

following persons were appointed Stewards, to superintend the arrangements of the festival:—Messrs. Thomas Noonan, John Macdonald, Allisary; Patrick Bambrick, Alexander Macdonald, Bornish; Alexander McEachern, Angus Macdonald, Elderfield; John M'Askill, John Whelan.—Gaz.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.—A few days since, some unfeeling miscreant inflicted a wanton injury upon a Horse and Foal, the property of Mr. William Boissier, of the North River, by cutting the hocks of the one, and cutting with some sharp instrument the hocks of the other. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of this atrocious act will be discovered and brought to condign punishment. A more diabolical case occurred in the same locality last fall, in which a young colt, the property of Mr. John M'Kinnon, was savagely mutilated, and thrown into the river.—Jb.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD. Sir: A numerous and highly respectable meeting of Electors took place at Grand River, Lot 53, on the 16th ult., for the purpose of expressing their opinions to the Public. At a former meeting, it was agreed that William Cooper and William Dingwell, Esquires, be notified to attend the latter meeting, which they did. The following Resolutions were then passed unanimously:—

- 1. Resolved, That this meeting are of opinion, that the late Representatives, William Cooper and William Dingwell, Esquires, have given general satisfaction to their Constituents; and while we name them again as Candidates to represent this District at the ensuing Election, it is with a well grounded hope that the nomination will meet the wishes of the Electors of the District in general.
- 2. Resolved, That the above named Gentlemen be requested to present themselves as Candidates at the ensuing Election to represent this District in the House of Assembly; and also, that a copy of these Resolutions be handed to the nominated Gentlemen.
- 3. Resolved, That the Resolutions agreed to be forwarded to the Editors of the Gazette and Colonial Herald, with a request that they will insert the same in their Papers.

The nominated Gentlemen returned thanks for the confidence placed in them, in a truly handsome and patriotic manner, which was spiritedly responded to by the crowd.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, ROBERT ROBERTSON, Chairman.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD. Sir: Notice the letter from AN ELECTOR of QUEEN'S COUNTY, in order to caution the Electors of the First District what a Solon or Lycurgus they may let slip through their fingers, like a hot potato, if they fail to vote for me at the Election. He says, that instead of having written that I had added a 'y' to the list of Candidates, that a 'cypher' would have been more correct. Now, a cypher is only added by annexing it to significant figures, which are immediately increased in value; ergo, I must be ten times more valuable than all the other members put together. As he makes not a few guesses regarding my past life, which are singularly agreeable to truth and probability, the candour cannot reasonably doubt his testimony in my favor.

Your obt. Servant, D. MACLEAN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD. Sir:—Is it possible that any of the Electors of the First District of Queen's County, and particularly in New London, will allow their principles to be corrupted and their interests thereby to be marred by this Mr. D. Maclean? Is it possible that any of them will be allured by the voice of this charmer? This man, announcing himself as "as well versed" in Colonial Politics as any man in this Island, is, no doubt, by his own opinion, in addition, as a native of this Island, a native Satan commissioned with evil. "The restless Spirit that hovered me in and from Canada," quoth this Mr. D. Maclean, "craves for an element, even in the obscurity of a Country Settlement in Prince Edward Island; I cannot suppress it—I must make myself notorious, at whose cost no matter. The House of Assembly is the best field for mischief here. The road to it is easy: I have nothing to lose if the speculation fails. The deceit practised by Rehebekah of old, was well assisted by means of savoury meat, and I need only place before these Johnny Raws their palatable dish." How cleverly then he fancies he does it, when he baits his hook with "Slavery"—"Egyptian bondage"—"The grants have been violated"—"must fall"—"You will certainly obtain your object at last"—"conversion of the Leasehold tenure into fee simple"—and then his mis-rebellious and loyal opinion of the Governor's Speech! Does he think the writings of "Sam Slick" have never found their way to New London, or even to Prince Edward Island? Does he think that he has not laid out such enormous sums of money, such state and visible bird-lime, as he has chosen for his purpose. But, trifling apart, for Mr. D. Maclean's address is too serious for ridicule—is it to be said that the people of New London—that any people in Prince Edward Island—will countenance the man who tells them that in their present state, though even one of discord, revolution is approaching us, and the only measure to redeem us from it is to take the pledge? What intolerable insolence! Will our people, then, let me again ask, prostitute themselves, by encouraging the man who thus betrays himself and his principles, and, like the people of Canada, render themselves the instruments of arousing the wrath of the British Parliament, to the measure of depriving us of our Constitution, or, equal to that, reducing us to be the dependants of the Assembly of Nova Scotia?

