

THE CITY'S CANDIDATES.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MAY 4, 1882.

Keep it Before the People.

That the Government have effected savings amounting to $127,000 a year.

That the Government, at the same time, paid, last year, for education, over and above the sum paid for this noble purpose by their predecessors in 1878, no less than $30,939.33.

That, for 1879, 1880 and 1881, they also paid, in the maintenance of the Hospital for the Insane, no less than $9,464.26 more than were paid in 1876, 1877 and 1878.

That, for 1879, 1880 and 1881, they also paid, in the maintenance of the Hospital for the Insane, no less than $9,464.26 more than were paid in 1876, 1877 and 1878.

That, with all this additional expense, they have been able to carry on the public business, rebuild the wharves and bridges destroyed by the great storm of 1879, pay off the debt left by their predecessors, roll up a balance in favor of the Province of $12,000, and abolish the Assessment Act, 1877.

That the present Government have practically encouraged agriculture to an extent never even attempted by their predecessors, and that the Stock Farm is on a better footing now than ever it was before.

That, as soon as the present Government succeed in abolishing the Legislative Council, the cost of legislation will be still further decreased by five or six thousand dollars a year.

That the Government have effected a saving in the cost of legislation of $5,059.19.

That the saving in the administration of justice amounts to about $18,000 a year.

That the present Government have been more economical than any previous Government of this Island.

Now, all these are undeniable facts from the books. We challenge the Taxationists to prove that they are essentially wrong.

And, if they are facts, can the electors—the taxpayers—of this Island fail to sustain the present Government?

Can they, as prudent men, again let Mr. W. D. Stewart and his dashaway follow us inside?

Can they afford not to sustain the present Government?

If they cannot, they must be alive to their true interests in election day; they must be at the polls en masse, to vote for the Government candidates!

The Taxationists Driven to Desperation.

The most contemptible and meanest tactics ever resorted to by any party are used against Mr. Blake by bringing civic matters into the present contest. Every one knows that it is very unfair to drag City Council matters into a Provincial election contest. Only men driven into a corner for want of better material would ever think of such an unfair game. It so happens, however, that Mr. Morris has some sins to answer for as a member of the City Council; and, perhaps, when some of his actions at that Board are brought to light, he may have occasion to exclaim: "Save me from my friends."

Belfast.

We are informed by a reliable correspondent from the above district, that Messrs. Nicholson and Crawford will, in all probability, be returned with handsome majorities. The farmers of Belle Creek, Belfast, Murray Harbor Road, Orwell and Lot 49, are almost unanimous in their support of these gentlemen. We are glad to see this fine district not going to allow itself to be made a tool of by a few scheming disappointed manipulators in Charlottetown.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY closed its season of entertainments in aid of the poor by a concert, given last evening in Market Hall. A leading feature of the concert were the selections by the Orchestral Club. They were played admirably, and received well-merited applause. The choruses, by St. Dunstan's Choir, were well rendered, while the vocal solos, by Miss Palmer, Miss G. Newbery, Prof. Caven, Mr. C. Hermans, and Mr. Montgomery, were excellent, and called forth encores. The following is the programme:—

- Instrumental—Le Val d'Amour—Orchestral Club
Chorus—Sunrise—Choir
Solo Vocal—In Happy Moments—Mr. C. Hermans
Solo Vocal—Take us back a Child again—Miss Crabbe
Solo Vocal—Kerry Dance—Miss G. Newbery
Solo Vocal—The Rhein Wine—Mr. Caven
Instrumental—String Quartet—Orchestral Club
Chorus—Moonlight—Choir
Solo Vocal—The First Letter—Miss Palmer
Solo Vocal—Forsaken—Mr. Montgomery
Solo Vocal—Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep—Mr. C. Hermans
Solo Vocal—I Fear No Fox—Mr. Caven
Instrumental—Spring Flower Waltzes—Orchestral Club
Chorus—Good Night—Choir

MR. STEWART TEPFER, son of Sir Charles, is winning laurels at the Bar of the Dominion Supreme Court. His abilities, during a recent case of great importance, have been recognized and warmly complimented by Sir William Ritchie.

MR. WILLIAM LAWSON, finding that his steward had let a farm for $400 a year more, and that the increased value was really due to the tenant's improvements, at once sent him a check for $1,000.

MR. J. J. McGER, brother of T. D'Arcy McGeer, Assistant Clerk of the Dominion Privy Council, has been appointed deputy for signing letters patent of Dominion and other lands.

