Evening Dress in Kansas City.

The dress suit is the most democratic raiment in the world. It meets the requirements of good form, whether it was made six years ago or last month. Attired in evening costume, whether the swallowtails are long or short, narrow or wide, all men look, practically speaking, alike, whether they are wage earners or millionaires. The dress suit levels all distinctions and illustrates the potentiality of a correct style. The young man who has made a good selection in his rented broadcloth serenely greets his wealthy rival who has paid for his London clothes a price like $250. How the fame of this world grows small when wrapped in a swallowtail coat among many others of the same cut! When the dress suit becomes the regular evening calling and theater dress for Kansas City men, as it should be, the poor chaps will profit by it a full cubit of serenity and self respect.—Kansas City Star.

His Justice in a Fortnight.

Lord Chief Justice Cockburn, when at the bar, defended a Scotsman for murder. A long and eloquent fight was in vain; sentence of death was passed. Then began the condemned Scotsman to abuse his counsel. "I ha' nae got justice the day," he declared. "Possibly not, but you'll get it in a fortnight," was the crushing reply.—London Outlook.

Bad Models to Follow.

He—A self made man is common enough, but we never hear of a self made woman.
She—Considering the kind of articles the men turn out who are in the selfmaking business, you can hardly blame the women for not taking up the occupation.

A Bit of Vanity.

She—I'm not afraid of the best man living!
He—I hope not, dear. I don't think I ever gave you any reason to be afraid of me.—Yonkers Statesman.

The eye is the first feature to show the approach of old age in man by the fading of the color at the circumference of the cornea.

In almost every school of the mikado's empire it is the custom one day in the autumn to take the pupils out rabbit hunting.

She Hadn't.

There is a young lady who has a little private school, and the other day she overheard the following conversation among her pupils:

It was Monday, and one of them had evidently been much impressed with her Sunday school lesson of the day before, for as soon as another little girl came in she astonished her by the announcement, "You are my sister."

"I'm not," said No. 2.
"You are," said No. 1. "Haven't you got a Father in heaven?"
"Yes," grudgingly.
"Well, so have I. Don't that make you my sister?"

No. 2 was entirely nonplused at that and No. 1 correspondingly victorious, so when another little girl arrived upon the scene she announced as before "You are my sister."

Now No. 3 happened to be a young lady of a very determined disposition, and she declared just as firmly that she was nothing of the sort, and the "I'm not's" and "You are's" flew very fast for a minute, until No. 1 brought out her knockdown argument, "Haven't you got a Father in heaven?"

But imagine her chagrin and the teacher's amusement when the other sputtered forth: "No, I haven't, and you know it. I've just got one grandfather up there," and strode on to her seat, leaving the enemy vanquished behind her.

How Insects Hide From Enemies.

How many have ever noticed the skillful way in which many insects disguise themselves when in danger from some larger animal or bird? Probably you have all observed that the caterpillar "plays dead" when he is disturbed, and that many insects choose for their homes some tree or shrub whose bark or foliage matches themselves in color.

There is a certain variety of moth, quite common around elms, which fixes its wings so that they closely resemble spots or lichens on the bark of the tree and can only be detected by a trained eye. Another moth, whose principal colors are pink and yellow, arranges itself on the blossom of a primrose so as to wholly escape notice. In the East Indian islands there is a spider which reposes on the upper side of a large leaf in such shape that it perfectly resembles decayed matter.

A hunter in tropical regions tells of seeing a cricket pursued around the trunk of a tree by a lizard. Suddenly the insect settled itself in a small depression in the bark, spread out its wings slightly and flattened itself so that the lizard actually crawled over it, and went away without ever knowing what had become of it.—Lewiston Journal.

Deserved It.

"Sheriff," remarked the condemned murderer, as that functionary proceeded to put the black cap over his head, "I seem to be the sinner, sure, of all eyes."

Without any further delay the trap was sprung, and the hardened wretch went to his doom.—Chicago Tribune.

No matter what your experience has been with so-called catarrh "remedies," your ultimate, complete recovery can surely and positively be effected. Don't suffer any longer. Don't trifle with a distressing and dangerous disease when a sure cure is within your grasp. Thousands of sufferers whose condition was worse than yours have been cured and are now in perfect health. Their enthusiastic and unsolicited testimonies show beyond the shadow of a doubt that is the most wonderfully effective remedy ever compounded. It relieves the most severe case in from 10 to 60 minutes; it effects a full cure in a short time. The most eminent nose and throat specialists in the world have given their unqualified endorsement. In all cases of catarrh, colds, sore throat, asthma, hay fever and influenza it acts like magic. It is easy and pleasant to use. It never fails to do precisely what is claimed for it. In less than an hour it will prove its worth if you will but give it a chance. A prominent evangelist gives testimony:

Rev. Warren Bentley, writes:—"While in Newark, N. J., conducting religious services, I was troubled with catarrh and used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. It gave me great relief and I have recommended it to many among whom I have labored." Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice of Canada, has used this remedy and highly recommends it over his own signature. At all druggists.
