

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

FEBRUARY 23, 1891.

Electors, Remember! - A Vote for Davies and Welsh is a Vote for Direct Taxation.

WORK!

Let every day until the 5th of March be a day of work. In the past week splendid work was done. Keep it up. Remember, "He wins the fight who can the most endure."

A long pull and a strong pull. That is what is wanted. Urge forward your plans as to getting out the vote. A team on election day is worth more than big speeches. What is wanted is such a victory that the annexationists will be swept out of sight from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

It is for the honor of Canada, the peace and fame of your country, that you are working.

The Campaign.

An energetic and lively campaign will be ended in a few days. We shall soon know what will be the fate of Canada. Whether it will be a great Dominion, in partnership with the Mother Country, enjoying the civil and religious liberty which is found wherever waves the flag which for a thousand years has braved the battle and the breeze, or whether it will be the northern "annex" of the Republic of North America, is a question which will be determined, more or less definitely, on Thursday next.

It is pleasing to note that the people seem to be impressed with the gravity of the occasion. Never has there been deeper and more careful attention paid to the representations of the various speakers of the discussions of the press. Never have we seen more orderly conduct at the public meetings. The abuse of strong drink has been, in Charlottetown, at least, much less marked than is usual in times of political excitement. As intoxicating drinks are now unprohibited and unlicensed, this fact tends to prove that here, as in other towns of Canada, the baser appetites of man are under better control than they were in former years.

Direct Taxation.

Mr. L. H. DAVIES labors to assure the Liberals of this province that direct taxation is a necessary evil. He is in support of today's nomination papers. W. N. Fullerton, of Amherst, died suddenly in St. John to-day in the Lunatic Asylum. He was at one time a leading citizen of Amherst.

HEAVY ODDS OFFERED

That the Government will be Sustained.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.

Six candidates were nominated here, three of whom will certainly lose their deposit.

One strong indication of popular feeling as to the result of the election is the fact that bets are a hundred to one on the Government being sustained, and even these odds cannot find acceptance. The only debatable ground is the size of the majority.

American Competition.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27. Two caravans of horses arrived at Emerson, Manitoba, this week from Illinois. They are laid down at twenty per cent lower than Canadian horses could be purchased for. More caravans are on the way.

Relief for starving Farmers.

TORONTO, Feb. 27. The Kansas Legislature has appropriated $750,000 for the relief of the starving farmers in that State.

"Should the Liberals triumph all doubts will be set at rest as to what is Canada's destiny. It will not be so very many years before she will be knocking at the door of your Uncle Sam." - Buffalo News

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. - Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button. It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. A Grain of Truth

ACCORDING to the Patriot's report, Mr. L. H. Davies said in the Lyceum on Thursday evening:

"He believed the Liberals would sweep the country this time as they did in 1878, and the reports from the other Provinces substantiate this belief."

We believe that there is truth in this sentence. The Liberals will "sweep" in such a way that they will leave Sir John Macdonald a large majority—as in 1878! There are, however, good grounds for the hope that P. E. Island will not be swept out into opposition—with the minority—as in 1887!

The Point Well Taken.

The following extract is from an article entitled "A Canadian-American Liaison," written by Mr. Watson Griffin for the Magazine of American History:

"The outcome of a Canadian-American liaison, whether under the name of 'Commercial Union' or 'Unrestricted Reciprocity,' would be almost complete stagnation on the Canadian side of the boundary. Politically dependent on Great Britain and commercially dependent on the United States, the Dominion would be like a legless man with a broken crutch on one side and an ill-fitting wooden leg on the other. No one could believe in the permanency of such an arrangement, and capitalists could not be induced to invest in a country with such uncertain future. The Canadian people would have to contribute their share of the cost of the International Parliament in addition to maintaining their own Dominion Parliament and the provincial legislatures. Heavily taxed, suffering from loss of trade, and despised alike by British and American as account of their dependent position and the sale of their birthright, Canadians would very soon wish to end the liaison."

"What Will They Say in England?"

MR. L. H. DAVIES amused his hearers in the Lyceum on Thursday evening by expressing the opinion that "Great Britain would not mind" the discrimination against her trade ($22,000,000 or so per year) which is involved in the proposition of "unrestricted reciprocity." His unrestricted reciprocity leader holds a different idea in respect to this point. Mr. Wiman says:

"No Government in England could stand for a day that would agree to inaugurate a taxation in a part of the colonial empire of Great Britain on British goods, while they were willing to admit those from a hated commercial rival free of duty."

As showing the drift of public opinion in England, the Salisbury Journal (Feb. 7) says:

"We have showed Canada in one hemisphere and Victoria in another to protect themselves all round and tax British and foreign goods alike; but the demand that a BRITISH COLONY SHALL BE ALLOWED TO FAVOR A FOREIGN NATION AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MOTHER COUNTRY CAN NEVER BE ENTERTAINED WHILE CANADA REMAINS A PORTION OF THE EMPIRE."

