SYMPATHY.

Oh, to see one's own emotion
Make another's cheek burn bright!
Oh, to mark one's own devotion
Fill another's eyes with light!
Tears are types of woe and parting,
But o'er woe a charm is thrown,
When from other eyes are starting
Tears that mingle with our own.

Never sweeter—never dearer—
Seems the world and all it holds,
Than when loving hearts see clearer
All that "Sympathy" unfolds!
Every thought, and look, and feeling—
Every passion we can name,
Still a second self revealing!
Still another—yet the same!

WESLEY AND WELLINGTON.

It is very remarkable, that the family of Wesley has given to Great Britain two of the most eminent men of modern times,—the Greatest Captain of the age and the greatest Apostle of Evangelical truth, perhaps, since the Reformation.

The family of Wesley or Wellesley as it is now called, was very ancient in the County of Meath and had summons to Parliament among the Baronial houses of Ireland as early as the year 1389 The representative of the family at the commencement of the last century was Garret Wesley, Esq., of Dungan who married a daughter of Dudley Colly of Castle Carberry and was succeeded on his Estates by his only son Garret Wesley.—This person died childless and by his will, dated 1727, gave all his estates to his cousin Richard Colly, his mother's nephew, on condition of his assuming the name of Wesley.—This Mr. Colly Wesley having obtained the property of Dungan, in addition to his own paternal Estate, became a large landed proprietor and being a young man of talents and energy, obtained a seat in the Irish Parliament, got into Government employment,—the great road to honours in Ireland at that time. and eventually was elevated to the Peerage by the title of Baron Mornington. He was the grandfather of the great Duke of Wellington. The Duke's Elder brother, the late Lord Mornington about the year 1803, finding that in the ancient records of the family, the name was spelt Wellesley, and that Wesley was merely an abreviation, though it had been used by the family for nearly 200 years, assumed the name of Wellesley on his being elevated to the English Peerage as Marquis of Wellesley, and the Duke himself retained the name of Arthur Wesley, until some time after his arrival in India.

In the year 1723, the old gentleman Garret Wesley, of Dungan above mentioned, being childless, wrote to his kinsman (probably a second cousin) in England, the Revd. Samuel Wesley, Rector of Epworth, father of the celebrated John Wesley, offering to adopt his youngest son Charles, and make him heir to his property, at this time young Charles Wesley was at Westminister School, and for several years the expenses of his education were defrayed by Mr. Garret Wesley, who eventually came over to England, and after much conversation and enquiry, asked him whether he would accompany him to Ireland. The youth decided on writing to his father before he would make up his mind,—the father left it to his own choice, and he preferred the prospects which the ministry afforded to the riches of this world; a happy choice, says John Wesley in his account of his brother. The result of this choice was most remarkable, for Mr. Garret Wesley returned to Ireland, and chose his mother's nephew young Richard Colly to succeed him, a gentleman whose worldly sagacity elevated him to the peerage, and laid the foundation of a family which now takes its place among the nobles of the land.

It will be seen that the Duke of Wellington claims no blood connection with the Wesleys or Wellesleys, his ancestor was Mr. Colly, whose aunt, Elizabeth Colly married a Mr. Wesley. The Wesleys are an ancient noble family, the Collys were not, and the only patrician descent the great Duke had to boast of, was through his mother, who was a Miss Hill Trevour, daughter of Lord Dungannon, who claims alliance through junior branches, with some of the great English Houses.

Solomon says, "He who gains a victory over himself is greater than he who taketh a city."

The family of Wellesley have as much to boast of in the Great, John Wesley as in their adopted son, the Hero of Waterloo and Seringapatam. The latter through his great military talents achieved the peace of Europe and saved his country from a foreign foe,—the former by the Grace of God, was the instrument of achieving "that peace which passeth all understanding" in the hearts of millions of his fellow countrymen, and by heroic exertions in the cause of pure Gospel Truth has sent his name to posterity with imperishable fame in the history of the Christian Church. Which of those two men was the greatest? they have both gone to their account.

