THE LORD'S SUPPER

The prophet Isaiah takes the reader back to the work of creation in chapter 40:1-26. He emphasizes the vastness of the heavens, the trement is as weight of the mountains and the infinite wisdom shown in all of nature. Who could have counselled God in all of this? Certainly not man, for even after thousands of years, he has not even begun to comprehend the works of God's creation.

Gov't Church Slow To Adjust

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Governments and churches are slow to adjust to the rapid changes in today's world, at some points bow down, R.T. Rev. J. R. Mutchmor, moderator of the United Church of Canada, said in an interview Wednesday.

David, the poet, sings of God's wisdom in creating so useful an universe, urges all to join in his blessing and praise.—Psalms 104:1-2, 24, 33; 24:1, 2.

MEMORY VERSE: "The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof; of the world and they that dwell therein."—Psalms 24:1.

Mary's Silence Was A Message

By CARDINAL McGUGAN
As we move through the events of Christ's Passion, seeking reverently the lessons they actively convey in our daily living, we come to the foot of the Cross. And we find St. John telling us, "Now I have stood by the cross and the child of these two we call sympathy."
