

hations—and the excitement and agitation which prevailed amongst the numerous office seekers out of doors was ludicrous in the extreme.

“Here and there some stern high patriot stood, Who could not get the place for which he sued.”

It was not known until the following day who the successful aspirants were. We understand that Mr. Wm. Lowe has received the office of Public Works, to the unutterable disgust of the Wesleyan body, amongst whom there were at least three others each of whom considered he had a superior claim to Mr. Lowe, and we believe worked much harder in getting the present Government into office.

We understand that John McNeill, Esq., has been appointed to the Normal School, from which Mr. Monk was dismissed a short time since. It now appears that every petty employment, not even excepting that of schoolmaster, is to be regarded as political, and changed with every change in the Government.

CIVIC AFFAIRS.

It was our intention to have offered in this week's paper some observations on the approaching Civic Elections, which will be held a week hence; but want of time and space now prevent our doing so. No one seems to take any interest in civic affairs—no one speaks of the forthcoming election—and no one seems to know or care whether the present City Fathers will be re-elected.

DEFENCE OF THE REV. ALEXANDER SUTHERLAND.

The Protestant of Saturday last thus comes to the rescue of the worthy divine who uttered so palpable an untruth at the Presbyterian Synod, with respect to the closing of 68 schools in this Island through the influence of the Catholic clergy, and who made other statements equally false.

This is very like an admission that Mr. Sutherland's conduct is indefensible. It is true that a publisher is not bound to endorse the statements made in reported speeches; but when any person wickedly attempts to impose upon the credulity of a portion of the public, by uttering a very palpable falsehood as to a matter of fact about which there can be no mistake, it is the duty of the publisher to exclude it from his columns, or to accompany it with a refutation, when the facts are within his own knowledge.

Of Rufus Choate, the New York Tribune says, in a leading editorial article:—“To Boston—to Massachusetts—to New England—which so cherish and exalt their public men, there will be a deep sorrow. Long years of culture—the sober majesty of experience—suasion and music of the orator—exhaustless imagination and irrefragable logic—the ready, untiring and multifarious gifts of the advocate, the legist and litterateur—these will distinguish the memory of Rufus Choate.”

MR. WARBURTON'S RECEPTION AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE.—Our readers may remember that in our last we noticed the fact of Mr. Warburton, a member of the late Government, having called at Government House, and being refused admittance because the day was not the one appointed for the reception of visitors.

“Had the intelligence been sent to His Excellency that the Hon. James Warburton, all the way from Lot II., was desirous of paying his respects to Mrs. Dundas or His Excellency, he would have been forthwith shewn into the drawing room.”

We shall only say about this trumpety affair, that the explanation given, if true, makes matters worse, for we have learned, upon undoubted authority, that the refusal to admit Mr. Warburton was given after he had sent in his card. But as we believe His Excellency would not thus repulse any gentleman calling at the House, there must have been some mistake on the part of the “servant” in not delivering the card.

The writer in the Sanctified Press of Saturday last, who prostitutes the name of “Protestant,” in stringing together a number of falsehoods in justification of the mendacious spirit manifested by the Island correspondent of the Edinburgh Bulwark—may rest assured that we pass by his letter this week from no inability or inclination to answer it, but from want of space. The sensitiveness betrayed by “Protestant” proclaims him to be the correspondent of the Bulwark, and we have no doubt he is some morose bigot, who may hope to pass for a model of christianity by looking awfully sour and solemn—who spends his nights in a secret Orange Lodge in Charlottetown—who would rather die at the stake than say a good word of a Catholic—who believes he glorifies his Maker by libellations to the “glorious and immortal memory” of the phlegmatic Dutchman who supplanted the Stuart dynasty in England, and pandering to the spirit which is calculated to set men of different creeds “Fighting like devils for conciliation, And hating one another for the love of God.” But we assure the self-constituted saint, that we shall, in due season, make good all our positions with respect to the falsehoods sent from this Island to the Edinburgh journal, and to make him more anxious than ever to hide that lying visage, which, if endowed with human feelings, should blush for the calumnies he has uttered.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We regret that we have been unable to make room for several communications lately received from Prince County, most of which are from Summerside, in reference to recent appointments by the Government. A very strong feeling evidently prevails in that quarter of the country regarding the improper manner in which certain members of the Government have exercised the power with which they are entrusted. It would require a whole Examiner, for half a dozen weeks, to give expression to the numerous and very angry remonstrances which we have received from Summerside alone.

The publication of the letter of “a Stranger,” King's County, would serve no useful purpose at the present time. “Reardon's” communication is amusing, but is not sufficiently important to the public to warrant us in giving it a place in our columns.

“Rantum Scantam's” verses are full of humour and wit, but too personal. The same remark will apply to the interesting poetical effusion of “Aurora,” which we reluctantly decline.

We have received two lengthy communications, descriptive of Pic Nics held in the vicinity of Summerside on the same day. We really wish our contributors at that lively village would get up a newspaper of their own. We have Pic Nics in the vicinity of Charlottetown every day in the week—we have splendid rural scenery—excellent roads—fine horses and carriages—pretty girls without number—gallant beaux in abundance—weather as fine as it is at Summerside, and skies as blue; and yet nobody thinks of writing long descriptions of those things, which nobody, of course, would read.

“Publico,” on the Princetown election; “William Cooper,” third letter; “Sandy;” and “A Citizen,” on Corporation affairs—will receive due attention as soon as space will allow.

SIR DOMINICK DALY.—We observe by the London Times, of the 27th ult., that the late Lieut. Governor of this Island, Sir D. Daly, was presented to Her Majesty the Queen by the Duke of Newcastle, the present Colonial Minister, on the 25th ult. We understand that Sir E. B. Lytton, before retiring from the Colonial Office, left a very complimentary letter for Sir Dominick.

DEATH OF THE HON. RUFUS CHOATE.—The Hon. Rufus Choate, a distinguished and prominent member of the Suffolk (Massachusetts) Bar, and an able man in every respect, died in Halifax very lately. Mr. Choate lately left Boston on route for Europe in one of the Cunard steamers, for the benefit of his health, but on the voyage to Halifax he became so dangerously ill that he was unable to proceed on his journey. This illness terminated his existence. His remains were taken to Boston for interment. The Bench and the Bar of Nova Scotia, held a meeting in Halifax and passed resolutions of condolence with Mr. Choate's family.

A descendant of Gen. Howard, an English nobleman, and heir to property amounting to $30,000, is said to be in the House of Refuge, Cincinnati. Measures are being taken for his release.

There is a woman in Buffalo who knits in front of the residence of her debtor every day, in the hope of compelling him, by this public manner of dunning him, to pay up. She attracts large audiences, and never gets tired of repeating her story.

A Bangor deacon got up a few Sunday mornings since, and commenced polling his beans, and had made considerable progress before his mistake in the day occurred to him. Feeling mortified, he went round to the neighbours who had witnessed his feat, and explained the cause of his act.

Died, On Sunday night, 24th instant, HENRY STAMPER, Esq.—aged 70 years. Few days departed from amongst us more highly esteemed for integrity and uprightness of character than the subject of this brief notice, whose memory will be long cherished by all who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance. His funeral will take place from his late residence at 5 o'clock, p. m., Tuesday, the 26th inst.
