

THE WEB

The band, The Web, played to a small but enthusiastic crowd last Thursday, October 2nd. They played songs from a lot of well-known groups such as the Eurythmics, B-52's, Simple Minds, The Clash, and Pet Shop Boys to mention a few. The response of the crowd was good, but more people should have come to hear this excellent band.

The members, Holly Derbyshire — lead vocals, Kris Abbott — back-up vocals, Gary Orme — drums, Dave Walker — bass guitar, John Radul — keyboards and vocals, have a lot of enthusiasm. They respond to the crowd very well changing or adding any songs to their playlist. The two new members, Dave and Gary, have been with the Web approximately a year. They joined soon after the band's performance at UPEI last year. All the members have high expectations of the group's future.

Later this year, they plan to have an EP recorded. The group finds their own songs go over quite well and expect the EP to be successful. CIMN will soon be receiving some promotional songs from the Web which will definitely be played on the air.

The Web originated about 3 years ago. They started out playing part-time in small clubs in Toronto. Since then they have increased their circuit in the Maritimes now playing full-time. They have played in the States, the upper parts of Maine. The band would like to play other places in the States perhaps going down into South Carolina and Georgia.

Overall, The Web is a band that has good un-tapped potential. They played some excellent songs last Thursday at the Barn. Each of the members show a high amount of motivation to improve their popularity and visibility around Canada. Their upcoming EP should be a great success and exhibit their rock-n-roll ability.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT

The Cast:
Rob Lowe: Danny

Demi Moore: Debbie

James Belushi: Bernie
Elizabeth Perkins: Joan

The story thus far:

Danny and Bernie are working buddies. They're just a couple of wild and crazy guys out to meet some girls and do the things that bad little 24-year-olds do. Debbie and Joan are a couple of roommates, intent on netting themselves some great-looking guys. Unfortunately, this only appears to work for Debbie, who gains increasing interest in Danny. First they are lovers; then they're in love. What happens next is what you pay five bucks for.

I like the movie, but it doesn't climax too clearly (unlike the actors). It is all boy-girl conflict in a starting relationship. Humour (mainly created by Bernie and Joan) carried the movie through. Guys, if you like a movie with a pretty girl, and girls, if you like a movie with a handsome guy, and if you like lots of hot, steamy sex scenes this movie is for you. It has a nice underlying idea, but unfortunately appears to be a flop.

RATING: ***

GEM film rating guide:

BOMB — Self explanatory.

* — Extremely bad. You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll miss five bucks goodbye.

** — Not much better. Only if you have lots and lots of money to waste.

*** — Mediocre. Your money can be better spent.

**** — You've already seen it. The material is overworked, but if you like remakes ...

***** — Average. It's OK, but definitely not a blockbuster.

*****+ — Not bad. The film has some decent (or indecent, according to preference) parts.

***** — Pretty good. Relatively new material, good theme and coherency. Show delivers what it promises.

*****+ — Exceptionally good. Quality matched by few. You need not feel guilty blowing $5 on this one.

***** — Totally awesome. Absolutely colossal. Mega-cosmic (look, you think up some valley-girl expressions for this, will ya?)!
