

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN
Having received the unanimous nomination of your Convention, as Candidates for the honour of representing you in the Legislative Assembly of the Province, we hereby accept the nomination tendered us, and solicit your support at the Polls.

We shall if elected steadily advocate economy in the provincial expenditure and the just distribution of necessary Public works.

From our antecedents as farmers sons and our own business relations with the members of the country, our earnest aim will be to legislate in the interests of agriculture which forms the back bone of our Provincial Prosperity.

We are gentlemen.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL OF SCIENCE opened at Yarmouth today.

A GOOD RESULT.—At the tea party held at St. Margaret's last Tuesday the net proceeds amounted to over four hundred dollars.

GRAND LODGE.—The semi-annual session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., will take place the 3rd week in January next, at Roseneath.

CHILD DROWNED.—A boy seven years old, son of John Tait, was drowned at Shediac Cape a few days ago in three feet of water. He was out in a boat with his brother, when the boat filled with water. His brother succeeded in reaching shore.

METHODIST MISSIONS.—Mrs. R. Johnson has resigned the position of District Organizer of the W. M. S. for Charlottetown district. Miss Hyde has been appointed in her stead. All communications from auxiliaries will be addressed to Miss Roberta M. Hyde, Cornwall.

A MALICIOUS PARROT.—A Lewiston, Me young man has broken an engagement in Auburn because of the parrot. He popped, was accepted and was about to imprint a chaste salute to bind the bargain when the parrot said: "Stop that Jack." His name was not Jack.

KILLED ON THE RAIL.—An affecting incident occurred recently on a railroad near Montreal. The engineer of a train saw a large dog on the track. He was barking furiously. The engineer blew the whistle, but he did not stir, and, crouching low, he was struck by the locomotive and killed. There was a bit of white muslin on the locomotive, and it attracted the attention of the engineer, who stopped his train and went back. There lay the dead dog and a dead child which had wandered upon the track and had gone to sleep. The dog had given his signal to stop the train and had died on the spot.

COMMITTED TO THE EARTH.—All that was mortal of Mrs. D. A. Macdonald, of Glenfinnan, was committed to the earth yesterday. The funeral cortege was the largest ever seen at Fort Augustus, about 130 carriages being in line. A Mass of Requiem was sung in the chapel at Fort Augustus, the celebrant being Rev. J. J. Macdonald, of Kinkora, a son of the deceased. Rev. James Eneas Macdonald, acted as deacon and Rev. P. J. Hogan as subdeacon. The ceremonies were directed by Rev. Augustine Macdonald. The choir, was led by Rev. Dr. Morrison, and Mr. George Hennessey presided at the organ. Several members of the choir of St. Dunstan's Cathedral assisted. Besides the clergymen who officiated at the service, there were several others in attendance. Rev. Allan J. Macdonald conducted the service at the grave.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—A cleverly-constructed comedy bearing the suggestive title "If You Must Lie Tell a Good One," was presented at the Opera House last evening by the Ethel Tucker company. The characters in the cast were all well taken, and the excruciatingly funny situations were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. Miss Tucker captured the house by her exceedingly clever rendering of the part of Susanne, and the splendid manner in which she acted the drunken woman in the second act showed her great versatility. Mr. Meldon as Dr. Blondet did excellent work, and he was ably supported by Messrs. Richards and Bushee. Miss Russell, as Mme. Poulard, was also good. The specialties were very pleasing. Tonight "The Governess," a comedy-drama, will be put upon the boards. At the matinee on Saturday afternoon Miss Tucker will present candy to each little one.

BANQUET AT SOURIS.

On Tuesday evening last the members of No. 4 Co., Garrison Artillery, had a banquet at the American House. The Company assembled at the drill shed, where, on the request of Lieut. Brennan, Lieut. Mellish, of No. 1 Co. Infantry, took command and marched the company, preceded by the Souris Cornet Band, to the banquetting hall. A bountiful supper was provided by the hostess, after which the following toasts, intermingled with songs, were proposed by Lieut. Mellish, who acted as president, and Lieut. Brennan, who acted as vice president:

The Queen—God Save Her.
The Governor-General—Wm. Paquet.
The Lieutenant-Governor—Corporal Power.

The Parliament of Canada—E. McCormack.

Song—Sergt. H. Squarebriggs.
The Army—H. Wood.

The Navy—Sergt. W. Cheverie.
The Professions—Dr. S. R. Jenkins.

Song—Lieut. W. O. Peake.
The Artillery—Lieut. Brennan.

The Infantry—Lieut. Mellish.
Song—W. J. Paquet.

The Press—John L. Walsh.
Souris—A. McDonald.

Violin Solo—W. J. Paquet.
The Ladies—Lieut. W. O. Peake,
H. Squarebriggs, J. Walsh, H. Wood, A. Mellish.

Song and Violin Solo—W. J. Paquet.
Our hostess and her fair assistants—

No. 4 Co.

The Company were very much pleased to see their popular surgeon, Dr. S. R. Jenkins, for a short time, and gave him him three rousing cheers when he had to depart. The evening passed most pleasantly, being wound up by singing Auld Lang Syne and God Save the Queen.

The Montreal Star's London despatch (July 6) says: Sir Donald A. Smith, Canadian High Commissioner, as "Lord Glenoe" has received many congratulations from Canada addressed to him under that title. He, however, told me today that he has not yet decided on his new title. When the new peer has decided, however, I venture to say, it will be found to associate him both with Canada and with Scotland. Sir Donald says cable reports from Canada are the first he has heard of the appointment of a new High Commissioner in London for the Dominion. The name of Sir Richard Cartwright has been mentioned as Sir Donald Smith's successor. The belief here, however, is the Canadian government would be glad for the present incumbent to retain the position so long as he pleases, and he certainly does not talk now as if he were about to relinquish it.
