

THE WEEK AT S.D.U.

Saints Home For Easter Before Student Elections

The students at St. Dunstan's packed their suitcases and departed for their homes on Wednesday afternoon to begin the Easter holidays, the last break before the final examinations which begin the first of April.

The vacation period extends from Wednesday noon, March 25, until Tuesday noon, March 31. However, there are a few of the students still around, those whose homes are too far away and those who remained for the express purpose of getting some needed study done.

Wednesday's service was held in the United Baptist Church with the pastor, A.G.J. Steeves, conducting the service. The guest speaker, Rev. F. MacKinnon, read the lesson from John chapter 8 and also led in prayer.

The music was under the direction of the organist, Miss Clonnie MacLean. Congregational hymns were "At The Cross", "Of Jesus", "The Way Of The Cross", and the choir sang as an anthem "Lead Thee To Calvary".

Rev. Mr. MacKinnon spoke on the text "When ye have lifted up the son of man, then shall ye know that I am he", John 8:28.

Catholic Library Committee Meets

The addition of about two dozen new books was noted at the meeting of the Committee for the Catholic Library and Information Centre held on March 20th.

These included several volumes for the section on marriages and family life and fourteen new children's books, such as Small Child's Bible, illustrated by Pelegie Doane.

The chairman, W. A. Murphy, reported that various parish organizations had held executive meetings at the centre, and that several generous donations had been received in response to the appeal made recently.

It was decided to make further purchases of children's books with these funds.

Mrs. (Dr.) Leo Killorn and Mrs. Eugene MacDonald were appointed to arrange a display of books from the library for the day of recollection held at Marian College by the members of the Christian Family Movement on Sunday.

The officers and ladies at Sunset Lodge were the guests of the Zion Church Women's Missionary Society on Sunday when they enjoyed a sacred service with special musical numbers.

Numbers included a solo "Alone" by Mrs. Sutherland MacLean, and a duet "In the Garden" by Mrs. Sutherland MacLean and Mrs. Neil A. Matheson.

Master Edward MacLaren, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas MacLaren, Montague, left by plane on Thursday to spend the holidays as guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Campbell, Moncton N.B.

Many young friends in Montague will be pleased to hear that Gary Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Major Young, Red Point, is convalescing satisfactorily following his recent illness in the Souris Hospital.

THE TRUE STORY THAT BARES THE WOMAN'S HEART BEHIND THE WOMAN'S SIN!

THE REAL "BARBARA," HOLDS HER BABY THE ACTRESS "SUSAN," A DRAMATIC PORTRAYAL

HER SCREAM . . .

I want to Live

Bounced against the steel walls as they dragged a twisting raging Barbara Graham back to her cell!

They had just branded her a murderess — but this wasn't the only mark that life and her underworld "friends" had seared on her body. There were the marks of the petty crimes she committed — stains that all the police blotters in the country couldn't soak up.

And there were the scars you couldn't see. The scars that Barbara Graham, the party girl, carried in her heart . . . one for every man.

Barbara Graham's affairs . . . her mistakes . . . her trial . . . a thousand incidents defied the censor. Then a Pulitzer-Prize winning reporter, Ed Montgomery—who had led the pack howling for her conviction—uncovered startling evidence that shed doubt on her guilt . . . and her story became something more than it was—a story that will never die!

It took courage to bring Barbara Graham's real-life, real-shock story to the screen . . . and the producers of "I WANT TO LIVE!" did not compromise with reality in exposing life to film!

And to all this add the superb performance of Susan Hayward, who won Academy Award nominations for "Smash Up", "My Foolish Heart" and "I'll Cry Tomorrow". From the flesh and fire that was Barbara Graham . . . she has fashioned a portrayal that will burn itself into your memory.

Above all — this story was lifted body and soul from life . . . with no whitewash or watering down . . . and that is the hurricane force that makes this picture so different . . . so important . . . so great!