Several physicians have endorsed the efficacy of the application of fat bacon to those attacked with scarlet fever. Dr. Lindsay of Washington, says:—My plan has been to have the whole body rubbed with the inside rind of fat uncooked bacon, during the whole course of the disease, and to depend upon the tincture of iodine, applied freely once, twice or three times in the twenty-four hours, to arrest the anginous affection. But one case (and that had left the city convalescent) terminated fatally, besides another one which I saw in consultation, in which this treatment was applied." If there is virtue in this simple remedy it cannot be too generally known. It has this recommendation; it can do no harm.

We see it stated that a well has been sunk in Hocking Valley, Ohio, to the depth of six hundred feet, for the purpose of obtaining salt water. The object of the enterprising individuals has been fully accomplished, a supply of water having been reached, which requires but fifty-three gallons to make a bushel of salt of fifty pounds. The water rises spontaneously to the surface, at the rate of 4,000 to 5,000 gallons per day.

Origin of Wheat.—A most curious and able dissertation upon the origin of wheat completely justifies the views we have held; for, although it does not show, that oats change into rye, as many believe, and offers no support to some other speculations of the same kind, nevertheless it demonstrates, beyond all further question, that wheat is itself a transmutation of a kind of wild grass. M. Esprit Fabre, of Agde, well known to botanists as an acute observer and patient experimentalist, has made the discovery, which has been introduced to public notice by Professor Dunal of Montpelier.—

Syrup for Preserves.— Take eight pounds of bright, clear New Orleans, or sugar-house molasses, eight pounds of pure water, and one pound of coarsely broken charcoal; boil together for twenty minutes, and then strain through a flannel cloth folded double; return the liquor to the kettle, with the white of one fresh egg, and boil moderately till the syrup forms a candy of the desired consistency, and strain again. This syrup is a superior article for preserving pears, plums, &c., for tarts, and is preferred by most to that made of the best sugar, being less liable to candy and ferment. So says a cook book.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erwwen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that, for a very long period, I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming, that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition, I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
(Signed) JOHN LLOYD.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks. (Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT, WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Extract of a Letter from S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, Near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you, that, for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASM IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood, with whom I am well acquainted, was affected for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position, which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs, that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

WONDER OF THE WORLD.

Gravel Cured of five years standing.

Messrs. Curtis & Perkins, Bangor, Me.

Gentlemen,—I have been entirely cured of the Gravel, by the us of your Cramp and Pain Killer. I commenced taking the Cramp and Pain Killer in the Spring of 1847. I had been a great sufferer for ten years previous; some four or five years of the time I suffered beyond all my powers to describe.

During this time, I have had medical aid, and tried various spe- cifics, but found very little relief until I obtained your Cramp and Pain Killer. In one month after I commenced using it, I began to grow better. I continued to use it for a year, all the time improving until I was entirely cured. Miles Staples.

We, the undersigned, are well acquainted with the above case, and certify to the above statement of facts.

Charles Clifford,

Stanton Ellis.

Doctor Toby, a regular practising Physician, of East Machias, writes us under date of March20, 1847: "Please send me half a gallon of your Cramp and Pain Killer—it is the best medicine to cure what it is represented to, that I everused."

The Doctor first made use of it in his own case, for a severe sprain in the shoulder, caused by the upsetting of a stage, and found immediate relief, and since has used it in his practice.

Read the following. It speaks for itself.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

I certify, that I was afflicted with a violent Rheumatic pain in the small of my back, which entirely disabled me, so that I could not get up without the greatest pain and effort; nor could I walk without a cane, and but very little with. I applied Doctor Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, or Liquid Opodeldoc, and several other remedies, without any relief. After suffering in this way about a week, I purchased a bottle of Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by Curtis & Perkins, Bangor, and after three applications was entirely relieved and free from pain, and am now entirely well. I also cured a friend of mine, who had been suffering for a long time with a lame side, with the same bottle. I believe it the best medicine in the world, and am happy to add my testimony in its favor!
