The bidding: South West North East 1♥ 1♠ 2♠ 2♠ 3♦ Pass 5♦ Pass

Opening lead—eight of spades. From a recent tournament comes this interesting hand. South opened the bidding with a hand many players would pass.

make the hand was by a cross-ruff. He ruffed a heart, then a spade, another heart and another spade, and then another heart.

Next he cashed A-K of clubs and ruffed a club. (This last play was incorrect—he should have trumped dummy's last spade.)

The ten of hearts was trumped with dummy's queen and East disposed of his queen of spades. Declarer had not yet lost a trick.
