

Information about Travel Funds

New regulations covering travel funds were announced by the Minister of Finance on Wednesday, October 4th.

The main point to remember is that Canadian residents require Form H Permit to take out of Canada more than $50 U.S. or more than $100 of Canadian and U.S. currencies combined. Form H Permits will continue to be available at banks.

The regulation covering the use of Form H for the export of currency is a safeguard against the export of capital sums where such export would not be permitted through other channels.

Authority has been given to banks and other agents of the Foreign Exchange Control Board to approve applications for U.S. travel funds without reference to the Board for amounts up to:

1. $500 per trip for bona fide business travel.
2. $500 per person in the calendar year for other travel.
3. $2,000 Canadian per year, or its equivalent, for attendance during a full academic year at a university, college or boarding school in the United States.

Applications in excess of these amounts may be referred to the Board and will be approved for reasonable amounts, having regard to the duration of the proposed journeys.

Border Travel.—Individuals may obtain up to $50 U.S. in any calendar month for use on a trip to the United States where the applicant will not be taking out of Canada more than a total of $100, of which not more than $50 is in U.S. funds.

S. D. U. Alumni Thanksgiving Supper Held

St. Dunstan's 18-2 victory over the University of New Brunswick on the college gridiron on Monday afternoon was duly celebrated at an Alumni banquet, held in the Dining Hall at the college, on the same evening. The members of the Red and White team of 1950 were the guests of the Alumni Association on that occasion and the "old boys", even those of the 1890's, who could recall many a rugged encounter in the pigskin wars, were loud in their praise of the aggressive warriors of 1950. Reginald Doucette, president of the St. Dunstan's Athletic Association, introduced the members of the team to the gathering and the applause was a spontaneous Thanksgiving Day "Thank You", from the Alumni and football players of the past to those who had represented them so well in 1950.

Present at this dinner were about 160 of the many contributors to the Gymnasium-Auditorium Fund. The Alumni Association had invited them to St. Dunstan's to see the 1950 team in action against the University of New Brunswick team, to show them the latest additions to the campus facilities, and to thank them at this Thanksgiving dinner, for their generous support and co-operation in the task of raising funds for the Gymnasium-Auditorium now under construction.

Mr. Lorne Driscoll of Summerside, vice-president of the Alumni Association, presided in the absence of president P. R. McCormack, who was absent from the Island on business. Dr. Joseph A. MacMillan, speaking eloquently on the "Contribution of St. Dunstan's to Prince Edward Island," outlined what St. Dunstan's has meant to all, but especially to former students, and fittingly expressed their thanks and his own for the innumerable blessings of which St. Dunstan's was the source. Right Rev. G. J. MacLellan, V.G., parish priest of Summerside and a former Rector of St. Dunstan's, went back to the days of Father Angus MacDonald, St. Dunstan's first rector, and traced the pattern of St. Dunstan's as it grew from infancy to its present stature, and always clung fast to its solid principles of Christian and Catholic education. "St. Dunstan's," he said, "has always been revered at home and respected abroad" adding appropriately, "especially this evening."

Brief remarks were made by Most Rev. James Boyle, D.D., Bishop of Charlottetown, and Chancellor of St. Dunstan's, and by Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, K.C.S.G.

The new convent, chapel and kitchen were open to all the visitors, and many, indeed, were the comparisons made between the facilities of S. D. U. today and those of five, ten, twenty, fifty, or even sixty years ago.

500 Fans See 8-Bout Card At Georgetown

A crowd of 500 fight fans clicked the turnstiles at the Georgetown Recreational Centre on Monday night to witness an 8-bout fight card, sponsored by the Georgetown Community Welfare League. The main bout was between the Island welterweight champion Harry "Kid" Poulton, 148 lbs. of Charlottetown, and Soggy Reid of Charlottetown, 155 lbs. The winner claimed the welterweight championship of the Island and was issued a challenge by Jinx Jenkins of Charlottetown. Reid substituted for Charlie Poenelli of Chatham, N. B. Poulton won in the fifth round in a slug-fest match which saw Reid take plenty of punishment, as he came off the canvas as many as four times in one round.

In the semi-final, a five round go between Duck Trainor, 138 lbs. of Charlottetown, and Pretty Boy Stevens, 135 lbs. of Georgetown. Trainor won a decision in a good bout.

The first preliminary brought together Roger "Killer" Walker, 35 lbs. of Georgetown, and Jimmy "Snowball" Boudreault, 42 lbs. of Georgetown. A draw decision ended a good bout by a pair of coming boxers. This bout was a 3-round go.

The next three rounds brought together "Boston Blackie" Stevens, 74 lbs. of Georgetown and "H" Bomb Dalton, 69 lbs. also of Georgetown. After a good battle the judges and referee awarded a draw decision.

Jimmy Cheverie, 120 lbs. of Souris kayeed Killer Henry, 122 lbs. of Georgetown in 1.30 seconds of the second round of a three round go.

The next fixture brought together "Shoe Horn" Lavers, 165 lbs. of Georgetown and Ora Crane, 135 lbs. from Riverton. Crane won a close decision.

"Dark Destroyer" Stevens, 146 lbs. from Georgetown and "Texas George" Steel, 143 lbs. from Souris fought a wicked go to a draw decision.

In the final three-round preliminary, Phillip Doucette, 138 lbs

Bill Ezinicki Has Only Short Stay With Leafs

TORONTO, Oct. 10 — (CP) — Bashing Bill Ezinicki came back to Toronto today, but his stay was brief.

The sturdy winger checked in after an unexplained absence from the training camp of Toronto Maple Leafs, whose National Hockey League opponents have been unwilling recipients of his bone-rattling bodychecks in the past. Tonight he checked out for Leafs' Pittsburgh farm club in the American Hockey League.

Bashing Bill's return to his familiar right-wing spot with the Leafs will depend on his ability to play himself back into shape with the Hornets against A. H. L. opposition.

When Ezinicki signed his contract today for an unannounced sum, it brought to an end one of the most unusual holdout cases in hockey.

Three weeks ago, when he failed to report to the Leafs' training camp for pre-season conditioning, Ezinicki said in an interview he wasn't feeling in shape for hockey.

Today, the Toronto club's managing director, Conn Smythe, said: "Ezinicki had some personal problems that have worried him. But now he's ready to play hockey for Maple Leaf Gardens."

Ezinicki was smiling broadly as he emerged from a four-hour contract conference with Smythe and Hap Day, the Leafs' assistant manager. "It's up to me now," he said. "I guess I'll have to go to work."

He said that after he played in the Canadian open golf championship at Montreal in August he lost 20 pounds, dropping to 152 from his normal 170-odd. Now he's back to 168, close to playing weight.

The difference between major and minor league contracts in some cases is $1,000 a season.

However, Smythe indicated it might not be too long before Bill will get a call to Toronto.

He said: "When he's in shape it shouldn't be too long before he can be of use to the Leafs because we still haven't found that extra man we need. Ezinicki seemed to have known in his own mind that he wanted to play for the Leafs but behind that one idea seemed to be a little mixed up."

Before heading for Pittsburgh, Ezinicki reported for a medical examination. He was accompanied on his trip by Day.

When Ezinicki said at Winnipeg he wasn't in shape, Smythe asked him to report to a doctor there
