

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT B. PENCALL

Island Girl Becomes Bride At Ceremony In California

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Chapel of St. Vincent De Paul Church, San Francisco, California, when Rosemary, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Farmer, Charlotte, P.E.I., became the bride of Robert B. Pencall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pencall, El Monte, California. Rev. Francis K. Murray performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial Mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in her ballerina length wedding gown of ice-blue tulle with lace top. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a pearl tiara. She carried a long cascade of white carnations with pink roses.

She was attended by Miss Jean A. Borchers of San Francisco, who was escorted in a cocktail velvet dress of royal blue with matching headband and veil. She carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Yuletide Spirit Is In The Air As Kindness Fills All Hearts

In nice omen, the December sun shone brightly on the young bride, Granddaughter's cousin—and on all others, who today chose to vow their solemn and lasting marriage vows. Never again, we suspect unless it be on that of her own, will event be more pleasing to her, or longer remembered by Granddaughter than that first wedding-reception in town, she with her parents attended this afternoon.

Watching her step off happily along a city street, we thought that for her the occasion would be like going to witness a scene reproduced in the flesh and in detail from some loved book she had read. The Princess would be there radiant, lovely, the Prince of the story, youthful and proud, the clergyman in solemn black, the parents and families and kin—and all the pretty gowns to lend a colorful magic to the scene.

The tables nicely appointed and spread with the dishes and viands of the wedding feast... even the bit of wedding cake... she brought to divide with those at home was a wondrous thing, not meant of course to dream upon but to be savored fruitily crumb by crumb to prove again to herself how exceptionally tasteful this cake-of-cakes can be.

Brackley Pt. WI Increases Funds By Auction Sale

The annual Christmas sale was the highlight of the Brackley Point Women's Institute meeting held at the home of Miss Louise Shaw, Dec. 3. Miss Shaw capably acted as auctioneer for the many pretty and useful articles offered for sale. The sum of $31.00 was realized.

Twelve members and one visitor, who became a member, responded to roll call by passing layette articles for the Unitarian Service Committee.

The sick committee reported sending flowers to two residents who are in hospital. School committee reported procuring necessary articles and it was voted that the teacher be paid for Books of Knowledge she had purchased. Mrs. George Shaw was appointed as school visitor for December. It was decided to provide the usual treat of an orange and chocolate bar for each child at the Christmas concert. Members volunteered to make fudge for sale.

A petition from the Canadian Association of Consumers protesting the trading stamp system of sales promotion was signed by all present. Mrs. Fenton McLeure will be hostess to the January meeting when roll call will be answered by "An experience at the dentist."

HAPPENINGS

Mrs. F. Walter Hyndman, wife of Lieutenant Governor F. Walter Hyndman, was hostess to a number of friends at an enjoyable afternoon tea held at Government House on Friday from 4 to 5 p.m.

Pink and white carnations formed the decorative floral background for the dining room and drawing room where Mrs. Hyndman received her guests. Presiding over the silver tea services at the attractively appointed table were: Mrs. Walter Shaw, Mrs. A.W. Matheson, Mrs. R.R. Bell and Mrs. Mark MacGuigan. Mrs. W.E. Cotton, Mrs. Louis Sackler and Mrs. J.R. Davies ushered the guests.

Those serving were the wives of the Governor's aides, Mrs. T. N. Rogers, Mrs. Douglas Saunders, Mrs. R.D. MacGillivray and Mrs. Ian Rankine.

They were assisted by Mrs. H. Douglas Hill, Mrs. W.R. Brennan, Mrs. G. Gilbert Houston, Mrs. J.A. Likely, Mrs. LeBaron Tait, Mrs. Gordon White, Mrs. Harold Shaw, Mrs. J. David Stewart and Mrs. Alban Farmer.

Members of the Provincial executive of the P.E.I. Women's Institutes entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julian Herring, 46 Upper Hillsboro Street, in honor of Miss Jeannie Gillis, Assistant supervisor of the P.E.I. WI, whose marriage takes place the latter part of December.

Mrs. Philip Matheson, provincial president, extended the good wishes of the organization and Mrs. Lincoln Dewar, first vice-president, presented Miss Gillis with a place setting of her chosen china. The room and table were prettily decorated with flowers, evergreens and candles in the seasonal motif.

