

WATER SAFETY WEEK PLANNED

Achieving her goal of qualifying for one of the highest awards in life saving to be awarded by the Royal Life Saving Society, the Bronze Medalist, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Montague, smiles proudly as she receives her award from Keith Lapp of Summerside. Provincial Chairman of the Red Cross Water Safety Services. With a view to acquainting both children and adults with certain rules of conduct in swimming and boating the Red Cross Society of Prince Edward Island has designated June 15th to 21st, as "Water Safety Week". This year's water safety campaign has been endorsed by the Lieutenant Governor F. Walter Hyndman and Premier A. W. Matheson.

Rebekah Assembly Warden Visits Lodge At Montague

Mrs. Estelle Dennis, Charlottetown, warden of the Maritime Rebekah Assembly, was an unofficial visitor to Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, Thursday evening, June 12th and was guest of honor at a delightful social hour at the Bison Restaurant at the close of the meeting. Accompanying Mrs. Dennis and introduced with her were Mrs. Agnes Coffin, past president of the Maritime Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Marie Dewar, inside guardian of the Maritime Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Matilda Frizzell, deputy president of Alpha Rebekah Lodge and Mrs. Hazel Hooley, deputy president of Acme Rebekah Lodge. The officers were introduced by Mrs. Vera MacDonald and Mrs. Marjorie Johnston and were graciously welcomed by the Noble Grand, Miss Adah MacGregor.

Mrs. Dennis gave a very interesting and instructive address on the principles of the Order of Oddfellows, stressing the importance for each member to practise the teachings of the beautiful lectures of the Rebekah degree in every day living. Mrs. Coffin, Mrs. Dewar, Mrs. Frizzell and Mrs. Hooley also spoke briefly. An impressive memorial service was presented under the direction of Mrs. Doris Llewellyn. The lectures were given by Mrs. Llewellyn, Mrs. Erma MacLaren, Mrs. Hooley and Mrs. Catherine Stewart. Mrs. Florrie White was flower bearer and the candle bearers were Miss Florrie Beaton and Mrs. Lillian MacDonald. A duet was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Hooley and Mrs. MacDonald, and the pianist was Mrs. Hilda Hickey. On behalf of the members of Acme Lodge, Mrs. Llewellyn presented Mrs. Dennis with a lovely gift for which the honored guest graciously expressed her appreciation.
