SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

NOTES FROM OTTAWA.

THE TARTE-McGREEVY CASE

Murphy's Evidence Squarely Contradicted.

OTTAWA, July 13.

Colonel Amyot stated that Connolly had been tried for perjury in Quebec.

Connolly said it was false and said that unless Amyot apologized he would settle it with him outside. Amyot then apoligized, explaining that the charge of perjury had been made, but that the grand jury threw out the indictment. Connolly positively swore that no money had ever been paid by his firm to Langevin or Thomas McGreevy, nor had Murphy or Robert McGreevy ever claimed to have paid them money. Thomas McGreevy did not know that his brother Robert was interested in the firm. Connolly contradicted the whole of Murphy's testimony as to the payment to Sir Hector, or his son, er his son-in-law.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., July 10,—Stephen C. Saunders, night watchman at the Social Manufacturing Company's mill, was shot probably fatally at 4.30 this morning by James Pickford, overseer for the company for the past 33 years. Pickford was accustomed to come to the mill at an early hour to arrange his day's work and has had several quarrels with the night watchman. This morning he said to Saunders that he (Saunders) had married a disreputable woman. Saunders threw a bobbin at him and turned to walk away when Pickford drew a revolver and fired, the ball entering Saunders' back and penetrating the right lung. Pickford was held in $5,000 for assault with a dangerous weapon.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 10.—S. W. Welborn, a sporting man, committed suicide last evening by means of sulphate of morphine. Among his effects was a unique letter addressed to "the coroner and the public in general." To save all trouble and controversy as to the cause and means of his death, the writer stated that the act was his own doing and premeditated:

"I have arrived at the conclusion," he continued, "that my life is a failure, and that the surest way to avoid a further disappointment and trouble is by the morphine route to the place where every man gets a square deal and the cards break even for square men. I bear no ill-feeling toward any one, and trust my associates will see that I am decently laid away and that a notice of my death appears in the St. Louis papers is my last request. Good-by all."

The deceased was 32 years of age and a resident of St. Louis.

THE LIFE OF CHRIST as exhibited by Mr. A. W. Struthers, has attracted very large audiences in the various churches and opera houses of the country. An audience of over two thousand witnessed it in Dr. Wild's Congregational church, Toronto. The St. Thomas (Ont.) Journal thus refers to his visit to that city: "The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Church netted a very handsome sum from the entertainment given last night, Feb. 27th, 1889, by Mr. Struthers. The large church was well filled, and the audience was evidently exceedingly gratified by the entertainment. Mr. Struthers' collection of views is large and well chosen, and his apparatus certainly of the best, and the entertainment equal to the finest. Music was rendered appropriate to the scenes by the choir, which assisted in making a beautiful entertainment throughout." Mr. Struthers will be in the Lyceum, Monday, July 20th. For further particulars see advertisement.

HOW THE INFLUENCE IS EXERTED.—There was a great deal of dissatisfaction last evening because the Elfin was taken off the Southport Ferry and sent to Rocky Point, to accommodate a few of Mr. Farquharson's constituents. When it comes to a question between the inhabitants of Charlottetown, Lot 48 and Belfast and those of Rocky Point, the latter is bound to win every time, so long as Farquharson rules the roost.

FOR THE HOT WEATHER.—Attention is directed to the advertisement in another column of Francis Drake's celebrated Belfast ginger ale, champagne, cider and lemonade. These goods are of excellent quality and purity. Just the thing for tea parties and pic-nics. They are put up in pints and half pints, and can be had of Thorne Bros., who are the sole agents for P. E. Island. Families and the trade supplied at reasonable rates.

HALF HOLIDAY.—The clerks in the St. John dry goods stores have been granted a half holiday on Fridays of each week. The arrangement went into effect on Friday last, and will be continued during the months of July and August. Five hundred men are directly affected by the change.
