

Board gives the Council a detailed account of their revenue and expenditure for the year ending 30th June, 1880. A public meeting is being talked of to ventilate the matter, when it is probable there will be a "warm" time.

Since the new ferry boat "Wellington" has taken the place of the "Jennie B." on the ferry between Summerside and Bedeque, business has been on the increase. The number of passengers have been more than doubled; and during the week she has brought over 3000 bushels of oats and a considerable quantity of other freight. Besides making her regular three trips a day to Bedeque, she has been engaged in carrying material to the new lighthouse.

(From an Occasional Correspondent.)
Our civic electors are quite excited over the approaching contest for Town Councilors. Council meetings are being held nearly every evening, in some of which many of the leading citizens take prominent parts. There will be at least three tickets or parties in the field—the Old Board—the Temperance men—and the Reformers. The three men spoken of as Candidates for the position of Chairman are Thomas Brehaut of the old Board; David Montgomery for the Temperance men and Dr. Price as a reformer. Present appearances, rather indicate that the contest will be closest between Price and Montgomery.

The fall trade in oats and Potatoes has commenced in earnest. Several of our merchants are busily engaged in loading vessels for the Foreign and American markets.

Every day considerable quantities of new goods are arriving in the Town from the Dominion, U S, and England, and the Trades are looking forward to a prosperous season.

It is expected that our County Exhibition will be largely patronized and fully equal to any preceding one.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 4, 1880.

THE revenue obtained from the Customs at Halifax during the quarter ending 30th September last was $321,210.36, as against $232,931.51 during the same period of last year. So trade, even in Halifax, is looking up.

C. C. GARDINER, the Island's Commissioner at the Montreal Exhibition, returned home on Saturday evening. The kindness of the Exhibiting Commissioners, he says, could hardly be exceeded; and he assures us that the statement we made—on the representation of two of our most respected citizens—concerning the difficulty with regard to stalls for our horses, was strictly correct. He visited Hamilton with the view of obtaining sheep of the Oxford Down, the Shropshire and the Hampshire Down breeds; but was unable to obtain them, as the breeders of Ontario are themselves only just beginning to import and breed from those celebrated strains. He could, however, have obtained any number of Leicesters, Lincolns and Cotswolds, of the finest kinds. He reports that one of the yearling Cotswold rams on exhibition at Hamilton, weighed no less than 385 lbs. The horned cattle on exhibition at Hamilton, he says, were splendid animals. A four year old steer weighed 2,850 lbs. and a three year old steer weighed 2,100 lbs.

A SPECIAL despatch from Fort Ellis says that an Indian arrived there in full war paint with a scalp hanging to his belt, bringing news of bloody fighting by Mandrill Stony and Salteux Indians, south of there. The Mandrills raided the camp of the Salteux and killed nine persons. A band of Salteux under Ocean Man gave chase and killed nine Mandrills. A band of the Stonies are also following the Mandrills and more fighting is expected. Another account says the village attacked made a desperate resistance and killed 13 Mandrills. It is said that the whole border is in a blaze of excitement. The fleeing Mandrills are making their way to American territory from whence they came. It was thought that the Stony and Salteux Indians would pursue them on the other side and that the scene of war will be transferred to the United States.

"We have received from Sir Leonard Tilley a thoroughly satisfactory letter, positively denying the statements made in the Halifax papers concerning his late visit to the Dartmouth Brewery.

"We also learn from the letter that no reporter was present during the conversation with the proprietor, therefore only a garbled report was received by him."—Alliance Journal (Halifax) Oct. 2.

SOME days ago, referring to a laboured article in the Patriot, giving currency to a most damaging rumor against Sir Leonard, we said that the attempt of the Patriot to injure a political opponent by circulating rumors which it must know to be false, is not only contemptible but beneath contempt. In the following issue, the Patriot says:—"We cordially agree with the EXAMINER. It is contemptible in any man to circulate regarding another what he knows to be false. It is worse, it is wicked,"—and then goes on to argue that the rumor was copied from a Conservative paper in Halifax, and therefore must be true. We will not, however, give the Patriot credit for his believing any such unlikely rumors. It may have served well its purpose in the recent election in Queen's County. Any man of ordinary discretion will readily admit that unless Sir Leonard was the veriest hypocrite—unless he was prepared to belie his life long principles and forfeit the confidence of his best friends, unless he was willing to be dispised by even the proprietors of Oland's Brewery, he would never dream of using the language so improperly and, perhaps, thoughtlessly attributed to him. The name of S. L. Tilley is well known as the foremost Son of Temperance in the Dominion, and his reputation will not suffer on account of such transparent reports. Our leading public men would be kept busy indeed, if they had to notice every ridiculous misrepresentation or petty slander that may happen to appear in print.

The Go-As-You-Please.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—I see by the last two or three issues of the EXAMINER that the sporting fraternity is considerably excited over the late walking match at Summerside. Mr. Hart, who backed the Unknown, declares that it was not a "put-up-job," and that Clow never saw the Unknown before the contest took place. Another writer, who signs himself "Pedestrian," and who seems to have confidence in his ability to prove what he states, says that Clow did see the Unknown before the match, and that he was even living at Clow's at North Wiltshire, for some time before the walk took place. If this is true, it seems rather strange that Mr. Hart should make the statement he did, especially as he is the man who issued the challenge to Clow and transacted all the Unknown's business here in connection with the race. But whether Mr. Hart's statement is true or false, parties residing at North Wiltshire tell a pretty little story which does not exactly coincide with his letter. It is reported there that the Unknown was brought here by Clow, who took him to his father's residence, and introduced him to the neighbors as a new farm-servant that he had hired in town; that Clow had a track built for himself to practice on, and that every evening the young men of the vicinity—the farm-servant among the number—would gather there for the purpose of trying their speed. Sometimes a prize of fifty cents or a dollar would be put up to be competed for by these amateur pedestrians, but somehow or other the money was always won by Clow's new man; that as soon as Mr. Hart's challenge was accepted, the new man disappeared from North Wiltshire and was not seen there again until a few days after the walking match at Summerside. These are the reports which are going the rounds Mr. Editor, but whether there is any truth in them or not I cannot say. If true, the public—especially the Summersiders—have been gulled in a most rascally manner. If not true, then a great injustice is being done the promoters of the match. But at any rate, I think it is the duty of every person connected with the affair—from the Principals to the Stakeholder—to clear the matter up to the satisfaction of the public.

I see that the Patriot has also taken the matter up, but I do not think it has made things look any brighter for all concerned. In Saturday's issue the editor of the Patriot in speaking of Mr. Hart's letter says—"The fact is that so many disreputable persons are interested in these sporting affairs and mixed up with them in one way or another, that it is dangerous for any one wishing to maintain a character for fair dealing and respectability to have anything to do with them. Mr. Hart may have told nothing but the truth, but we venture to say that his letter has not converted a single sceptic."

The Patriot says that Mr. Hart may have told the truth, but the inference to be drawn from the above extract, is that such is hardly the case. Yours, etc.,

O'LEARY.
