King's County Exhibition.

A Large Attendance.
AN EXCELLENT DISPLAY.
THE PRIZE LIST.

THE EXAMINER must congratulate the gentlemen composing the King's Co. Exhibition Association upon the success attending the exhibition held under their auspices at Georgetown yesterday. The show was held on the new exhibition and driving park grounds, and was highly creditable to all concerned. There was a large attendance of spectators, and the exhibits, both outside and inside the drill shed were of excellent quality, although in some few instances the quantity was not so great as at former exhibitions.

The display of horses was creditable alike to the county, and to the exhibitors. Some splendid specimens of carriage stallions, colts and fillies were shown by Messrs. Leslie Poole, J. E. Buchanan, Wm. Shaw, James Nicholl, H. McEwen and others. In the imported cart stallion class the honors were carried off by General Burnett, Young Royal Tom, and Hopburn Clyde, and animals owned respectively by Jas. McMillan, Somerville, and John Collins, New Perth, were the prize winners in the Island bred cart stallion class. The other classes were well filled, and the names of the successful competitors will be found in the prize list. In cattle, the principal exhibitors were F. G. Boyver, W. Gordon, Alex. Hamilton, Jas. Clow, P. A. Dewar, H. Nelson, A. C. Macdonald, Rev. Stephen Phelan, John Byrne, and other well-known farmers and stock raisers of the County. The display throughout was a capital one. Of sheep and pigs some splendid specimens were also shown. Inside, the shed, the show of roots and vegetables, fruit, butter and cheese, fancy work, etc., was excellent.

M. E. Griffin, of Georgetown, exhibited two models of steamships—one of the cruiser Acadia and the other of the Australia—both of which were greatly admired. Mr. Stewart's collection of birds, to which we referred yesterday, also attracted a good deal of attention.

The grounds upon which the show of stock and the races took place are highly creditable to the Association and the County. The racing track is well graded and otherwise arranged, and will afford the horsemen of the County facilities for developing their stock not hitherto possessed.

The order maintained throughout the day was good.

The Georgetown Boys Band furnished music at intervals during the proceedings. THE EXAMINER'S representative is indebted to Mr. Geo. F. Owen, the Company's indefatigable Secretary, for courtesies extended.

Following is the
