ENTERTAINMENT AT RUSTICO.—On the evening of the 21st Dec., the people of Rustico Hall to partake of the pleasures of a dramatic and musical entertainment prepared by the young ladies and gentlemen of the parish. The night was very fine and a large and nice present. The well-selected programme was rendered in a manner creditable to all concerned. The dramatic part consisted of dialogues and such laughable farces as "Punkin Ridge" and "A Close Shave," the latter especially winning the applause of the audience. The musical part was also highly rendered, and the vocal solos of G. A. Peters, and Miss J. Donnet were highly appreciated by those present. About 10 o'clock the entertainment was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem and the social part of the evening was concluded in a happy and agreeable manner. It is to be hoped that on a future occasion the young men and young ladies of Rustico will again entertain the people in a similar manner.

HOW TO TREAT A COLD.
Don't stuff a cold, as the old adage advises, if you do you will have a fever to starve. A genuine cold is a shock received by the many million nerves which approach next the surface of the human body, and which control the nearly seven million pores of the skin. This shock closes the pores of the skin, is transmitted to the nerve centre and back to the general system, forcing a great amount of blood to these membranes, creating more or less irritation and consequent fever, inflammation, dryness, then watery discharge and catarrh. The shock may have its cause from a chill, from improper eating, a nervous fright and various other causes which irritate the nerves of the skin and mucous membranes of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes. Excesses of retarding the surface of the stomach still more close the system and pores of the skin, so that effete matter, which should be carried off by the natural course is retained, which is ample reason for not stuffing a cold. Experimenting with a severe cold is a dangerous custom, as most persons try one remedy until some friend suggests another "sure cure." When slight hoarseness or tightening of the vocal membranes warns one of a skin exposure or chill from whatever cause, act promptly, delays are dangerous; with children it may mean croup and strangulation; with adults, catarrh, laryngitis, perhaps pneumonia. Scores of mothers would as soon go to bed without matches in the house as without that old-fashioned remedy, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment near at hand for colds and croupy children. The proprietors, I. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass., will send their new illustrated book entitled "Treatment for Diseases," free to any person for the asking.

Traveller (angrily)—Why don't you railroad men do something to put a stop to train robbery?
Railroad Magnate—That is just what we are working at now.
"Glad to hear it."
"Yes, we are thinking of raising fares, so that the passing train won't have enough left to tempt train robbers."

A STEALTHY POE.
Bright's Disease may Exist a Long While before it is Suspected.
DORCHESTER, Jan. 14.—Bright's disease has no symptoms of its own, and may long exist without the knowledge of the patient or practitioner, as no pain may be felt in the kidneys or their vicinity. There may be no albumen in the water and no tube-casts, yet Bright's disease may be present. It often develops suddenly and may run a fatal course before it is recognized. Bright's Disease is thus recognized as a mysterious every day malady, which is increasing at an alarming rate. Before Dodd's Kidney Pills were placed within reach of the public, these diseases were considered by medical men and the public to be incurable. Thanks to this popular remedy, thousands are enjoying perfect health, without it, would today be laid away in their graves.

Hand and ankle raw.
For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt rheum. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment allayed the burning, itching sensation. One box and a half entirely cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Parmenter, St. Catharines, Ont.

"Tell me honestly," said the novel reader to the novel writer, "did you ever see a woman who stood and tapped the ground patiently with her toe for several moments as you describe?"
"Yes," was the thoughtful reply, "I did, once."
"Who was she?"
"She was a clog dancer."

No one need pity you if you die of consumption, without having tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, "the kind that cures" coughs, colds, bronchitis and all pulmonary diseases. Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like others. In big bottles, 50c. and $1.00, at druggists.

It was the old, old story, old, yet ever new. Their hand met unemotionally and in another moment their lips were telling love's tale in a manner more eloquent and sweeter far than in spoken words. Peering half bashfully through her blushes, she asked:
"And, Harry dear, will you always think of me as you do now?"
"Yes, dearest—no—that is to say, I should hardly think to think of you always as with that smooch on the end of your nose."
"How kind of you to speak of it, Harry, and that reminds me that you smooch more than formerly."
Such are the frank, kindly judgments which only true love can exchange without offence.

