Laymen's Sunday Held At Trinity

The greatest laymen's rally ever held at Trinity was highlighted last Sunday by two local speakers. In the morning service Mr. Thomas D. DeBlols spoke on the subject of "Faith." It was a great sermon and a great testimony of a man who has really learned the real secret of living. The congregation will long remember the speaker and the sermon. Dr. G. D. Stei, clerk of Session, conducted the service, and Dr. Lloyd Shaw preached the Children's sermonette.

In the evening Mr. Walter R. Shaw, M. B. E. Deputy Minister of Agriculture, gave his informative, interesting, and challenging lecture on "The Churches of Europe." He was flanked on either side by elders of Trinity Church. Without hesitation and with great acceptance Mr. George Johnson, Dr. Eric Found, Mr. D. Gordon MacCallum, Hon. A. W. Matheson, Dr. Frank MacKinnon, and Mr. John A. MacNeil represented farming, medicine, organized labor, law, teaching and business respectively. Mr. Shaw gave a great lecture and used the seeming decay of religion in Europe as a warning that it could happen here, unless we give religion the place it deserves in our daily life.

Mr. Albert Dinnis led the Men's Choir in the evening, and Miss Louise Cox played the organ.

P. E. I. ART SOCIETY

The November meeting of the P. E. I. Art Society was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George DeBlols, West Street with thirty members in attendance. The President, Mrs. P. A. Creelman, was chairman of the meeting. The programme of the evening centred around an interesting display of water colour paintings by Mrs. Ruth Wainwright of Halifax. Forty paintings, based on landscapes of Newfoundland and Nova Scotia settings, were shown in turn and discussed by the members. Plans were drawn up for a public showing of these works at the Harris Memorial Gallery during the following week.

MRS. CELIA A. PATTERSON DIES

Mrs. Celia A. (Dovey) wife of John D. Patterson of 110 Warren Ave., Milton, Mass., formerly of Attleboro, Mass., passed away Tuesday, November 7th. In addition to her husband, the deceased is survived by one brother and the following sisters: G. Leslie Dovey of 8 School St., Mrs. Mabel (Charles) Bloss of 212 South Main St., and Mrs. Lottie (Gurtis) Alstein of 50 13th St., all of this city; Mrs. Clarence Frost of Milton; Mrs. Laura Peoples of Allston and Mrs. M. A. Jones of Miami. She also leaves two aunts: Mrs. Martha Hodges and Mrs. Alice Luther, of this city, and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Patterson has relatives and friends on the Island. The funeral service was held at the Mattapan Baptist church, Elliot and Blue Hill pkwy., Milton.

Driver - Brown Wedding

A wedding of interest to friends and relatives in this Province took place on October 7th in Parkdale Presbyterian Church, Toronto, when Winnifred Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan R. Brown of Charlottetown was united in marriage with Mr. Ernest Driver of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Driver, Southampton, England. The impressive service was performed by Rev. Dr. James McNeill. The church soloist sang very sweetly "The Lord's Prayer" and during the signing of the register "I'll Walk Beside You". The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, Frank Brown, looked lovely in a floor length gown of ivory brocaded satin. Her full length veil of embroidered tulle was held in place by a halo of satin and pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white baby mums. The bridesmaid, Miss Ruth McCurdy of Toronto was charming in a gown of pale green brocaded satin with matching shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow mums. The groom was supported by his friend, Mr. Stanley Nesbitt. Mr. Ralph Hewitt and Mr. Noel Almond ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. Robertson, King Street West, where a delicious luncheon was served to about thirty guests. Toasts were proposed by Mr. Stanley Nesbitt to the bride and bridesmaid and responded to respectively by the groom and Mr. Noel Almond. The three-tier wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the happy couple left by motor for a honeymoon at Lumberlost Lodge Muskoka Lakes. The bride travelled in a dove blue tailored suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. On their return they will take up residence at 71 Roosevelt Road, Toronto.

Wheatley River C.G.I.T. Meeting

Wheatley River C. G. I. T. group held its re-organization meeting on Friday evening, Nov. 10, at the home of Jean Chandler. The members opened the meeting by all repeating the C. G. I. T. purpose. Scriptures were read by Alice MacLean, Marjorie Axworthy and Helen Rose Eikhoud, followed by prayer by Shirley Eikhoud.

A short story about a Japanese girl named "Tama" was read by Jean Chandler. "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus" was sung. Roll call was answered by six members and leader, suggesting a name for the group. "Willing Workers" was chosen. Treasurer reported $11.15 on hand.

It was decided to take part of the funds for new C. G. I. T. mummies for the group. A letter was read from Mrs. Cairns about the convention in Kensington on Saturday, Nov. 18.

Discussion on what handicraft to take up this year took place; it was finally decided on knitting. Collection taken amounted to forty-five cents.

Roll call for next meeting is to be answered with a verse containing the word "Lord". Place of next meeting at Alice MacLeod's. Games and lunch, followed by

LONG CHRISTIAN

Christianity was introduced into Ethiopia in A. D. 330.

as well as in the community where her energy and kindly disposition made her a friend to all.

Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn, two daughters, Pearl, Mrs. Leigh Maynard of Northam; and Isabelle, Mrs. Elroy Ramsay, Tyne Valley; and one son, John, of West Royalty; also surviving are five sisters, three brothers, and ten grandchildren.

A short service was held for the members of the immediate family by her friend and pastor, Rev. Leslie Dignan, who also conducted funeral services at St. John's Anglican Church, Ellerslie, assisted by Rev. R. H. Baxter of Bideford.

The pall-bearers, nephews of the deceased, were Budd Williams, William Hayes, Chester Hayes, Eldon Millar, Winston England, Vernon England.

Many beautiful floral tributes and messages of sympathy brought comfort to the bereaved relatives testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held.
