REFORMS IN IRELAND.

Poor Rates and County Cess Relief.

LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT PROMISED

Irish Leaders Well Pleased.

LONDON, May 22.—The Leader of the Government in the House of Commons (Mr. Balfour) made an important statement yesterday afternoon regarding the Government's policy, which will be carried out next session, the object of which is to give Ireland an equivalent for the relief in agricultural rates given to England. The Government, he said, propose to place both the poor law and co-administration on a broad, popular basis. Landlords must be relieved of all rural rates. At the present time land owners are liable to half the poor rates, which the Government proposes to pay hereafter out of the Imperial fund. The tenants are now liable for their half of poor rates and the country less. But the Government proposes, hereafter, to pay the country less out of the Imperial funds. This change will be a double benefit to the two classes.

Mr. Balfour explained that this will enable the Government to launch the scheme for Local Government which, he believed, would work safely and smoothly. He could not then give the details of this scheme which would place a large charge upon the exchequer. But, continued Mr. Balfour, it was a charge which the country at large and unionists would not grudge if thereby they could see the way to carry out reforms to which they had pledged themselves. Mr. Balfour was of opinion that every class of the community would be disposed to regard with favor a change which he could not but think must prove one of the greatest reforms carried out under the safest conditions ever suggested in the House of Commons. (Loud cheers.)

Mr. Carson, the Conservative member for Dublin University, and formerly Solicitor-General for Ireland, referred in terms of approval to the proposal of the Government.

John Dillon, Charles Campbell Bannerman and John Redmond, the Parnellite leader, approved of the proposals.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Fast Atlantic Service Safe

Tribute to the Late Mr. McKenzie.

OTTAWA, May 22.—Little of interest was done in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon.

After recess, when the House of Commons reassembled, Sir Richard Cartwright said:

"Before we proceed with the business of the evening, I may mention that we received this afternoon a formal communication from Her Majesty's Government to the effect that they approved of the arrangements for a Fast Atlantic Line. The arrangements are those, substantially, which were previously communicated to the House.

The estimates for Public Works, including dredging, were then passed, and miscellaneous items, among which was a vote of $5,000 for a statue to the late Hon. Alexander MacKenzie.

Sir Charles Tupper, when this item was before the House, paid a warm tribute to Canada's first Liberal Premier. The vote, he added, should have been asked for long ago.

Sir Richard Cartwright said that these views reflected credit on Sir Charles Tupper. Events has he said justified the wisdom of Mr. McKenzie's views. The House adjourned.
