Let's Talk It Over

Community College

Community College is returning to Summerside next week. Started last winter through the initiative of the Summerside High School supervisor, Mr. Clarence Mercer, it was acclaimed by those who attended as a decidedly worth-while innovation in our community life. The College does not pretend to fit you for a degree in philosophy, or even make you a first-class carpenter or stenographer.

It does, however, teach you some worth-while skills. You can learn typing, shorthand and accounting, which will, at least, put you on the road to further preparation for this career. You can learn to make beautiful finished products in leather, or to sew. You can be helped to work off some of the more difficult matriculation subjects.

Important as all this instruction is, it is not the only valuable feature of Community College. There are the social values of the courses to be considered; the enjoyable get-togethers which are made possible by such a community enterprise.

A Not Too Fleeting Glimpse, Please

Prince Edward Islanders, rich and poor, high, wide and handsome, are getting ready to make the journey to Charlottetown to see their beloved Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. Our civic and political leaders will be fortunate enough to attend public functions where the royal couple will also be in attendance. Subjects who belong to the rank and file will have to be content, and indeed will be content, with a glimpse of the Princess and her husband.

That they are willing and eager to come from a distance and wait in the crowds for this fleeting sight of royalty is a measure of the deep loyalty which common people all over the Empire hold for the King and his royal family. Those in authority who have to do with the arrangements, should on this occasion make sure that the royal couple will pass the thronging crowds at a leisurely pace, and not with the headlong speed which took our King and Queen through Charlottetown streets on that former momentous visit. Surely the people who go to such trouble to see the objects of their loyalty and affection deserve that small concession.

Education Problem

Some boys and girls in our high school Take French and Economics; But if you ask them, they'll admit They'd rather read the comics.

Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Proffitt were treated to a surprise party on Monday evening September 24th when friends and relatives gathered to congratulate them on their twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, and to wish them many happy returns of the day. Although taken by surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Proffitt graciously welcomed their guests to their home and after greetings were exchanged, Mr. Louis Cairns was appointed chairman. After a brief complimentary speech Mr. Cairns called on Mrs. Scott Cairns who read an address of congratulation and appreciation and a presentation of a well-filled purse was made by Mrs. Donald Bernard. A lovely bouquet of flowers was presented to Mrs. Proffitt by little Katherine Devar. Mr. and Mrs. Proffitt then thanked the people for their kindness and good wishes after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Cairns.

A beautiful anniversary cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Cecil Mill and Mrs. Ernest Mill was presented by Miss Ora Mill. A sing-song was much enjoyed with Mrs. Cecil Mill at the piano, after which a delicious lunch was served.

To add to the merriment Mr. Proffitt received a thorough bouncing by the ladies. The chairman, Mr. Cairns, was also chairman in 1946 at the golden wedding of Mr. Proffitt's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Proffitt.—AB

"TWO WEEKS WITH LOVE" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

— Song and laughter share the billing in "Two Weeks With Love," which brings Jane Powell, Ricardo Montalban, Louis Calhern and Ann Harding to the Capitol screen in a picture which will make you forget, temporarily at least, all the troubles in the world.

Turning you to the past instead of the future, this happy new M-G-M Technicolor musical introduces you to one of the most enduring turn-of-the-century families ever conceived in screen terms. There is Papa Robinson, who thinks he's the boss; Mama, who has other ideas on the subject; two little sons who treat the world as their oyster, and two teen-age daughters. It is the elder of these, Patti (Jane Powell), whose life is brought to a typical 1913-period teen-age crisis when she finds the chief obstacle to the consummation of a romance to be the lack of a corset!

It all takes place at a vacation hotel at Kiasame-in-the-Catskills where Patti falls head-over-heels in love with the handsome Latin arrival, Demi Armandez (Richard Montalban). In an attempt to
