

MISCELLANEOUS.

The straight ticket often has crooked men on it.
Sixty private bills will be before Parliament next session.
Coal is so black that the New Orleans "Picayune" wonders how a dealer can make a ton so light.
Mr. Bourinot, the Clerk of the House of Commons enters on his duties on the 1st of December.
Labouchere contends that to succeed humbug must have some admixture of talent and talent some.
Chief-Justice Coleridge, of the Common Pleas, is mentioned as likely to succeed the late Chief-Justice Cockburn.
Mr. Spurgeon's health has not been improved, and he will be compelled, as usual, to spend the winter at Mentone, in Italy.
Mark Twain addressed a German Republican meeting at Hartford, Conn., the other night, speaking in both German and English and receiving great applause.
Extremely cold weather is reported from Colorado, the thermometer at Denver on the 17th indicating 14 degrees below the cypher, at Leadville 20 degrees below and at Breckenridge 39 below.
A special despatch to New York from Shanghai, states that a treaty was concluded on the 17th instant, between the United States Commissioner and the Government at Peking, thoroughly controlling the question of Chinese immigration.
'Spanish girls,' says London Truth, 'are the most sprightly flirts in the world. There is not much in them besides flirtation. The tongue of the Creole of Spanish origin is easier to fatigue and does not run on so rapidly. It seems to me that the eternal play of the fan which the Madeline keeps up would soon irritate to madness nerves that are at all excitable.'

VARIETIES.

A prude was once a coquette, and changed because she had to.
Over-strict economy in youth may lead to avarice in old age.
Many young ladies now have pressing engagements—pressing autumn leaves.
'Mine, minor minus!' This is the general upshot of speculation in mining stock.
Who were the first astrologers? The stars, because they first studied the heavens.
Brides who exhibit their wedding presents are now voted common and of no account.
It is better to have been nominated and defeated than never to have been nominated at all.
Brides who do not receive a house and lot from their papa are not up to the modern standard.
Those who cater for fashionable society predict the gayest and most eventful winter on record.
England may be 'mistress of the C's,' but she has never yet been fairly able to master the 'H's.'

An exchange argues that the eagle is the aristocrat of birds, because he moves in the highest circles.
Opportunities are very sensitive things: if you slight them on their first visit, you seldom see them again.
An employe who is wrongfully suspected and secretly watched will often consider himself licensed to defraud.
'Small by degrees': 'Mayn't I have some more sugar in my tea, Aunt Georgy?' 'Why, you have had three pieces!' 'Yes, but they melt away so.'

An Ohio girl sued a man for breach of promise, and proved him such a mean scoundrel that the jury decided that she ought to pay him something for not marrying her.
According to the London papers, the Queen always travels with a disgraceful array of shabby boxes, hand-bags, bundles, baskets, and so on—in short, much as other women are apt to travel.
Rev. Dr. Hall said every blade of grass was a sermon. The next day he was amusing himself by clipping his lawn, when a parishioner said, 'That's right, doctor; cut your sermons short!'

Babe to her mamma: 'Mamma, will you take me to my little cousin's funeral?' 'No, child; yesterday you were at a soiree, this morning at a matinee. You have had enough amusement for the present.'

A Good Account.

'To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit.'
