We call attention to the advertisement of Joseph A. McDonald, who has made arrangements to carry on the Tailoring in connection with his other business in first class style. He is an enterprising young gentleman and we hope will be well patronized.

Mr. B. Davies has taken his son into partnership, and the firm will be known henceforth as Davies & Son. They have a large and well assorted stock of the newest goods, which will be sold at lowest cash prices. We wish the firm very great success

Farmers about purchasing new, fresh seeds will do well to call at the Store of W. R. Watson. We also direct attention to the notice of William Dodd, who offers several articles to the trade on good terms. Blatch & McKenzie have received a supply of Cornmeal in the Commerce, which they warrant A. 1. J. B. McDonald has received a supply of Boots by the St. Lawrence, give him a call.

The Great Eastern will make trips from New York to London, during the Exhibition, for the small fare of $25 each passenger.

All the shares in the New Bank, amounting to £30,000 were taken up on Saturday last.

Last week will be known in our history as the week of progress. It saw the beginning of the Railway, the Hillsborough Bridge, and a New Bank.

All those who are Anti-Railway men have a good chance to prove their sincerity by stopping their groceries and foreign clothing supply.

A correspondent writes us that Richmond Bay is still filled up with ice as far up as Squirrel Creek and Lennox Island.

Steamer Commerce arrived from Boston via Halifax, on Thursday last and left on Friday, with a good freight, the value of which was £1774.

FIGHTING STILL.

The Great Cathedral of Notra Dame Sacked.

&c. &c. &c.

PARIS, April 8.—Evening.

The fighting is terrible. The Nationals on Thursday night re-occupied the barricade at Neuilly and it was to-day fiercely attacked by a battery of the Versailles army.

The Nationals resist advances of the Assemblists with determination, and will defend every inch of the streets, should the Assemblists succeed in entering the city.

LONDON, April 9.

A despatch from Versailles, this evening, says that the entire army are now under the command of Marshal MeMahon.

A recent decree of the Commune has been modified so as to make military service compulsory on all between the ages of 19 and 40.

A flotilla of gunboats has been sent from Havre up the Seine to assist in operations against Paris. Siege guns have also been dispatched from Havre to Cherbourg, for an attack on the forts occupied by the insurgents.

The "Observer" says that Bishmark is still favorable to the restoration of Napoleon.

Mont Valerien and the batteries of Courberie have maintained bombardment all day, and their shells fall beyond the Arch of Triumph.

The efforts of Communists to force the citizens generally to take up arms have so far failed.

LONDON, April 9.

Paris papers say there has been cannonading all day. The Champs Elysess is completly deserted. The National Guards are hiding in the cross streets, seeking protection from the shells which fall in every direction, and many close to the American Legation.

The result of the last forty eight hours cannonade is that the Versailles troops have crossed the Seine and occupy Sabonville and Langchamps

The drawbridge and floor of Porte Maillot is broken.

The Communists are building additional barricades in quarters threatened by the besiegers.

LONDON, April 10.

To-day is held as Easter holiday in stock exchange and markets generally of London and Liverpool.

Terrible work continues in Paris. The Cathedral of Notra Dame has been sacked, Rocheford vainly endeavored to save it from pillage Nearly all valuables were plundered.

The Archbishop of Paris has been transferred from the Conciergeri to the Mazes prison.

Gen. Clusert has been arrested, charged with misappropriation of public funds.

A Versailles despatch says the Government has resolved to enter Paris by storm, at any cost, rather than bombard the city.

Fort Valerien fires mainly to clear ramparts and prevent the artillery from being used to repel an attack.

Partial breach has been effected in the fortifications.

WASHINGTON, April 10.

There seems to be truth in the statement coming from usually well-informed quarters, apart from the Commission, that the basis proposed contemplate :—

1st. Privilege of American fishermen to fish within parts of Canadian waters from which they are now excluded, and to land and dry their fish, and clense their nets, &c. For the privilege the United States is to pay Canada a certain sum of money.

