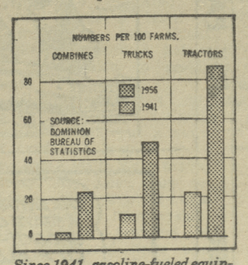
THEIR LIVES — HIS LIVELIHOOD — DEPEND ON OIL

Imperial contributes to a better life for Canadians through constant leadership in oil...finding new supplies...pioneering more useful products

There are more than five tractors for every six occupied farms in Canada...one motor vehicle for every four Canadians. More than half the homes in Canada are heated by oil.

Canadians consume half again as much gasoline today as they did in 1946, nearly five times as much heating and diesel fuels. Imperial has been a major contributor to this better life, more productive economy. In 1946, Canada produced less than one-tenth of its oil needs. In 1947, Imperial discovered oil at Leduc, in Alberta. Today, Canada's own fields produce nearly 60 percent of our requirements.

Through its nine refineries from coast to coast . . . and in its research operations, larger than the rest of the Canadian oil industry put together...Imperial has constantly been able to lead in the development of newer and more useful products . . . to make a fuller life for Canadians.



Since 1941, gasoline-fueled equipment on farms has risen sharply.

This Saturday Oct. 4th is NEWSPAPER BOY DAY

BOY'S... SIZE 8

There's something heart-warming about a pair of well-worn shoes standing beside a young fellow's bed. Sometimes they symbolize the work and play which makes up his day – his sprint to school, his part in sports, his spare time tasks and social activities. Somehow, too, they foretell the future – predict a useful and successful career for him.

We know of many such pairs of shoes in your town or city... shoes which travel miles each week, step by step, to bring to you and your neighbors a daily package of thrilling news and welcome entertainment. They belong to your newspaper boy.

Later, they will be replaced by a larger and shinier pair of shoes that will carry their owner into the more difficult paths of business, industrial and professional life. But right now, they are only boy's shoes, and their wearer is engaged in his first business venture – a newspaper route of his own.

We're doing everything possible to help him, but he needs your encouragement too! Long after these boyhood shoes are forgotten, you'll be proud to have had a part in fitting a worthy young man for a real success in life.

The GUARDIAN and all Newspapers across Canada join their customers on this annual occasion to salute the Newspaper Carrier Boy.