The evil effects of this pledge have been proved by several notable and worthy members of the late House of Assembly, who left its trammels, and witnessed, with inward regret, the loss of many measures proposed for the benefit of the people, while under its ill devised restraint.

The Electors of the First District of Queen's County, I would say, put in Mr. Macfarlane; put in Mr. Macneill; put in Mr. W. Macneill; put in Mr. Clark; put in Mr. G. Coles; put in Mr. Any-body, if you regard your interests and characters, except the man who addresses you under the signature of "D. Maclean."

Yours, &c. A FARMER.

First District, Queen's County, 21st June, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT OF QUEEN'S COUNTY. Brother Electors: As the day of Election draws near, the excitement appears to increase—Who shall be returned? Who shall be the general inquiry. I have just received a letter from one who I believe to be a paid agent for a Charismatic Candidate, and who is just as busy now as when he came among us with a long story about the steam Company, telling us we should double our money in four or five years, that he was going to take five shares, and would take five times as much as the other. All this sounded well, and we consented to take a few shares, just what we were able; but judge of our surprise, when we heard that the steam advocate had not actually taken a single share, and that the Captain of our new Steamer, but at length got disenchanted, and backed out. But what does he expect now? He says he will be present services, and to be made Sergeant at Arms, should his employer get in. But he will be mistaken, for I know any thing of the minds of my neighbours, his employer will be mistaken also. What do we want of a Charismatic Candidate? Have we not had experience enough of him already? Has he not done all in his power to destroy our export market for grain, by giving a high price for cash—just when a vessel would come for a cargo, and then, the moment she had in her fill, down with the price from 4d. to 6d. per bushel, half cash and half whiskey, and so on continually—thereby causing every vessel that came to purchase (especially in the Fall), to pay a price far above the market price. Is not this the way to discourage foreign Merchants from sending here for Grain? Is it not a fact, that the Brewers are laughing in their sleeves, at having they not been purchasing prime samples, for a long time past, for the shameful price of Two Shillings and sixpence, per bushel? Should a vessel arrive to purchase a cargo, our boasting Candidate would immediately give Four Shillings, and thereby cause the merchant, who sent his dollars, to pay about Forty per cent. above what the article had just been selling for? It is natural to suppose, that he would take care how he sent here for Barley again. Should the Brewer be successful, I suppose we shall hear him spouting in the Assembly on the advantages to be derived from an export duty on all Grain sent from hence; but I think we are already hampered enough by the Proprietors. Let us, therefore, take care what we do, lest we should be sorry when it is too late. None have so great an interest in the welfare of the country as those who get their living by following the plough. Let us vote for none but those who are personally acquainted with the hardships a Farmer has to endure. Jealous of our rights,

I remain, Brother Electors, ONE AMONG YOU.

Covehead, June 20th, 1842.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIAL HERALD. Sir:—The friends of the Bible and Tract Societies will be gratified to learn, that large additions to the Stock in their respective Depositories have been received per the Diadem, Captain Robertson, from London. In variety, extent, elegance and cheapness, the present importation of Bibles and Testaments far surpasses any thing that the Committee have heretofore attempted to procure. It contains a large proportion of books suited for Sabbath and other Schools, at prices lower than the commonest kind of School books, so that, as a matter of economy, it is reasonable to suppose that they will be generally introduced into the common Schools. The more elegant kinds are in smaller quantities, and persons who wish to procure Bibles and Testaments to carry to Church, or to use as handsome presents—they are very pretty—would do well to make an early application. It is probable the Resolution adopted at the last Anniversary, to open Depositories in the several sections of the country, will now be carried into effect.

