Nomination Meetings Slated For Candidates In 1st Kings

SOURIS — By Wednesday evening Liberals and Progressive Conservatives will have named their candidates to contest the byelection in 1st Kings.

Monday evening the PC's will hold their nominating convention in the Regional High School and on Wednesday evening the Liberals will hold theirs in the St. Mary's Parish Hall.

Rumors here indicate there is a two-way race for the nomination within each party.

Albert Griffin, a fish buyer from Souris, and Clifford Townsend, a farmer from Fortune, are both thought to be looking for the PC nomination.

In the Liberal camp, another farmer from Fortune, Major Reid, and William Acorn, a Souris car dealer and insurance agent, are both trying to get the nod from the party.

As yet there have been no other names mentioned in connection with the contest.
