MUSIC & COMEDY

He says about his New York experience "Just think of those innumerable feet that have stood on those stages. Now multiply by ten and think of those innumerable famous toes."

Why the Maritimes after the Big Apple? "New York is a fascinating place of course, but it does make you nervous. It's not like Corner Brook at all. For the first three weeks I was so worried about being mugged that I walked around in the streets dressed as a cop."

Coming soon to UPEI.

Chris Elliott, who was previously with the Popular musical comedy duo FREE BEER, is returning to the Maritimes in March to play the Universities.

Since he was there last he's been knocking 'em dead in Montreal and in New York City, where he played such illustrious venues as The Other End, Folk City, The Duplex, Chilies, Good times and Improvisation where he will be launching another series of shows in April.