The publications of the Tract Society exceed in number, excellence and beauty any thing of the kind that has ever been introduced here. The selections appear to have been judiciously made, from an assortment of perhaps the best publications of small religious works that the world contains; and of the prices, it is not too much to say, that they would not, in many instances, equal the expense of binding in this country.

These books are sold here to all and sundry at the same prices as they are retailed at the Parent Society's Depository in London—and to subscribers, Twenty-five per cent. less; while Tracts, for gratuitous distribution, are supplied to subscribers and other applicants almost without limitation. A lady very justly remarked, lately, in the Depository, that it was a sin for people now to be without good books; and it is to be hoped that the exertions which the Society have made to place good books within the reach of all will be duly appreciated, and that the facilities afforded will be taken due advantage of. Large sales have been already effected, and many of the kinds of books are already gone. The Libraries, of which four were sent out at half price, to supply Sabbath Schools and Religious Circulating Libraries, have all been eagerly purchased, and it is probable more will be required for different places in the country, as soon as the terms on which they can be obtained are more generally known. They are furnished to Societies only, in parcels of upwards of a hundred choice volumes, for FIVE POUNDS CURRENCY!

A MEMBER OF BOTH SOCIETIES. June 22, 1842.

Sir: As I have been called in question in a communication which appeared in your paper of the 7th inst., signed by a person who falsely styles himself FAIR PLAY, I feel myself called upon to make a statement of facts, respecting the question which he has brought into notice, viz: the formation of the Darnley Debating Club—as well as to contradict the statements made by that officious hireling, who can have no other object in view than that of aggrandising himself, and those who employed him to act as their trumpeter, by trying to make the public believe assertions which are untrue, and by ignorantly attempting to burlesque and vilify the characters of those whom he seems jealous that Nature has placed in a sphere to which he fears (and justly) that he never can attain, and also by using his exertions to put a stop to that institution, by trying to create jealousy in the minds of its members.

I will now, Sir, with your permission, mention a few of the facts connected with the formation of the above mentioned Club. W. E. Clark, of Darnley, having suggested to the Messrs. M'Nutt, Mr. J. Lepage, and others, that he thought such an institution would be highly beneficial to the young men of Darnley, proposed that they should use their endeavours to get it under way. These gentlemen immediately acquiesced in this proposition, and, accordingly, a meeting was called, and attended by a few of the people of Darnley; but as there was not a sufficient number to form a Society, the meeting adjourned until the next week, when, by a fuller attendance, they were enabled to do so. But, Sir, there was not more than one of the inhabitants of "the Classic ground of Princetown Royalty" at this meeting, and but two who ever received "birth" from it, which, I think, is sufficient to show that they were not the principal movers in it; and one would think that if the individual alluded to by FAIR PLAY (who, by the by, was not there) had been so very zealously affected, he would have first endeavoured to establish a Society of that kind in his own neighbourhood, and then come to arouse the people of Darnley out of that dreadful lethargy into which (as he seems to wish to insinuate) they had fallen.

For my own part, I do not arrogate to myself the honour of being one of its principal supporters, but this I will say, that I took as active a part in it as any one in Princetown Royalty. But I have done with this contemptible being, and hope that he will, in his next philippic endeavour to stick a little closer to truth, or else he will run a great risk of making himself appear (if possible) more infamous than he has already done. Yours, &c. P. G. C.

