In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear Grandmother, Mrs. Hannah J. Whitlock, died April 25, 1943. To think of the day you left us will always bring regret. But the hearts that always loved you are the ones that can't forget. Lovingly remembered by her grandson, Walter Thompson.

In memory of my dear father Walter E. Whitlock, died Oct. 4, 1927, also my Mother, Hannah J. Whitlock, died April 25, 1943. The memory of my dear father and Mother will linger with us all the days. Sweetest flower too sweet to stay. God took them home, to show us the way. Lovingly remembered by her daughter Mae, Grandchildren and Stephen, Marie.

PORTUGUESE FARM WORKERS — Three more Portuguese farm workers arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday night and were met by the farmers with whom they will work: Mr. Everett Lamont, Union Road; Mr. Addison Colin M. Stewart, R.R.; and Mr. George Irving, Cherry Valley. Ten Portuguese workers reached this city earlier in the day, destined for various farms. Mr. Allan Murphy of the local National Employment, who acts as liaison officer between the Employment Office and the Canadian Immigration Department, in arranging the placement of European farm labor was also on hand to greet the newcomers.

BUSY DAY FOR BAND — The time-table for the Moncton Band and Sonesters was a full one this weekend. They made a total of seven appearances in various parts of the city. There was a special programme at the Prince Edward Island Hospital in the afternoon and another at the Salvation Army Citadel in the evening. Yesterday was Prison Sunday for the Salvation Army and they conducted an open air service at the jail for the benefit of the prisoners. Two services were attended Sunday at the Citadel in the morning and in the afternoon with a final performance at the Capital Theatre last night. The musical selections were well received by the active group and varied in form from modern band to religious music. The enjoyment of the many who heard them was well worth the time and effort put into their heavy itinerary.

Retiring Post Office Staff Members Honored

Two retiring members of the staff of the Charlottetown Post Office were honoured by their fellow employees at a dance and social evening held Saturday night at Parkdale hall. Mr. Joseph Dougan who for a number of years has been supervisor of the financial branch and Mr. Thomas L. Whelan, long-time letter carrier and for the past eight years supervisor of letter carriers, will go on superannation shortly. Mr. Dougan retires after thirty-six years service and Mr. Whelan with thirty-nine. Post Master J. J. Connolly praised the two employees for having attained retirement with such creditable records. He noted that Mr. Whelan who was concerned with the speedy dispatch of the mails, had had only three days' sick leave during his 39 years of service. Speaking of Mr. Dougan, Postmaster said that he had always performed his duties in a conscientious and courteous manner and referred to the co-operation and friendly manner in which he carried out his duties in relation to his fellow employees. Letter carriers Ellsworth Wheatley and Hooper Essery on behalf of the retiring staff presented Mr. Whelan with a suitable gift and Postmaster Connolly on behalf of the Canadian Postal Employee's Association and the staff, presented a gift to Mr. Dougan. Mrs. Whelan and Mrs. Dougan who were present with their husbands, were recipients of lovely floral bouquets. Both retiring officials replied briefly with thanks for the recognition given them by their co-workers, recalling at the same time the friendly spirit which has prevailed throughout the years.

Three Killed By Alabama Tornado

HARSTELLE, Ala., (AP) — A tornado smashed through a farming area still bearing the scars of a 1952 twister, killing a small girl and two adults and injuring at least 15 persons Sunday. The state patrol said 20 houses and two large churches were blown away and a "good many" homes were unroofed. Mr. Hooper Essery who started his letter carrier career at about the same time as Mr. Whelan made a few brief remarks and read a presentation to his fellow worker over the years. Mr. Herbert Vessey, president of the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Postal Worker's Association, presided at the meeting. Mr. Eugene Wynne was master of ceremonies. Music for the occasion was supplied by Alf McKegney's Orchestra. A delicious buffet lunch was served by the ladies of Parkdale Women's Institute. Expressions of appreciation were made to Michael Bros. and Seaman's Beverages for refreshments supplied for the occasion.

Anniversary of OOF Observed

Members of St. Lawrence Lodge No. 8; Wildy Lodge No. 27; Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 10 and Port La Joie Encampment No. 4, I.O. O.F. attended in a body the morning service at the Charlottetown Baptist Church marking the 136th anniversary of the founding of the order. Rev. Harold Mitton welcomed the brethren and sisters and preached a very appropriate sermon for the occasion. Taking as his text—1 Samuel, 16:1, "And it came to pass that the soul of Jonathan went into the soul of David and Jonathan loved him as his own soul." Mr. Mitton stressed the qualities of friendship as being, unselfish, outgoing and enduring. Music for the occasion was under the direction of the Choir-master and organist, Mr. R. F. Muford. During the service the Oddfellows Ode was sung by Miss June Foster and responded to by the members of the Lodges present. There was a large turnout for the occasion.

If In Love See A Hypnotist

LONDON, (AP) — Falling in love is a lot like being hypnotized, a leading medical hypnotist says. Dr. S. J. Van Pelt, president of the British Society of Medical Hypnotists cites these similarities: 1. A lover appears indifferent to the attractions of others. A hypnotized person pays attention only to the hypnotist. 2. A lover is easily swayed by the opinions of the loved one. A hypnotic subject is influenced

Trust Company Head Addresses Underwriters

At a luncheon meeting of the Life Underwriters Association of P. E. I., held at the Queen Hotel Thursday, Charles F. Bentley, manager of the Royal Trust Company gave a highly interesting and informative address on "Succession Duties as they relate to the Life Insurance business." After the address, Mr. Bentley answered many questions concerning the Succession Duty Act and its application. The speaker was introduced by Roy D. MacGillivray and thanked by president Stewart G. Ives, who was chairman of the meeting. Among the Association matters discussed, were plans for the coming sales conference which convenes at the Charlottetown Hotel in June. Conference chairman, W. Blair MacDonald stated that some outstanding speakers would take part, including Mr. Grant Taggart of the State of Wyoming and Mr. Leslie Dunstall, Toronto, general manager of the Life Underwriters Association of Canada. On behalf of the Dominion Association, R. J. Rupert, C.L.U., regional vice president for N. B. and P.E.I., presented president Stewart Ives with a certificate in recognition of his presidency of the provincial association. Mr. Jock Sutherland of Charlottetown was welcomed as a guest.
