

Local and Other Items.

THE St. James' Kirk Bazaar concluded last night. It was a great success. The amount realized is upwards of $1,300.

SEVENTY-THREE bags of English and American mail matter arrived at Cape Traverse at noon to-day and left immediately for this city.

A "HOODLUM" named McDonald was sentenced by the Stipendiary Magistrate to-day to one month's imprisonment for vagrancy.

MR. HENRY COOMBS is now buying potatoes at 15 cents per bushel, and to-day, notwithstanding the bad roads, Water street was thronged with sleighs loaded with potatoes for Mr. Coombs.

JOHN DORSEY has bought, en bloc, William Larter's stock of Boots and Shoes, numbering between nine and ten hundred pairs, which he is selling at greatly reduced prices. Call and examine.—[April 1, 2]

We have unfortunately mislaid an introductory letter from Vich Dhonnul Nan Ord, which, if we can find it, shall appear in our issue of Monday, but if we cannot find it, we hope our friend Dhonnul will kindly give us a duplicate of it from his rough notes.

REV. S. R. ACKMAN, of Cornwall, will deliver a popular Lecture on "MUSIC," in the Basement of Zion Church, on Monday, 5th inst., at 8 p.m. We would advise those who wish a treat to attend, as the lecture will be illustrated with vocal and instrumental music. Admission 10 cts.—21

SNOW FIGHTING.—The trains made very good progress in the snow to-day. The one from Georgetown is now at Baldwin station; from Summerside, at Kensington; from Souris, at New Zealand; from Charlottetown going West, at Frestown; and from Charlottetown going East at Bedford. The road will be totally opened on Monday, and communication re-established.

At the St. James' Kirk Bazaar in Market Hall, on Friday evening, the balloting by the admirers of Sir John and Mr. Mackenzie resulted in a victory for the latter. This is suggestive. When Mr. Mackenzie was in power his admirers, at bazaars, voted briskly and, when victory was his, they sent him walking canes. Now Mr. Mackenzie is in opposition. He is still victorious at bazaar balloting, but instead of sending the usual walking cane, his admirers send him stools. Long may Mr. Mackenzie live to sit on the stools to shed tears of repentance.

County Court.

His Honor Judge Alley yesterday delivered judgment in the following cases:—

Meacham vs. Wadman—Judgment for plaintiff.

Meacham vs. Robertson—Judgment for defendant.

Meacham vs. Braddock—Judgment for defendant.

Fyfe vs. Meacham—Judgment for plaintiff. The fatal objection in the case of Meacham vs. Robertson was that the defendant's out-buildings were misplaced in the sketch. Instead of being represented as forming three sides of a square, to afford a shelter to his cattle, they were represented as being in one straight line.

In the case of Meacham vs. Braddock, the defence was that the defendant's farm was misrepresented—cutting him short of twenty-five acres. Another objection was that the Atlas is incorrect, inasmuch as it represents Halliday's wharf to be three-quarters of a mile above McNally's wharf, whereas they are directly opposite each other. Braddock was sued for the price of the Atlas, and won mainly on the ground of the first objection.

In the case of Mr. Fyfe, the evidence of the Hon. Neil McLeod, which was not before noticed, showed that his recommendations were excellent.

Danger in Charlottetown.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR, I wish to warn the citizens of this city against a certain lunatic, who must have lately escaped from the watchful care of Dr. Blanchard, and who has set forth his views in the columns of your valuable paper of yesterday, under the title of "Episcopalian." Not expecting to receive a favorable answer from the said lunatic; yet, Mr. Editor, if he is so well acquainted with Tignish, I would ask him through your columns to give me the total number of "idiots" in that place through the effects of marrying with cousins. I am, &c., &c. D. V. H. Charlottetown, April 3, 1880.

Remedy for Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple pure remedies, Hop Bitters that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own household work for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."

August Flower.

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1868, and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sickheadache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, vertigo, etc., etc., it never has failed to our knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two million bottles sold last year. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents.

MOVEMENT OF CHINESE TROOPS.

Special Dispatch to the Examiner.

OTTAWA, April 2.

After routine proceedings, including receiving petitions for and against Deceased Wife's Sister Bill, Wallace introduced a Bill to provide for the equitable distribution of the estate of defaulting debtors. On motion for the house to go into supply, Rykert made a personal explanation rebutting charges made against him in the House. The house went into Committee and took up the Estimates and Supplementary Estimates—passed Estimates of expenditure under the head of Administration of justice, also under the head of police, also under the head of penitentiaries.

Mr. Blake asked a great many questions, and the Minister of Justice answered them with a fullness of knowledge of the details, thus showing how carefully he has set himself to the work of his Department. He explained fully how the present Government had endeavored to prevent convict labor coming into competition with free labor or extending the convicts upon work required by the Dominion in the Northwest, upon which question considerable discussion took place.

Sir Albert Smith asked when the Dorchester Penitentiary would be occupied.

Mr. McDonald said it would be opened the beginning of the fiscal year.

The Princess Louise is engaged in sketching Chaudiere Falls from the Suspension Bridge. It is probable that H. R. H. will execute an oil painting of this magnificent scene.

LONDON, April 3rd.

The latest returns show the election of 235 Liberals, including Home Rulers, and 121 Conservatives, giving a Liberal gain of 51 thus far.

This morning's Times, regarding a Liberal Government as a matter of course, discusses the consequent political prospects, and thinks Mr. Gladstone is certain to take office.

Mr. Parnell has abandoned his intended revisit to Enniscorthy next Sunday, and has arrived at Cork, where he will remain until the elections are all decided.

The German papers unanimously view Gladstone's Government with apprehensions. The Austrian and Turkish Governments are astounded at the result of the elections.

It is rumored that 1,500 Chinese troops have crossed the Eastern Russian frontier at Ussuri, and that 30,000 are concentrated on the Western frontier.

REPORT on the LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY: "We have visited the bottling stores of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
