

Heads For Atlantic With Raft And Sail

SOREL, Que. (CP)—The good old Iroquois, Iroquois for "The Lost One," slid gently along the St. Lawrence river today, headed for the Atlantic and high adventure.

The raft, bound for Europe by the grace of a sail and ocean currents, left Montreal Saturday and is expected to reach the Atlantic coast of Portugal before the time of Columbus.

Purpose of the trip is adventure and to prove, Beaudout said in an interview, the legend that an Indian was found stranded on the coast of Portugal before the time of Columbus.

W. I. Convention At Carleton

The Carleton W. I. entertained the fourteen institutes of this area, when they met for their 28th annual convention in the newly completed auditorium of Carleton School on May 28.

The District President, Mrs. Emmett Gorman conducted the meeting, with Miss Elaine McQuaid as Secretary. A warm welcome was extended to the members by Mrs. John Myers, Carleton, and responded to by Miss Vivian Trainor of Kelly's Cross.

The reports of the district secretaries showed a great deal of work was accomplished during the year.

Miss Doris Anderson, special speaker for the afternoon, gave a very interesting talk on the home economics course available to girls at the Vocational School. The DeSable group entertained with fun and nonsense. Miss Mary Robin, Supervisor of Women's Work, congratulated the Institutes on the work done by them and gave a most interesting demonstration of the many useful articles which could be made from jute.

A sing-song by Cape Traverse Institute led by Mrs. Arthur McKay provided a pleasing break in the business of the session.

Mrs. Ramsay, Convener of Arts and Literature then addressed the meeting on some phases of Institute work.

A very interesting demonstration was put on by Mrs. Craig of Lady Fane. The meeting then adjourned and a delicious lunch was served by the Carleton Institute.

The evening session opened with O Canada, after which a group of children from Carleton School was heard in a round of musical festival numbers which delighted the audience.

Mrs. J. A. Lawson guest speaker, gave an informative talk on text-files. Mrs. Lawson told of the many different materials now on the market, their qualities and uses.

The remainder of the program consisted of two humorous readings by Christine McLeod, Cra-paud; a duet by Mrs. Mullins and Mrs. John MacQuarrie, Hampton; Fun and Nonsense by Tryon Institute; a duet by Augustine Cove; a solo by Mrs. Verner Norring, Cape Traverse; a sing-song led by Mrs. Arthur McKay. The pianist for the day was Mrs. Heber Myers.

A vote of thanks was extended to the organizers and to all who had contributed to the success of the convention.

The newly appointed officers were then called to the chair and the president, Mrs. Elmer Gamble after expressing hearty thanks to the retiring officers, closed the meeting with the National Anthem.
