africa. We rally round the Union Jack, the flag our fathers bore, On many a famous battlefield in glorious days of yore, With firm resolve, that vandal hands shall never haul it down, The banner bright of Great Britain, so flooded with renown.

Hurrah! hurrah! the flag that makes men free! Hurrah! hurrah! the star of liberty! We'll sing our British war songs From Cape Town to "Zambe."

While sweeping through Africa,— When the bugle blasts were sounded and call was made, to arms!" We turned out from our workshops and trundled in from farms To prove to Mother England and show the watching world That the Empire is united when war flags are unfurled.

With Buller's British bull-dogs we will sweep the darkest land And do our duty bravely, gallant Otter in command. And when the war is over, there'll be liberty and light, While burghers bold will learn to know how "niggers white" can fight.

They may steal the Zulu's cattle and take the Kaffir's sheep, But our Maxims and our rifles will lull them fast asleep, And when the Boers, with pious rant, hear the cannon's thunder boom, They will realize the coming of the day of deathly doom.

So we go into the battle without a single doubt; "For the Empire and the Flag" is the slogan we will shout, And the foes will find Dominion boys full worthy of the name— No matter what our race may be, we're British all the same.

Nowadays when women are trying to do everything it is not strange that many things are over-done. It is not strange that there are all kinds of physical and mental disturbances. If the woman who is a doctor, or a lawyer, or a journalist, or in business would not try to be a society woman too it might be different; but the woman who knows when she has done a day's work has yet to be born. Usually a woman's way is to keep doing until she drops. Working in this way has manifold evils. The most common trouble resulting from over exertion, either mentally or physically, is constipation of the bowels, with all its attendant horrors.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most effectual remedy in the market. They work upon the system easily, naturally. There is no unpleasant nausea after taking them. No gripping—no pain—no discomfort. They are composed of materials that go through the system gradually, collecting all impurities and, like the good little servants that they are, disposing of them effectually.

A SAD CASE.—A 16-year old girl named Bella Parker committed suicide in New York a few days ago under peculiarly distressing circumstances. Her mother, a widow, has been supporting five children by working, but lately broke down in health. Then Bella went to work as a servant coming home each night to sleep. For three weeks the mother and the four other children had been starving, Bella's earnings not being sufficient to keep them supplied with food. Last Tuesday night when the girl came home the lamentations of the mother and the wails of the hungry children so affected her that she procured carbolic acid and drank it. The family at one time was well to do.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND MAGAZINE FOR JANUARY.—The January number opens with the first instalment of Professor Caven's "First Settlement of Three Rivers (Georgetown)," written in a charming historical and descriptive style. "Reflections of Theodore Isaac George Blickens," is an article that everyone should read. Mr. Walter Simpson continues "Cavendish in the Olden Time," and Mr. John P. Tanton "Memories of the Past." "A Ghost Story," by Mr. J. H. Fletcher, is a thrilling tale. The number contains another of those delightful sonnets by the late Thomas Le Page. Other articles of merit appear in this number. The frontispiece, entitled "The Last of Their Race—P. E. Island Micmacs," is a fine picture of our Indians, and is in itself worth more than the price of the magazine.

Cross Roads School.

The half-yearly examination of Cross Roads school was held on Monday, January 15th, in the presence of the trustees and a goodly number of parents and visitors. The schoolroom was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the girls. The pupils were examined in reading, orthography, arithmetic, geography, history, writing, grammar, and current events, by their teacher, Mr. George Brehaut, assisted by Mr. Chester McLure, teacher of Alexandra school. The pupils acquitted themselves creditably, the third grade especially. After the close of the examination a programme of readings, recitations, and patriotic songs was well rendered. Then candy and apples were distributed to the scholars by Mr. John McNeill, Mr. Daniel McRae, and the teacher. Complimentary remarks were made by Mr. Jas. McCallum and others. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the teacher upon the success of the examination, and also to Mr. Chester McLure for his assistance. The school then closed by singing God Save the Queen.