"I have spent thousands of dollars and been in the best hospitals of Europe and America under treatment for catarrh," said a gentleman recently, "and I have never received so much genuine relief as I have from a twenty-five cent box of Hawker's catarrh cure."

The Rev. Mr. D. A. worthy parish minister in Arryshire of a past generation, had a great party for him. On one occasion, when on a catechising tour, he arrived in the afternoon at a farmhouse. The good wife, on a hospitable thought, invited him when he would be finished. With his mind's eye on his favorite dainty and afraid that it might not appear, he replied:
"I canna weel say; but just keep the door a wee bit open, and when I hear the ham frizzlin' in the pan I'll draw to a close."

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
—H. C. O'Connell, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphia, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
—DR. J. F. KIRKLAND, Conway, Ar.

Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescriptive known to me."
—H. A. ANGER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular medicine, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
—UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.

ENTERTAINMENT AT STANHOPE.
The basket social and concert held at Stanhope on Wednesday evening, Jan. 9th, proved a success. The large hall was filled to its utmost capacity. Mr. Ralph Carr was called to the chair, and after a few appropriate and well chosen remarks, filled that position in a very creditable manner. The choir was then called upon to sing the opening ode, under its popular leader, J. K. Beairto. Mr. Chas. Duffy then delivered the opening speech, which was witty and to the point. The duet sang by Misses Cassie Carr and Bessie Carr was the gem of the evening. The programme was ably assisted by the members of the Grand Franchise Dealing Club.

WEST ROYALTY NOTES.
By "Whiskers."
Winter has cast its icy mantle over us, and it is bad weather for the hay.
Miss Barbara Godfrey, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. George Lewis, at her beautiful farm at May Pass, has joined the great majority. The nuptial knot was tied on Wednesday last, at 3 o'clock, by the Rev. Mr. Hamlyn, and the happy left immediately for Mr. Burrows' home in Kensington, where they will in future reside.
"Two hearts with but a single thought
Two minds that beat as one."
The potato bugs which have gone south for the winter, intend returning next summer and re-commencing operations.
Our esteemed neighbor Mr. Daniel Smith, father of John Smith, Junior, is slowly recovering from a painful illness.
There is a great falling off in the barn whitewashing industry on account of Aurora Falls.
Mr. Daniel McKenzie, has sold his stock and implements and intends going west. He was honored Saturday by Mayflower Division, with an address and presentation to which he suitably replied. We are very sorry to lose Daniel.
There is no truth in the report that a prominent resident has committed suicide.

For Over Fifty Years.
An Old And Well Tried Remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children, while teaching, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures the colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.—m. w. f. wky-1 y

STAGE REALISM.—Boston is talking about a startling effect in the new melodrama, "Hamanty," produced by Wm. A. Brady in that city. It springs out of the explosion of a bomb which shatters a house in which are the imprisoned good people of the play. Immediately after the concussion, the background becomes a mass of lurid light which throws into relief the crumbling structure, which tumbles with a terrific crash.

With Invalids.
Yes! with invalids the appetite is capricious and needs coaxing, that is just the reason they improve so rapidly under Scott's Emulsion, which is as palatable as cream.

Business and professional men who suffer from tired and exhausted feelings consequent upon mental effort, will find in Hawker's nerve and stomachic tonic a sure source of the vital energies, relieving brain tire, restoring nervous energy and muscular vigor, renewing the blood, restoring lost appetite and aiding digestion.

Harper's Weekly
IN 1895

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the China-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to cooperate with Mr. Ralph in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustrations.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and portraits of eminent statesmen, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.

FICTIOUS—There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—"The Red Cockade," a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled "The Son of His Father," by Brandegee Matthews—several novelettes, and many short stories by popular writers.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

The Volumes of the WEEKLY begin with the first number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscribers will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order.

Both Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of $1.00 each. Title-page and Index sent on application.

Remittances should be made by Post office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.
