

Ch'town Bank Manager Dies

The manager of the Charlotte-town Branch of the Provincial Bank of Canada, Edward Campbell Black, died unexpectedly yesterday morning. Born in Winnipeg, he was the son of Mrs. M. Black and the late James D. Black of Winnipeg. He joined the Provincial Bank in Montreal and was appointed manager of the branch here about five years ago. He is survived by his wife, Freda, a step-brother, Sydney in Toronto, and a step-sister, Mrs. E. Ruck in Calgary. The funeral service will be held at the MacLean Funeral Home on Saturday at 2 p.m. The remains will then be forwarded to Fernhill crematorium at Saint John, N.B.

GENTLEMAN FARMERS

Two dashing young gentlemen, eh what? Would you believe they were transformed last evening into overall-clad, straw-hatted, head-scratching farmer types for the Summer Festival's first performance of 'The Ottawa Man'? Audience approval of their absurd antics was apparent at curtain call. Caught by the camera during the Green Room reception which followed the performance were (FROM LEFT) Grant Robinson (O'Rourke), Mrs. Ronald Storey, Mrs. Roger Craig and Douglas Chamberlain (O'Reilly).

Education Committee Meets Here

Meeting yesterday with representatives of each department of education in the Atlantic Provinces was a sub-committee appointed by the ministers of education. Discussed were problems concerning educational finance and statistics. The meetings are being held in the P.E.I. Department of Education Office and will be concluded Friday.

Morell Regional High School Commencement

Marion Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Coffin, Tracadie Cross, was awarded the Trustees Prize for highest aggregate in the graduating class at the fifth annual commencement exercises held recently at Morell Regional High School.

Cletus Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn, Morell, delivered the salutatory and welcomed all present on behalf of the graduating class. Cletus received the Trustees Prize for second highest standing in Grade Twelve, as well as prize for student government and extra-curricular activities, and at the same time achieved high academic standing.

The address to the graduates was delivered by Hartwell Daley, who was introduced by the chairman Rev. Donald R. MacLennan. In his remarks to the graduates Mr. Daley stated: "You are going out into a changing world, in which much of the scientific knowledge you have learned will be obsolete in five or ten years." He also told the graduates that in order to be accepted in the world they must display an ability to get along well with other people.

Charles Campbell, principal of the school, gave a report on the various activities of the school year. He outlined the need for a General Course as part of the high school program. Mr. Campbell thanked the teachers, trustees, parents and students for their cooperation during the year.

The valedictory was delivered by Irene Larkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Larkin, Morell. Miss Larkin expressed

Scholarship Assoc. Meets

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Catholic Girls' Scholarships Association held at St. Dunstan's University, the President, Mrs. B. W. DesRoches of Miscouche, reported that $4,300 had been given out in scholarships during the past year to Catholic girls of Prince Edward Island attending St. Dunstan's University. This was the largest amount granted so far in any one year by the Association. All eligible applicants with over 65 per cent in Maritime Board Examinations or in university work who were not receiving another scholarship were given a scholarship.