SHIP NEWS. The Ann, Pearce, 39 days from Bristol, arrived on Sunday last; fell in with a great deal of ice to the Eastward of the Banks of Newfoundland, but sustained no injury. On the 24th ult., in lat. 47, lon. 27, spoke the Barque Lady Falkland, from St. John, N.B. bound to Cork, 20 days out—all well. St. John N. B., June 12.—Arrived, St. Margaret, M'Donnell, from BARQUE ISABELLA.—We have received a communication from a very respectable source respecting the wreck of this Vessel, which it seems has been brought into Sydney, Cape Breton, without sustaining any material damage. On inspection, two augur holes were found in her bottom about the run, and the instrument with which the holes were made, was found broken in the attempt to bore a third. We need not mention that grave surmises of the vessel having been willfully cast away are rife, in consequence of this discovery, but we believe there is as yet no evidence of such being the case, beyond the presumption founded on the above circumstances.—Pictou Observer, June 21.

LAUNCHED. At Seven-mile Bay, on the 4th inst., from the Shipyard of Mr. J. Weatherbe, a Brig of 163 tons burden, called the Lady Lilford, built principally of Juniper. She is considered by competent judges to be of a handsome model, and first rate workmanship.

DIED. Suddenly, on Thursday last, much regretted by his family and friends, William Henry, eldest son of Mr. Webber, of the Wellington Hotel, in the 32nd year of his age. About 2 o'clock, the deceased was seized with a fit of epilepsy (to frequent attacks of which he had been subject during his lifetime), and which, after a violent struggle, carried him off in a few minutes. The funeral will take place on Sunday next, at four o'clock, when the friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

At New Glasgow, on Sunday last, Mr. Peter Macaulane, in the 68th year of his age. At St. Eleanor's, on the 19th inst., Mary Elizabeth, wife of Mr. George Tanton, sen., aged 76 years.

TO THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTETOWN AND ROYALTY. GENTLEMEN; When I had the honor of addressing you, a week since, soliciting your suffrages at the approaching Election, I scarcely anticipated so very general a support as my friends have met with in the canvass which they found necessary to institute on my behalf. I regret, however, to learn, that some of my political opponents, or their friends, have mixed up the matter with religious prejudices—a circumstance always to be deplored in any country, and more particularly in a small community like this, where, to all appearance, the existing denominations of Christians live in strict harmony, in their mutual intercourse with each other. Whatever advantage may be derived in politics by such unworthy means, I leave them to enjoy it, as well as to reconcile to their own breasts the injury which they have inflicted on society at large, in exciting religious bigotry, and severing the ties of good feeling that ought to exist in all well-regulated communities. A seat in the Assembly, gained by a religious strife or contest, has no charms for me. In the course which I am now taking, contrary to the advice of most of my friends, I feel that I run the risk of incurring their displeasure; and, more particularly, those who so generously volunteered to canvass for me. I therefore throw myself on their kind indulgence, in the hope that they would not willingly impose on me any situation which would not accord with my private feelings. With heartfelt gratitude to them, and to all who so kindly promised me their support, and with peace to myself and each will towards all, I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, your most grateful and obedient servant, DONALD MACDONALD. June 20th, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE THIRD DISTRICT OF PRINCE COUNTY. GENTLEMEN;—I take this opportunity of expressing my gratitude for the honor you conferred upon me at the last Election, in returning me as one of your Representatives, in the Lower House of Assembly; and as I have faithfully and unflinchingly maintained your rights, and supported your claims, I feel encouraged again to present myself a Candidate for the ensuing Election—especially as I have been earnestly solicited by my numerous friends to offer you my services; and though, in doing this, I cannot boast of high qualifications as a Legislator, I hope, from the knowledge I possess of Legislative duties, together with the experience of the last four years, to be able to discharge those duties with some degree of credit to myself, and satisfaction to the Constituency. I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, your obedient humble servant, RICHARD HUDSON. Tryon, June 23, 1842.

TO THE FREE AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE SECOND DISTRICT OF QUEEN'S COUNTY. GENTLEMEN; I do hereby solicit your votes and interest as a Candidate at the ensuing Election for this District; and if I shall have the success of being returned your Representative, believe me I shall do all in my power to promote your dearest interests. JAMES MOYNAGH. Ten-mile-house, 20th June, 1842.
