Bedeque Notes

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Callbeck, Central Bedeque, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowness, Bedeque, left on Monday, Nov. 12th, on a motor trip to the mainland. They expect to be absent for several days.

Miss Margaret Rogers, daughter of Mr. Coleman Rogers, Chelton, will be leaving in a few days for Bedford, N.S., where she will spend some time with her sister, husband and little daughter.

A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Toombs on Tuesday evening, Nov. 13th, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowe of Chelton, and their three children. They have since taken up residence in Summerside. Over sixty neighbours and friends from the surrounding communities were present. Mr. J. Harrison MacFarlane was master of ceremonies and after delivering an address he called on Mr. Cedric McKenna who presented the honored guests with a well-filled purse. Mr. Irving Toombs and Mr. Hector Leard spoke of the regret felt at the departure of the Rowe family from our midst. Mr. Rowe responded, thanking the gathering for their gift and kind words. The evening was pleasantly spent in a sing-song, with Mrs. Edna Jenkins as organist. Luncheon was served by the ladies. Mr. Rowe is a war veteran and has lived in Chelton for several years. He was school trustee for three years, prior to June last.

Whitehead-Graham Wedding

—St. Mark's Church, Kensington, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening, Nov. 1st, when Elva Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Graham was united in marriage to Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Whitehead of Granam's Road, a former member of the R. C. A. F.

The solemn ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. W. Coupland, rector of the church, in the presence of a large company of relatives of the contracting parties and interested friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a floor-length white satin wedding gown with long bridal veil, and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Simpson of Bay View, wore a floor-length dress of pink taffeta with matching headdress, and carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses. Two little girls, Greta Graham, the bride's sister, and Gail Atkinson were attractive flower girls. Greta was dressed in pale blue taffeta, and Gail in white silk with pretty rosebud trimmings, with headdress to match their floor-length gowns. They carried prettily trimmed little baskets of rose petals which they sprinkled before the bridal party as they moved slowly up the aisle to the strains of the Wedding March, nicely played by Mrs. J. K. Pidgeon.

Mr. Joseph Wigmore ably supported the groom, while Mr. Lloyd Howard was usher.

The bride's mother was dressed in wine silk velvet, and the groom's mother's dress was of a printed floral crepe.

The groom's gift to the bride was a double strand of beautiful pearl beads, and to the groomsman a genuine leather billfold. The bride's gift to the groom, a set of cuff links, to the bridesmaid a very pretty compact, and to the organist a gold brooch.

The church was decorated with autumn flowers and potted plants for the occasion.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the guests were entertained by instrumental music supplied by Mrs. J. K. Pidgeon, Raigh Paynter and Milton Ashley, and Mrs. Florrie Graham. A hearty sing-song was also enjoyed by all present. A buffet luncheon and tea was served, with ice cream, and a daintily decorated three-tier wedding cake cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead left the following day for a trip to the neighboring provinces. The bride's going away suit was of navy wool gabardine with hat and accessories to match.

The best wishes for their future happiness are extended to this popular young couple by their many friends, as they will reside on the Whitehead homestead at Graham's Road.

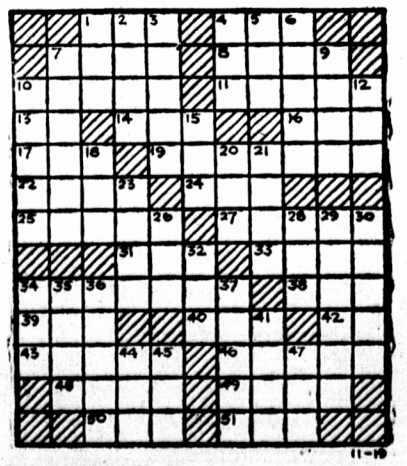
Saturday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
