LODGE MEETING — The regular meeting of Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, was largely attended Thursday evening. The Noble Grand, Catherine Stewart, presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Lillian MacDonald and were approved as read. The correspondence included a letter from Walter Callow regarding the annual Callow tag day. One member was reported in the hospital and a former member was reported ill in the hospital. The second night on nomination was made for conferring the Rebekah degree at the next meeting to be followed by a lobster supper. A number of committees were appointed to look after details for the supper. At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed.

FUNERAL SUNDAY — The funeral of the late Murdoch J. MacDonald, who passed away at his home at Whim Road on Thursday, June 17, was held from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, Sunday afternoon, following a short service at the home at 1:30. Both services were conducted by Rev. D. A. Campbell. Mrs. A. F. Campbell was organist and the hymns sung were "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "Rock of Ages". The hymn "Beyond The Sunset" was beautifully rendered by Messrs. Willard Bruce, John Bears and Malcolm Munro. Members of the Montague Branch of the Canadian Legion attended in a body and conducted the service at the grave. The pall bearers were Lawrence Stuart, Lester MacDonald, Colin MacDonald, George Clary, Webb Nicholson and Cecil Campbell. Interment took place in the Montague cemetery.

King's District W.I. Annual Convention

The annual convention of the Women's Institute of North Kings was held in Fortune Road School June 10, with delegates attending from Goose River, St. Peter's Bay, Morell, Morell East, Morell River, St. Peter's Harbor and Fortune Road. The minutes of the last annual convention were read by the convention secretary Mrs. Alban Burge and approved and signed by the president, Mrs. Justin Larkin. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Justin Larkin and was responded to by Mrs. McLeod, of St. Peter's Bay Institute. It was noted with satisfaction that many schools held music classes and that sewing and garden clubs were sponsored. Mrs. M. I. Doyle spoke on the "Associated Country Women of the World" Conference which she attended last year. Miss Mary Robin spoke on nutrition and demonstrated her talk by means of paper cuttings of fruit and vegetables necessary for a balanced diet and good health. Mrs. Stuart McGregor spoke of Women's Institute projects such as music, drama, Tweedsmuir Competition and the Handicraft Van. Miss Lohma Anderson, local music teacher, led the sing-songs and also played the organ. Fun and nonsense was presented by Morell Rear Institute and took the form of a recitation, "The Inventor's Wife", recited by Mrs. John O'Neill, St. Peter's Bay and Greenwich Institutes displayed handicrafts. St. Peter's Bay Institute invited the delegates to convene in their district next year. The singing of the National Anthem brought a very successful convention to a close. A chicken salad supper was served the visiting delegates by Fortune Road Women's Institute.

WHIM ROAD W. I. — The members of Whim Road W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Miles MacKinnon recently to hold their monthly meeting. Eleven members and seven visitors were present to answer roll call with an exchange of plant slips and seeds. The president, Mrs. Leslie Stuart, opened the meeting with the "Collect for Club Women" repeated by everyone. The secretary, Mrs. M. J. Munro, read the correspondence that had been received during the month. Copies of the institute new recipe books, and other interesting bulletins and pamphlets were passed around. A number of completed garments were handed in to the Acting Rec Cross Convener, Mrs. Webb Nicholson. The different committees for the month gave their reports as follows: School — It was reported that several items such as towels and soap were needed at the school. Entertainment — A number of lively and interesting contests were put on by Mrs. George Clary and Mrs. Lawrence Stuart, who were in charge of the program for the evening. Appointed on the entertainment committee for next month were Mrs. Robert Campbell and Mrs. M. J. Munro. A penny sale held by Mrs. J. N. MacDonald was won by Mrs. Garnet Moore, who will conduct the next sale. Mrs. Webb Nicholson invited the members to her home for the next meeting. Roll call will be answered by "A Kindness Someone has Done for Me." The hostess, Mrs. MacKinnon, assisted by several of the ladies served an enjoyable lunch.

IN MEMORIAM — In loving memory of Mrs. Harry MacNeill, Murray Harbour, who passed away June 17th, 1952. Two years have passed since that sad day. The one we loved was called away. We loved her then, we love her still. Forget her no, we never will. So many things have happened. Since you were called away; Things you would have enjoyed. Had you been left to stay. So many things to share with you. In just the usual way. Things would be much nicer. If you were here today. In our hearts your memory lingers sweetly, tender, fond and true. There is not a day dear Mother that we do not think of you.

Sadly Missed by Husband, Sons and Daughters.

Vernon District Annual S. S. Convention

The annual Vernon District M. R. E. C. Sunday School Convention was held June 15, at Pownal United Church. There was a large attendance. S. S. reports and allocations were acknowledged from the Church School at Alexandra, Mt. Herbert, Pownal, Hazelbrook, Millview, Vernon River, and Cherry Valley. The theme of this convention was, "Go Ye Therefore and Teach."

The afternoon session opened with a short worship service conducted by Pownal United Church S. S. Superintendent, Mr. Arnold Bruce. The convention president, Mr. Arnold Bruce, Pownal, welcomed the delegates and introduced to us our convention leader, Rev. J. Elton Davidge, Christian Education field secretary, Sackville, N. B.

