

CEREMONY OFFICIALLY OPENS SPRING PARK CHURCH

The ceremony of the knocking at the doors performed by Rev. Clayton C. Lewis officially opened the Spring Park United Church last evening. The ceremony of the knocking at the main door of the church signifies God's persistence and patience ever standing at the door of the human heart waiting for man to hear and welcome Him. Albert Phillips, recording steward, invited the clergymen taking part

immediate past-president of the Maritime Conference of the United Church; Rev. Isaac Walls, chairman of Presbytery.

More Emphasis Is Needed On Wildlife Restoration

With the decline and disappearance of many game and wildlife species, the emphasis today in wildlife management is on their restoration through the provision and maintenance of homes or habitat, said C.O. Bartlett, director, fish and wildlife division, department of industry and natural resources.

This need for habitat restoration has been recognized and emphasized by a number of pieces of federal legislation in force now or pending, he said. "We are working on legislation to amend our Fish and Game Protection Act and it is my hope that in the not too distant future we will have a more suitable act and terms of reference under which we can administer."

portion of the Canada Land Inventory, a program to take stock of wetlands wildlife and establish a priority rating to wetland areas for possible acquisition and development.

Co-chairmen for the meeting were Norman Lowther and Wallace Rodd.

First golf match of the season between the Rotary Clubs of Summerside and Charlottetown will be held at Cavendish on June 16.
