

SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa

I have been a very good girl this year. You said last year that I was too bad to receive anything that I wanted so you got me a pony and a Cabbage Patch Doll. This year I have refrained all that is illegal, immoral and unethical. In return, in the contract that I wrote up and presumed you would sign, it says that you must give me all I desire. So the list goes as follows: -Pages 1-5 inclusive in Sassy Sara's House of Adult Toys catalogue -Several guns(my favorite is the one Arnold uses in T2) -The back wall in The Charlottetown Liquor store at the mall

It would also be nice to have a few surprises. If you accommodate me in these respects I'll not have to take any drastic action. If you don't..well...just remember: I KNOW WHERE YOU LIVE.

Send my love to Mrs. Claus and the reindeer LOVE and Kisses Bernadette

P.S. If you don't remember my address it can be found in the listings of Americas Most Wanted. B

Dear Santa:

I have been a very good girl this semester. well, if you don't count a few wkiped classes and one night at the Panther Lounge. anyway, I have a small list of things that I would like for Christmas.

A warm pair of mittens so that I don't get frostbite from typing my papers in the Computer Lab in Main.

A roll of loonies, since none of the vending machines accept twonies.

A map of the access routes to the underground tunnels!

A computer that isn't tied up with E-mail when I try to type a paper

The ability to remember my Novell password for more than one week

A better photo for my student ID

Thanks Santa! I will leave out some chocolate chip cookies for you and Rudolph

Dearest Santa,

For Christmas I would like everyone to remember the true meaning of the holiday. It is a day when friends and family gather together in celebration of the birth of Christ. Presents are nice, but nothing beats the gift that God gave us on that day...sorry big fella. But your present can be to help everyone remember. Thanks and Merry Christmas.

Mary

Dear Mr. & Mrs, Claus

In the past, there have been times when, well, I haven't been so good. Those days have past, and I'm sure you will be personally surprised with my comportment of late. I have made every effort in being courteous and kind and nice and wonderful, with only temporary lapses.

Santa, my man, you may not be aware of the harshe economic climate of the 90s. Since business for you appears to be booming, I would like to make a reasonable request: I want everything. I want it all, and I want it now.

If this poses a problem with your usual slide down the chiminy entrance, don't be afraid to leave a few items on the front lawn.

Peace be to you, and to your reindeer
