

Holmans Modernize 2 Stores

Holman's of P.E.I., expressing confidence in the future of this province and its people, recently unveiled the results of a long planned and considered modernization program in both its Summerside and Charlottetown stores.

Modernization of the two stores had been under consideration for about five years prior to the beginning of the program. Plans were modified several times and the saving the present plan was approved.

This plan, conceived by architect Laurie Odes, was evolved with great consideration for the design of future buildings around the stores, particularly the new Confederation Memorial Building in Charlottetown. The designs were also carefully planned so that the finished product would help reflect the character of the firm, president Alas Holman said.

The actual construction began early in March, with work pushed hard to cause the minimum of inconvenience to customers. The contractors, Robert Rankin in Summerside and Robert Petrie in Charlottetown, both finished their work on schedule.

FORMERLY 4 STORES

The Charlottetown store was originally a combination of four stores with each store front designed differently and nothing to tie the whole picture together. A few years ago a temporary front was put on the store pending the complete remodeling job.

Canadian grey and Swedish black granite were used in the lower portion of the new front with enamelled steel panels utilized above the level of the show windows. The name Holman's of P.E.I. will be added to the expanse of panels. At night the whole front is lit by blue-tinted flood lights.

Inside, ventilation and air conditioning equipment is being installed and future plans call for a new passenger elevator.

SUMMERSIDE STORE
The Summerside store is an old building with no front improvements made since 1944. It received much the same treatment as the Charlottetown store except that the enamelled steel panels do not go to the top of the building. Most of the work was done around the entrances

NEWLY-MODERNIZED CHARLOTTETOWN STORE ...

WE ARE PLEASED TO HAVE BEEN THE GENERAL CONTRACTORS ...

... and for our firm, this opening is a very special occasion ... for it marks the completion of one of our largest contracting jobs ... one which was completed on time ... and one, which we sincerely believe, is satisfactory in every respect. Yes, this IS a special occasion for us ... we thank the firm of Holman's for awarding us the contract ... and, too, we thank all our workers without whose enthusiastic efforts and co-operation, the job may not have been completed on time. We believe Holman's new store front is a credit to Charlottetown ... and to the entire Island ... and we know, too, that their Summerside store will be another tangible expression of Holman's faith in the future of this province. We are justly proud of the part our firm, and its employees, played in this forward step by Holman's, the Island's oldest and largest departmental store.
