Alberton Adult Club Chooses Officers

Last Monday night the recently organized club held a most enthusiastic rally in the Alberton United Church Hall with Mr. and Mrs. E. MacDonald acting president. A rousing sing song started the evening's programme and was led by Gordon Coffin with Mrs. John W. Wells as pianist. This was followed by a devotional period of ten minutes conducted by the pastor Rev. R. A. Fitzpatrick using a chart on "The Lack of Character."

Games of a most amusing character were supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston. The club will be known as "The Alberton United Adult Club" and will include single and married adults.

The nominating committee's report was unanimously adopted:— Hon. Presidents—Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick.

Secretary—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston. Entertainment—Convenors—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Coffin.

Refreshment Convenors—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. MacDonald.

Owing to the Christmas season the most meeting will be held Wednesday, January 3rd. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies under Mrs. J. H. Wells direction.