Rev. Mr. Davidge displayed teaching aids which would be of great benefit in Sunday School work. Discussions on lesson preparation and lesson presentation, were led by Rev. Mr. Davidge after which an interesting film, "The Teacher Prepares" was shown. Mr. Harold Carver, Superintendent of Hazelbrook Baptist Church led the evening devotions. The theme was, "The Good Shepherd."

The scripture lesson, St. John 10:1-11 was read by Miss Jean MacKenzie. This was followed by reading, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" by Mrs. Henry Jones. A dialogue, "Let's Get Together," outlined the meaning of the M. R. E. C. Those taking part were Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. George Hayden, Rev. T. R. Gouge and Mr. Arnold Bruce.

The nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, Mrs. C. Reg. Jenkins and Mrs. Harold Smith brought in the following slate of officers: President; Mr. Arnold Bruce, vice-president; Mrs. George Hayden, secretary; Mrs. Lawson MacEachern. The resolutions committee of Mrs. Henry Jenkins, Mrs. Edison Smith, Mrs. George Hayden, submitted the following report: "It is resolved that we extend our sincerest appreciation to Rev. J. E. Davidge for his inspiring leadership and helpful information during the convention. (2) We also wish to thank Rev. and Mrs. Gouge also the officers of Pownal. (3) We wish to thank our president, Mr. Arnold Bruce, who discharged his duties so pleasantly at this convention and who has been such a faithful Sunday School worker over a period of years; also we wish to thank Mrs. Kenneth Paynter for her inspiring solo and all those who helped to make this convention a success. (4) Whereas the afternoon session is especially valuable for Sunday School teachers, for discussion of materials and methods be it resolved that we stress attendance at the afternoon session of the next rally and each of us here bring others."

The convention closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Davidge and the pronouncing of Benediction by Rev. T. R. Gouge.

First Case Of Cancer From Atomic Burn

TOKYO (AP) — The English-language Japan News says the first recorded case of cancer as the aftermath of an atomic burn has been reported in Japan. Immediately after the atom-bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945 widespread cancer was predicted. The United States atomic bomb casualty commission conducted a series of studies using the victims of the atom bomb as subjects, but the specific findings of that group have never been fully revealed. The first malignant growth to be diagnosed as cancer and attributed to the atom bomb was announced by Dr. Chuta Tamagawa, a pathologist at Hiroshima University. The doctor said the victim is 34 and suffered burns on the back of the head when the atom bomb exploded nine years ago. The wound had not healed, and recently cancer was detected.

Successful Canadian Legion Zone Rally Held Last Night At Souris

A Canadian Legion zone rally was held last night at Souris. Representatives attended from St. Peter's and Morell and Souris branches in the zone and visitors from Kingston Branch. Representatives were present from the V. L. A., D.V.A., and Pensions Commission. Comrade John McIntyre was made secretary and Comrade Foch MacDonald, president of Souris branch called the meeting to order.

The meeting was late starting and it was decided to leave the election of officers until a later rally, probably at Morell. Speakers included Comrade Sinclair, zone chairman for Queen's, who outlined proceedings at zone meetings and the officers to be elected; Comrade Kennedy of the V.L.A., who told of the loans possible to farmers and fishermen, and discussed small holdings; Stan Bryant, president of the Charlottetown branch; Comrades Bruce, president and MacEachern, secretary of the Kingston branch; and Comrade McGrath, secretary of the Morell branch.

Notes of thanks were passed, including one moved by Comrade W. E. Pierce and seconded by George Webster to the visitors. Following the meeting the Ladies Auxiliary served lunch.

Lorne Valley Vicinity

Service at Lorne Valley Presbyterian Church on June 6 was conducted by the Minister, Rev. Donald Campbell who preached an impressive sermon. A large congregation joined in the singing of hymns, "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Lead Kindly Light," and "When All Thy Mercies, O My God." Mrs. Daniel Shaw was the organist.

The annual school meeting was held in Lorne Valley school on Tuesday evening. It was decided to shingle the roof of the school with asphalt. Mr. Bert Leard was elected trustee. The school board is now composed of Mr. Lloyd MacDonald, Mr. James Callaghan and Mr. Leard. Mrs. Sandra MacEachern has been engaged as teacher for another year. The district is most fortunate in securing the services of such an efficient teacher for another term.

Retire on $200 A Month for Life!

A popular Halifax grocer and his wife recently retired on $200 a month for life. Their dreams of security and comfort have come true, thanks to a decision the grocer made in 1923. It was then he took out a Confederation Life Insurance Pension Plan which included $20,000 insurance protection. He had just opened his store... and with the baby and the payments on his home, he had only so much left for retirement plans. It was a pleasant surprise when his Confederation Man told him how easily his dreams could come true—without risks or investment worries. You'll be pleasantly surprised too at how easily you can make your dreams come true—and protect your loved ones at the same time—with a Confederation Life Pension Plan with Insurance.