Mrs. Fred Gates presided over the tea service and Mrs. Lincoln Dewar, Mrs. David Mutch and Mrs. Arthur Campbell served.

Hostesses at the Charlottetown Curling Club tonight will be Mrs. David Walker, Mrs. Cam MacLean, Mrs. Bill MacGregor, Mrs. Earl MacLeod, Mrs. Robert MacLeod and Miss Elaine Murley.

Mrs. Gordon Bennett entertained Thursday evening for several tables of bridge at her home on Upper Prince Street.

Mrs. H.E. Miller left Thursday by plane for St. John's, Newfoundland, where she will spend the Christmas season as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller.

Two enjoyable card parties were held Nov. 26 and 27 at the home of Mrs. Ian MacMillan, New Glasgow. Proceeds were for the Ladies Aid of the Medical Centre. First prize winners were Thursday evening, Mrs. Lem Pineau and Mr. Victor Pineau. Friday evening winners were Mrs. Harold Dickieson and Mr. Blair Andrew.

The next social event sponsored by the Ladies Aid will be a Christmas party in the New Glasgow school when the members will bring donations for the Chinese auction and fudge sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Harris, Summerside, have as their weekend guests, their daughter, Mrs. Leigh Donald with her children Gregory and Gaylene of Charlottetown.

'His Constant Lamp' Is Theme At WMS Auxiliary Meditation

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. A. B. Bagnell led an inspiring Worship service, when Trinity United Church Afternoon Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society held their December meeting in the Social hall, with a good attendance of members and visitors.

In keeping with the approaching Yuletide Season, the Worship centre was nicely festooned with the traditional, evergreens and a d lighted candles, creating an expectant atmosphere for the singing of Christmas hymns, carols, scripture reading and prayers.

Mrs. Leon Johnson and Miss Helen Wilson were heard in a solo and duet — "Sleeping The Christ Child Lay," and each in a solo from "The Messiah."

Mrs. Bagnell and Mrs. Clairo Hodgson led an interesting meditation on "His Constant Lamp," assisted by members depicting Japan, Korea, Africa, Canada, India and Hong Kong and closed with prayers for the peoples of the various lands.

Miss Wilson was again heard in a beautifully rendered solo, and Mrs. Johnson and Miss Wilson in a duet. Mrs. K. A. Parker was accompanist.

A short business period followed presided over by the president, Mrs. Parker. Reports were heard from the recording secretary, treasurer, supply and community friendship secretaries — the latter reporting 110 visits to homes and 30 to hospital.

The sincere appreciation of the members was voiced to Mrs. MacLean by the president for the entertainment which Rev. Mr. MacLean had given on Monday evening with a most interesting and instructive running commentary on the beautiful slides taken on their recent European trip.

This program is general across Canada wherever CGIT groups exist. An identical program will be conducted this Sunday in all these centres.

SIGN NUCLEAR PETITION LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Students and staff at the University of Western Ontario signed a petition Thursday calling on the federal government to strengthen its efforts to limit the possibility of nuclear war, particularly a war by miscalculation. A two-point resolution in the petition suggests the government decline control of nuclear weapons and make a strong bid for control of all Western nuclear warheads by an international agency.

Sister Institutes To Be Guests Of Bonshaw WI

The regular meeting was held in the hall on Dec. 7 with the president, Mrs. Colin MacLeod, presiding. Roll call was answered by fifteen members with an exchange of gifts. A number of visitors was also in attendance.

Treasurer Christine MacLeod gave her report. Several letters were read by secretary and dealt with, followed by reports of committee.

We decided to meet during Christmas holidays to varnish school desks, to remember the school children and shut-ins, as usual at Christmas, and to invite two neighboring Institutes to join us at our January meeting.

A committee of Wanda Cousins, Christine MacLeod and Mrs. Colin MacLeod were appointed to prepare a program schedule for the months to come. Mrs. Angus MacLeod will have charge of the regular program at next meeting, and Carol MacDonald and Mrs. MacLeod to be on entertainment committee.

School committee. Mrs. Milton MacRae, and buying committee, Mrs. Everett Crosby and Mrs. Eric Ferguson were appointed. Mrs. Angus MacLeod gave a fine report on the course the officers attended at Central Royalty in November.
