The Expos and Panthers

JOCK TALK

By Mickey place

As we write this our attention is being diverted by the Expo-Dodger game and, at the moment we feel very frustrated as our heroes seem to be very inept. We would not blame them if they didn't have bats in their hands but the ball just seems to be going by them all the time as they gaze at it. We have strong feelings that a triumph for our good Canadian lads (nationality by osmosis) would be a terrific boost in morale for the whole nation and would unite us after diversity over such relatively unimportant things as the economy or the constitution. Didn't it warm your heart to see that good boy Cromartie wave the Maple Leaf flag after the win over Philadelphia?? Commenting on our own Panther activities we regret to report that the Lady Panthers lost two games abroad to the U.N.B. steamroller team. The scores were 4-0 and 4-1 with Mary Morrison getting our only marker. Wins this week over Moncton and Mount A. are essential if we are to make the playoffs.

In Soccer our boys travelled to Wolfville where they took a close game from Acadia 3-2 with goals from Scott Neal and Gary Polenz with Trevor Crawford booting in the winner. We are now 4-1 and tied for the divisional lead with U.N.B. whom we play here on Saturday and Sunday. We play(ed) Mount A. in Sackville Wednesday afternoon. Three wins would be REALLY nice.

In hockey the Panthers played two over last weekend, winning 5-3 and tying St. F.X. 7-7 on Sunday. We thought the team looked very good for this, it's first outing. Late cut from the Winnipeg N.H.L. team Avalino Gomez gave up two early goals in Saturday's game but was sensational from then on, barring the way for all shots until the late moments of the final period. He was most impressive, particularly in the second period when we played shorthanded for most of the 20 minutes. Norman Beck showed his usual scoring skill and, with newcomers Doug Currie and Garth Arsenault should form a most potent combination. Sunday's 7-7 game had players on both teams concentrating on an offensive binge and while our Jamie Cudmore made a good showing he had a lot of shots to handle. Both games were quite clean, although hard hitting. We were quite amazed when, during one altercation, we noted Brian O'Stroski playing a spectator role! Saint Mary's, whom we hear picked up some "V" cuts, will be here for an exhibition game on Saturday night. That should be entertaining.

Well the Expo's lost and the damn Yankess are ahead, Why the Hell do we get so interested? It always seems we pick the eventual losers.

We liked the story of Pat, a worker in a brewery who fell into a vat and was drowned. Mike was delegated to go break the sad news to his widow. After her initial grief she tried to look on the brighter side by saying his had been a quick and painless death. Mike said: "Painless yes... quick I don't know, he had to come out twice to go to the toilet." I feel like Pat.
