The annual banquet of the Montague Curling Club was held at the Legion Hall Thursday night, attended by approximately 70 members of both the ladies' and gentlemen's clubs. A delicious chicken and turkey dinner was served by the Haven Restaurant, proprietor Cecil Drake, in a very efficient manner.

Following the banquet, the president, Mr. Doug MacGowan, presented his report of the season's activities. He was pleased to note, he said, the large increase in membership this year, and felt that it would continue in the future. He stressed the fact that the lady curlers had contributed greatly to the success of the club, and it was associated with them. He went on to say that the club had been represented at all interclub competitions at Charlottetown and Summerside, and although there had been no victories, the local club had given a good account of themselves.

In conclusion he expressed his appreciation for the co-operation and support received from the members during the year, and looked forward to an equally successful season next year.

His Worship, Mayor B.H. Yeo, also spoke briefly, congratulating the club on its successful operation during the year, and expressed the hope that it would grow steadily in the years to come. The presentation of prizes and trophies followed:

Following this Mr. Louis Cairns again called the meeting to order, this time to do honours to Mr. William Cairns, secretary of the Forum on the eve of his departure for Europe where he has been awarded a Nuffield scholarship for six months study of Agriculture in the United Kingdom.

After some complimentary and humorous remarks he called upon Mrs. Allen Glow to make the presentation of a beautiful leather travelling case. Mr. Cairns, though taken by surprise, thanked the members very sincerely for their kindness.

Delicious ice cream and cake were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Basil Taylor. After a social hour had been spent the members returned to their homes well pleased with the work of the Forum, and wishing William a very successful and educational trip.

chance Bunny might get stuck in the mud? "How does he color the Easter eggs?" and so on and on. The calm one of the family is Mama Cat-cat. She sits with an inscrutable look on her gray triangle-shaped face and purrs contentedly. No doubt she is thinking, "I'd pass up all this for a good fat field mouse".

And so the day draws to a close and finally everything is finished and done with and everyone sits quietly while dusk steals in with its purple mantle and turns light to dark. On three guitars and a violin, the boys play all the old songs, the new ones and the in-between. If only this would last, I think I rock Garth quietly to sleep—but the years bring changes and only God knows what the months will bring before another Easter rolls around.

7. Sunday: The wonderful Day is here at last. Everyone goes up the hill to church. I'll always think Easter Sunday is the nicest day of the year because it is a day of hope and promise. Easter means joy unlimited! It is the story of the ones who came to grieve at a tomb, but who found it empty, guarded by an angel who told them, "Fear not—He is not here—And they left with great joy." Our belief that all things good will live, the triumph of courage over doubt, the determination to make our lives worth living—are all bound up in the meaning of Easter. The future can be as limitless as your faith. Happy Easter, everyone!"

Just as the chill and dark of fear And doubt give way to truth and light—

As dawn must triumph over night—

So with the springtime of the year The winter's cold must disappear As warmth returns. And joyfully We welcome each glad symbol of Enduring goodness, truth and love. Behold in leaf in flower, and tree Eternal life . . . and victory!