A Good Test.

There are perhaps no articles of consumption from which the workman extracts more profit than from the regulation of Washington. It would seem impossible that the American people would ever consent to permit the smaller body to have much influence in regulating the rates of duties to be levied. - E. castus Wiman

TWO BURGLARIES. - About two o'clock this morning burglars entered the store of Henry Rackham, corner of Prince and Kent streets, and stole therefrom $3 in cash and disturbed a quantity of groceries. An entrance was effected by breaking a pane of glass in one of the windows.

The store of George Vatcher, on the corner of Easton and Orlebar streets, was also burglariously entered last night, and some money and groceries were stolen.

Chambly, said: "We Liberals are not afraid of annexation," and the sentiment was cheered." - London Times, Feb. 7, 1891.

1878 Prices in Canada - 1891

THE Canadian Journal of Commerce (non-political) publishes the following list of prices, and says:

"These figures are significant enough, and call for no comment from us. They tell their own story and appeal more eloquently than all the addresses and manifestos that have yet seen the light on both sides of the political dividing line, and we submit them with all due respect to the opposing candidates throughout the Dominion."

Table with columns for Bank Stocks (Feb 14, Feb 12, 1891) and Merchandise (wholesale) with various items like Bank of Montreal, Bank of Commerce, etc.

Table with columns for Men's thick boots (average), Men's calf boots (average), Women's pairs (average), Tea (Japan), Tea (China), Tea (Souchong), Coffee, Molasses, Baradoes, Cloves, Nutmegs, Pepper, Mustard, Rice, common, Nails, cut, Tin Plate, I. C. charcoal, White Lead, Red Lead, Oats, Barley, Flour, strong bakers, Butter, Townships, Cheese, Eggs, Hams, Pork, Hops (new).

Notes and Comments. - Cure Sentente, Montreal, a few days ago preached in Mardi Gras Church, denouncing unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, which, he said, would lead to annexation, and by it Catholics would lose all their British rights and privileges.

President R. B. Bullock, of the Atlantic chamber of commerce, after Sir Richard Cartwright had concluded his address on unrestricted reciprocity at Boston, said: "The ready road to reciprocity with our neighbors is to accept Sir Richard Cartwright as a Senator from the State of Ontario."

Apropos of the unanimous election of the Hon. James E. Macdonald, an esteemed correspondent writes THE EXAMINER: "The pet candidate of the grit faction from Charlottetown attended the meetings in the grit interest; but, discretion being the better part of valor, he was not nominated, and consequently the Liberal-Conservative candidate was elected by acclamation." - Here is the Toronto Globe's answer to the statements of hog raisers and packers that Unrestricted Reciprocity would ruin the hog trade: -

"Some of our Conservative contemporaries are saying that the hog industry will be destroyed by Unrestricted Reciprocity. If this remark applies to the tariff hog, it is strictly true. This may be funny, but they cannot gain say the fact that Canadian farmers would lose most of the $9,124,472 which they received for hogs in 1890."

Mr. Stapleton Caldecott, of Caldecott, Burton & Co., is one of those who were counted on as supporters of the unrestricted trade. It is true that he is neither a Con-

(WRITTEN FOR THE EXAMINER) The Olden Flag.

Raise high the royal standard! Shame not thy royal birth, The prestige of thy might sustain, Thou noblest of the earth! Great Canada! thou fair, free land, A world looks forth to thee; No alien hand thine hand may lead, Thou'lt bow no servile knee.

Then rally round the olden flag! The loved red white and blue; Let traitors scheme, or boasters brag, To Canada prove true.

Floot on, Oh flag of Empire vast! Long may thy colors wave O'er many a blood-bought heritage, O'er many a hero's grave, The grandeur of thy fame doth light The fields our fathers won, The noblest gift which valiant sire Could e'er bequeath his son.

Then rally round the olden flag, etc. Droop not, Oh peerless standard! Oh loyal hearts and true! Forget not ye the olden land, Though cherishing the new, Forget not hope and hearts are one, From Britain's sea-girt Isles To where, beyond the Rocky steep, The broad Pacific smiles.

Then rally round the olden flag, etc. Wave on, Oh flag of Empire vast! O'er mountain, rock, and stream, Where wholesome fealty rests secure Beneath thy fervent gleam, Yet, should the tramp of hostile feet Arise o'er peaceful shore, True British hearts, and swords would aid Our Canada once more.

Then rally round the olden flag, etc. Wave on, Oh flag of Empire vast! O'er mountain, rock, and stream, Where wholesome fealty rests secure Beneath thy fervent gleam, Yet, should the tramp of hostile feet Arise o'er peaceful shore, True British hearts, and swords would aid Our Canada once more.
