THE DAILY EXAMINER

Notes and Comments.

—The Montreal Witness, though bitterly hostile to the Dominion Government, candidly states that: "Canada has indisputable grounds for her contention that in levying discriminating tolls against American routes, and even against American vessels, she is not violating any treaty engagement, for the reason that the corresponding privileges on American state canals, pledged in exactly the same terms, were never granted to Canadians, and that, therefore, the retaliatory policy of the United States Government in regard to the national canals is unjust and uncalled for under the circumstances."

—Mr. Justin McCarthy, in an article in the September number of the North American Review, elaborately argues that Mr. Gladstone cannot afford to shelve the home rule proposal in order to give precedence to the one man one vote measure, and the suggested bill to improve the registration act. Mr. McCarthy adds to his argument a positive sort of opinion that Mr. Gladstone never entertained the idea of delay favored by Mr. Labouchere and the Radicals. He takes the popular view that the Lords will throw out the bill and then Mr. Gladstone could call another session very early and bring in the home rule bill again.

—Henry Clews, of New York, writes: "Our commercial and industrial interests are now enjoying a very fair share of prosperity. Business is not only on a larger scale than ever before, as demonstrated by clearing-house returns and railroad earnings, but it is also in an exceptionally sound condition. This statement being confirmed by the small number, as well as the character of, business failures. Agricultural interests are also in good shape; as, in spite of smaller yields of wheat, corn, cotton and other products, we shall, with last season's surplus, have sufficient and to spare."

—If it is true, as reported from Paris, that the Russians have resolved to send an expedition against the Ameer of Afghanistan, then they they have virtually resolved upon a war against Great Britain, for there is no reason whatever to doubt that England would defend the Ameer. There would be more occasion for action on the part of the British than there was in 1885, when the British Government gave Russia to understand that an advance on Herat would be met as an act of hostility. Mr. Gladstone was Premier then, as he is now, but the preparations for war were none the less vigorous on that account. But the news that Russia has taken the step reported needs confirmation.

—"Facts, Not Opinions," is the motto adopted by Current History, and well describes the character of this unique review, which during the last year and a half has deservedly attracted universal attention It is a book to be looked at now, read at leisure, and kept always within reach. In it the reader will find what he can find nowhere else, a clear, intelligent, interesting and all comprehensive record of every event and every development, political and otherwise, which is stirring the world at home or abroad. The present number, covering the second quarter of 1892, is an admirable example of literary condensation and gives evidence of increasing adaptation to the needs of busy men who cannot spend the time required to carefully wade through vast files of newspapers and other periodicals in order to get even a fair outline of the causes, proceedings and results of historical movements in various parts of the globe. It can be appreciated only by being seen, as the field it covers is world-wide. The commercial, diplomatic, and political relations of the various nations are nowhere else so clearly presented. The political movements in England and other European countries, the present electoral campaign in the United States, the proceedings of the various National Conventions, the movement for an International Conference to fix the ratio of gold and silver, the conflict between Anarchy and order in the Old World and the New, the cholera epidemic, the Russian Hebrew question, affairs in Asia and Africa, the work of the United States Congress, the Faribault School question, labor movements, Canadian affairs, including the Canal Toll question, the revolution in Venezuela, the progress of Science, Art, Music, the Drama, a review of the leading books of the quarter, biographical sketches of the great men who have died, etc., all are impartially and fully outlined. The number is embellished with an excellent full-page portrait of President Harrison, accompanied with a valuable review of his career and Administration, besides excellent portraits of Hon. Whitelaw Reid, Hon. A. E. Stevenson, Senator Carlisle, Hon. A. G. Porter, Prof. J. A. Froude, Sir Chas. Tupper, Sir O. Mowat, Hon. A. Mackenzie, Director-General Davis, of the World's Fair and many others. (Published at Detriot, Mich., $1.00 a year; after November 15, $1.50 a year.)

The highest priced piano in the United States belongs to the Marquand family of New York city. It was designed and painted by Alma Tadema, and cost $46,000

Professor Black tells of a singular superstition existing in England, which insists that if the youngest daughter of a family marries first her sisters must dance at the wedding without shoes, so as to insure husbands for themselves.

Sarah Bernhardt's opinions as regards her fellow artists are interesting. Mary Anderson she "considers very beautiful and graceful, a good actress, but not great." Mrs. Langtry is beautiful—beautiful," and Mrs. Bernard Beere is "most admirable," but "Ellen Terry is the artist I love," while Henry Irving she thinks even more of as "an artist than as an actor."

This is the same schooner which landed $50,000 worth of opium at Hawaii a few months ago and sailed away from all Uncle Sam's fastest cruisers.

Recommendations of Servants.

What sort of references shall mistresses give servants? writes Christine Terhune Herrick in a pertinent article upon this important subject in the September Ladies' Home Journal.

First, let them be true. Women, otherwise honorable, have concerning this matter a preverted sense of right and wrong; a perversion that is, I dare to say, in seven cases out of ten, begotten of moral cowardice. The whilom mistress feels the recoil natural to a refined woman from the torrent of abuse that would in all likelihood be her portion were she to write a reference stating as clearly the defects as the virtues of the departing Abigail.

In the other three cases of the the ten a morbid and entirely ill-directed consideration for the servant inspires the woman who will say only good of a faulty domestic, lest the latter lose the chance of a good situation. She fails to carry the result of her misplaced charity to its legitimate conclusion and to put herself in the place of the future mistress of the incompetent, ill-tempered or dishonest help whose last mistress lacked the courage to expose her in her true colors.

NOT IN IT.—There is no mercury or any ingredient whatever in Everybody's Pills. They are guaranteed purely vegetable. ....

THE remedial virtues of the Wilmot Spa Waters is not unknown to me, and I have already had occasion to recommend them to some of my patients.—T. Treneman, M. D., Halifax, N. S. ....

GRATIFYING TO ALL.—The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrates the value of the qualities on which its success is based, and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company. ....

THE FOLLOWING LETTER PROVES THE WONDERFUL MEDICINAL POWERS OF THE GREAT GERMAN-AMERICAN REMEDY. THE NAME OF REV. H. MILLS (THAN WHOM THERE IS NO BETTER KNOWN MAN IN THE MINISTRY) IS WELL KNOWN IN THOUSANDS OF HOUSEHOLDS IN THE PINE TREE STATE.
GENTS:—I am now 57 years old, and for over 10 years I have been afflicted with weak Kidneys so badly at times that I could not rest nights. I could get no position that would be comfortable my back was so lame.
My Liver also became affected, causing me to become very Bilious. I had a Dull Headache continually accompanied by a sluggish tired feeling.
My Appetite was very poor, and I would have a deathly faintness at pit of stomach.
For the last two years I have been greatly troubled with Severe Palpitation of the Heart after preaching and in long protracted meetings it would become very serious.
I have used the two Course of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and LITTLE TABLETS you kindly sent me, and through the blessing of God, I am PERFECTLY CURED—have not felt better for 20 years. Fraternally yours,