2nd. Certain general international principles laid down, covering those of neutrality, by which claims arising from depredation of the Alabama and Shenandoah, &c., are to be adjusted.

3rd. Commissioners are to be hereafter appointed to adjust matters on basis proposed, and it is further said this basis has been sent to England for approval.

Some of the Commisssoners have no hesitation in reporting a statement that the probability is that they will, by the first of May, submit conclusions of the Commission to the two governments.

PARIS, April 10

Unless the Germans save us, Paris must soon swim in blood. The Commune hourly grows more desperate, and resorts to fierce excess.

The Conciergerie is filled with priests and nuns, arrested on warrants, calling them "Citizens styled servants of a person called God."

Archbishop Darboy was stripped naked, bound to a pillar, and scourged for hours, by a band of 200 Reds.

The loss of the Nationals on Saturday and Sunday were 225 killed and 435 wounded.

Nernisole, a member of the Commune, was killed at the outposts.

Cannonade slackened yesterday.

Barricades are building by Communs in Champs Elysees, Place de La Concorde, and the adjacent streets.

The iron-clad flotilla in the Seine is in sight. An attack is imminent.

LONDON, April 12.

Liverpool markets steady, corn 33s. 6d.; pork 79s.; yarns and fabrics at Manchester steady.

French advices of yesterday state that the Versailles troops are steadily gaining ground and the military situation has become exceedingly critical for the Commune both on the western and southern sides.

General Bergert has been arrested for military failure and insurbordination.

General Henry's escape is reaffirmed.

The cafes on the Boulevards were closed on Sunday night by military force.

McMahon is expected to undertake operations on a great scale.

The Communists are building huge barricades in Place de La Concorde, Rue Rivoli, Rue Royale and the Corps Legislatif. They claim to have 200,000 well drilled men.

The Prussian garrison at St. Denis has been enforced.

London.—Napoleon is ill at Chiselhurst He has been confined to his room for several days.—The Berlin Official Journal says that Germany will only interfere in the domestic affairs of France when it shall become necessary for the collection of money due herself.—The representative of Baden in the Brusells Peace Conferance has arrived, but no meeting has been held this week.—Everything has been made ready for the attack on Paris, which was to have been made last night..

London.—At last advices the situation at Paris was unchanged.. The Commune issued passports more freely, and large number of citizens leave daily. Severe fighting continued Tuesday night and Wednesday at Versailles. Despatch 12th, says: A column of Insurgents has advanced to Clamart without meeting opposition..Theirs is opposed to bringing on decisive action until 5000 more men shall have reinformed the Versailles Army..The portion of the Versailles army engaged upon the outlying forts south of Paris has suffered greatly in killed and wounded..The Communists have surrounded and will probably capture three thousand Gens d'arms near Asnieres

Paris, April 12...Fighting is going on in the Bois de Boulogne and Asnieres ..The Commune are rapidly forwarding re-inforcements, and the wounded are cominge in larg numbers...The losses are heavy...Versailles, April 12...There was an engagement to-day in front of Issy. The fighting was severe ..After a desperate struggle our troops advanced upon the trenches of the Nationals, where a terrible conflict ensued...After several hours fighting the Government troops were repulsed, with heavy loss...They retreated towards Issy where they are now bivouacked... Preparations are made for the renewal of the contest at daybreak ..At the Conference to day Thiers proposed the disarmament of the Insurgents as the basis of negotiations...London April 13...Despatches from Paris say that all the several attacks made by the Versailles troops on Tuesday and Wednesday failed in every instance. ..They cut off 3,000 troops during the engagement, and the Commune announces the capitulation of the Government troops is ex ected shortly ..Paris, April 12...Batteries are progressing on all sides of the City. Berk Issy has been wrested from the Insurgents. The Commander of the Fort was shot by his own men...The terrorism in Paris is indescribable. Arrests have attained an alarming frequency...General Bergeret and others have been condemned to death for treason.
