Zion Church.—Services in Zion Church to-morrow, at 11 o'clock a. m., and in the evening at 7 o'clock. The Rev. Leander McNeill will occupy the pulpit at both services. Morning prayer meeting at 10.25. Sabbath School at 2.30 p. m.

For Drill.—The members of the two batteries of Artillery and the Engineer Corps met for drill instruction at Victoria Park last evening. There was a very good attendance, and the manner in which the different exercises were performed reflected credit on all taking part.

Provincial Exhibition.—A copy of the prize list of the Provincial Exhibition, to be held in this city on the 2nd and 3rd of October next, has been forwarded The Examiner by the Secretary, A. McNeill, Esq. The list was printed at the office of Mr. John Coombs, and the work has been well done. There is no very material change in the list of prizes.

To-Morrow.—Remember the Railway Gospel meeting in McLeod's Hall, Queen Street at 4 o'clock to-morrow evening. Lesson—1 Timothy, 6—6, "But Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out." These meetings are free and open to all. Strangers always welcome.

Press Visitors.—Several members of the Canadian Press Association, who are out on one of their regular annual excursions, arrived here in the steamer from Pictou last evening, and left again on the western train this morning. During the evening a number of the party, including the President of the Association, Rev. E. H. Dewart, D. D., editor of the Christian Guardian, Toronto; the Secretary, W. R. Climie, of the Bowmanville Sun, and James Somerville, M. P., of the Dundas True Banner, were driven about the suburbs by Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., Mr. W. L. Cotton, of The Examiner, and Mr. W. A. Brennan, of the Summerside Journal. The visitors expressed themselves as highly delighted with the beautiful scenery, aud with the appearance of things generally.

All About An Indian.—Two squaws quarrelled about an Indian (the husband of one of the belligerents) on Market Square yesterday afternoon. From words they came to blows. Police Sergeant Cameron appeared on the scene while the battle was in progress, and, after separating the contestants, placed his arm about the waist of the more troublesome of the two—who had evidently been "Hopping" a little—and with the grace and air of one who thoroughly understood his business, gallantly escorted her up Queen Street to the station, followed by an admiring multitude, among whom was the husband of the captive. Whether the latter individual followed to see what effect the gallant Sergeant's embrace would have upon his wife, or, like the rest of the crowd, just through curiosity, it is not necessary to state. Suffice it to say that he arrived at the station with the procession, and went inside. Shortly after entering he and his wife began quarreling and the "brave's" pipe came to grief during the encounter. But the row was soon over, and the twain kissed each other and agreed to try and get along more quietly in future. The squaw promised faithfully that she would not get into any more trouble, and was let go. But instead of keeping her word she at once proceeded to the place where her former antagonist was, and again began upbraiding her. This time, however, the gallant Sergeant did not show up, and less kindly hands spirited her away.

Special Despatches to The Examiner.

British Parliament.

London, July 26.

The debate on the royal grants was resumed in the House of Commons to-day. Bradlaugh said he found difficulty in dis, cussing the question calmly, when Balfour outside of the House, denounced his objections as disgusting and sordid. The opponents of the grants meant nothing personally discourteous to members of the royal family, but were simply acting within their rights. Much of the argument in favor of the grants was based on the crown under civil acts surrendering its private property in exchange for the civil list. The present royal family never surrendered anything of a farthing's value to the country. The committee of enquiry elicted the fact during the present reign that the savings upon certain classes under the civil list act instead of being supplied to defray charges of other classes, had been handed to the Queen without the authority of Parliament in breach of the statutes. The refusal of the Government to disclose the wealth amassed by royalties justified the aversion of the country to royal grants. Lord Randolph Churchill argued that the original demands of the Government were just, besides being in conformity with precedent. Lord Randolph said that the Radicals over estimate the Queen's wealth and design to excite popular feeling against royalty.

The St. John Festivities.

St. John, N. B., July 26.

The attractions in connection with the carnival to-day were two league games of ball between Moncton and Fredericton—the latter winning both—an exhibition drill on Barrack Square by the blue jackets and marines from H. M. S. Tourmaline, and the fireworks and illuminations to-night. All these attracted large crowds of people. Many hundreds have already left the city, To-night's train brought a big crowd from Moncton for to-morrow's baseball match with St. John

Long-Standing

Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.,) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.