A Merveilous Change.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The future of Manitoba, says the Patriot, is a "brilliant one." Its resources "illimitable." An agricultural country of "unimpaired richness." These are the eulogies of the Patriot of to-day. Not long since our contemporary held very different views, and gave utterance to sentiments of an opposite character. Manitoba was then uninhabitable, and only a fit home for the bear and the wolf. Its lands were incapable of culture. Its prairies visited only by wild beasts and birds of prey, and never destined to become the habitation of man.

NATIVE.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—"One of Ourselves," that calls into the New Era office and gives counsel, says that the state of political feeling in the Fort Augustus District is, indeed, a reliable authority! When it is known that the character in question, who passes himself off as "One of Ourselves," is an itinerant scapegrace, who betimes appears in this section of the country, and at present in charge of the "blurred" sheet, during the absence of its editor, the public may be enabled to judge as to the truth of the information which he gives. The honest farmers of Fort Augustus are not of the class of this unknown individual, who has found a bosom friend in the person of the champion inconsistent New Era editor.

Ferguson and Egan will receive the solid vote of Fort Augustus, and will certainly be returned as our representatives on Monday next.

Yours, &c.,

FORT AUGUSTUS.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The personal friends of the persons holding office under the Local Government will do well to note the threat of dismissal pronounced on said officials by Wm. Dunbar Stewart, the month-piece of the Grit party, at the meeting on Monday last, and as there is no very important question now before the public, all the personal friends of the present officials will do well to vote for the Government candidates throughout the Island, and teach that gentleman, and the party to which he belongs, that the men who have worked in their several offices late and early, and who have enabled the Government to a large extent to declare a surplus and remove the tax burden from the people, are entitled to some little consideration at the hands of an intelligent public.

Friends of the officials vote square for the Government candidates.

Yours,

GRIT OFFICIAL.

The Taxationists' Platform.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—It is with great reluctance that the Opposition have been compelled to announce anything in the shape of a platform. They have, however, given utterance to their determination to re-enact the Assessment Law of 1877, and to abolish Statute Labor, and thereby compel every poor man in the country to pay cash, in place of performing his road work. They are resolved to uphold an expenditure of $8,000 a year by opposing the abolition of the Legislative Council.

They have also announced their intention, in the words of one of their foremost leaders—the notorious W. D. Stewart—that if they get into power they will "clean out the Liberal Conservatives who are officials under the present Government."

This plank in the Opposition platform indicates that some only of the "officials" under the present Government are Liberal Conservatives. This rule should work both ways, and as the election on Monday next will be by open voting, the present Government will see how "officials" will vote, both in town and country.

Yours, &c.,

FAIRPLAY.

The Far West.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Some six or seven weeks since I observed in your paper a letter signed "Ubi hesa ibi para," which I thought at the time very appropriate, as so many were about leaving the Island. Since that time, I was away to the Far West myself, and saw many Islanders there. Some were my old friends and acquaintances, and no doubt but the writer of the letter had visited the Far West prior to that date, and he knew well what he was writing about. When I was there I formed my opinion, and obtained the opinion of many of those that left the Island, and are striving hard in the Far West to get settled, and with only a few exceptions the majority of those that are there from this Island are not as well off, or as little or no domestic comfort. Farmers, especially, that are at all comfortably settled here had better remain on the Island. The winters there are longer, the frost more intense, the water not good; but it is no doubt a better country for carpenters, blacksmiths, machinists, mill-wrights and all mechanics, the wages is much higher than in this Island, and work is more plentiful, it being a new country, and so many thousands going there the past two or three years, with all this there are privations that has to be encountered which surpass description. Therefore I would earnestly recommend all persons, farmers and tradesmen in particular, that all troubled with the far west fever to ponder and consider before they leave a good home here, and go to the far west, and in anything like comfortable circumstances, and fair prices for the future, to remain in P. E. I. live frugally, be economical and "diligent in business," let your calling be what it may. I felt sorry to hear of the sad loss of Sir of that beautiful establishment, steam and grist mill, owned by "Wright Bros.," Souris. On my arrival home last week, I first heard that these two industrious young men had decided for the far west after the fire, but now, I am informed, that they are preparing to rebuild and proceed to their new business again. I wish them every success and believe that they will be appreciated and patronized in that fine flourishing settlement, Souris East. I ask for a corner in your daily the first opportunity.

AN ISLANDER.

