Harvie-Oulton Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Brae United Church on Tuesday afternoon, June 19th, when Miss Ada Selma Ferne Oulton youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oulton of the Brae became the bride of L. A. C. Ernest Harvie of Windsor, N. S., who is attached to the R. C. A. F. station, Summerside.

The officiating minister was Rev. W. G. Dickson, O'Leary. The lovely little rural church was packed with neighbors, relatives and friends of the young couple. It was very appropriately decorated with many pretty flowers.

The citizens of Prince Edward Island owe a debt of gratitude to Saint Dunstan's, he stated. "Year in and year out, without Government assistance and with only vision, faith and zeal, St. Dunstan's has accomplished wonderful things in the field of education."

He reviewed the work of the Alumni Association in starting the project and stated that donations were received from alumni members and friends from all over the continent. "Tonight we are gathering friends to rejoice in the happy realization of our dreams," he stated.

His Excellency Bishop Boyle thanked the members of the Alumni Association "for their very progressive spirit when they envisioned such an addition to our campus as this." He stated that the University Board of Governors were proud of the fine spirit shown by the Association and admired their courage in undertaking the financing of the building.

He reviewed the founding of the University which took place in 1855 almost a hundred years ago. "We of this generation should take our hats off to those people for their courage," he said.

Following the dedication ceremony an alumni dance was held in honor of the occasion. The dance was largely attended and music was supplied by the Down-towners.

The main floor provides plenty of space for gymnastics and a spacious basketball court. Several basketball games can be conducted at the same time in the building. It will also serve as an auditorium and community centre.

Underneath is the basement which may some day be used as a class room for agricultural courses. The completion of the gymnasium brings to six the number of new buildings constructed at St. Dunstan's within the past few years. These buildings are: The Science Hall, Memorial Hall, Chapel and dining room, central heating plant and the laundry.