Inconsistency Exposed.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—How true it is that some men are everything by turns, and nothing long. How forcibly this applies to that individual who prints the New Era newspaper, now a candidate for St. Peter's District. Patrick Bowers, in his paper for a long time kept up the cry that Irish Catholics were not receiving in this Province a fair share of Government patronage, and that Government appointments and promotions to places of honor and employment were denied them, especially under the late Davies Local Government, and the late McKenzie Dominion Government. This pretended defender of the rights of Irishmen has now turned traitor to all his former professions. In proof, the fact that Patrick Bowers is to-day playing into the hands of the very party which he did not long since denounce for their alleged policy of "No Irish need apply." We need only point to his bitter and malicious abuse of two young Irishmen, of whom their fellow-countrymen have a just right to be proud of. Wm. W. Sullivan and Patrick Blake are both self-made young Irishmen, who by honest industry have won for themselves positions of honor at the hands of the people of all classes and creeds. Both Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Blake have shown to the whole country that they are men in whom the utmost reliance can be placed in all the transactions of life, political or otherwise. Why, then, does P. Bowers abuse and vilify them, his countrymen? Simply because he is actuated by selfish and jealous feelings most base and unmanly. To designate B-wers a turncoat would be to use very mild language. He has now allied himself to a party who despise him and look upon him at best as one who is ever ready to betray them when he thinks betrayal or a traitorous course would answer his own selfish ends best.

Patrick Blake, now a candidate for the representation of Charlottetown and Royalty, with every prospect of success, is receiving from the Bowers and Peters, Morris and Stewart faction all the opposition which it is in their power to give him. Mr. Sullivan is also hated by the same faction, and why? Let Patrick Bowers answer.

Politicians who turn their coats, who forsake their party and their friends on mere personal grounds, are no men, and are always looked upon with suspicion by all good men and true. Had Sullivan paid out the people's money in "advance checks" to delinquent contractors, Patrick Bowers would, to-day, be one of the most willing tools the "Leader" could have, instead of being a candidate for St. Peter's, in opposition to the first Irishman that ever was honored with the Premiership of this Province. The Irish of St. Peter's know this, and if we mistake not, their motto on Monday next will be, "Down with Traitors."

Yours truly,

A YOUNG IRISHMAN.

"I'm Honest."

On Monday last, the 1st of May, I happened on Queen Square to stray, and heard a politician (?) say—

I'm honest.

Quoth I, "Is such a statement right, Or do my eyes deceive me quite? Methinks I recognize by sight—

The speaker

Although we know that "Honesty Is truly the best policy," It can't apply to W. D.

I reckon.

An institution quite new by, Could the assertion bold deny, Had it a tongue to give the lie—

That instant.

"Turn, turn yet from your evil ways," The good old book most truly says, And let in future others praise—

You goodness.

When honesty must be proclaimed, By such an egotist as named, Its character is much defamed—

By Jingo.

Han-an-Tricket Race.

A London despatch says, Hanlan's time for the first mile was 5m 12s. He was then a length clear of Tricket. Soon after Hanlan, amid a good deal of laughter, stopped dead and looked around. There were again cheers and laughter, when shortly afterwards he stopped for quite a couple of strokes, Tricket in the meanwhile rowing in good form, but it was evident Hanlan could do what he liked with him. Hanlan was ten seconds ahead at Hamm-smith bridge, one mile and three quarters from the starting point. This distance was covered in 9 minutes 31 seconds. Here the crowd showed enthusiasm and excitement. Opposite Thornycroft's Works at Chiswick, a large lay right across the course, causing Hanlan to lose much ground. There was a very strong wind blowing in Curney Beach and both men were much bothered by the rough water. There was seven or eight seconds difference exactly in the time they arrived off Thornycroft's Works. Hanlan was in a regular surf and made for the Middlesex shore for shelter. When he got into smooth water he deliberately stopped and bailed water from his boat. Tricket was powerless in the waves and Kelley had to take him into shelter. Approaching Barnes Hanlan was nearly two hundred yards in front of Tricket rowing strongly and grandly. He made under Barnes Bridge, nearly three miles and five furlongs from the start, when Tricket was at Bull's Head, almost a furlong behind. So follow a race is seldom witnessed even with Hanlan. There was sixty-three seconds difference in the time of the men when off Barnes. Even though Hanlan stopped for 15 seconds, the champion still showed a show of Tricket, and won with ridiculous ease by too many lengths to count. After the finish of the race Hanlan turned round and met Tricket. He then turned again, rowed to the winning post, reaching it a length ahead. Hanlan appeared at a benefit exhibition given to him in Cambridge Music Hall last night, and was presented with a valuable diamond ring.
