

THE DAILY EXAMINER. SEPTEMBER 17, 1881.

Steam Communication.

Would it not be advisable that the Island steamers should make daily trips to Pictou landing, during the two weeks of the Dominion Exhibition at Halifax?

"The Amende."

The way some of our contemporaries are acting about the amende recently made by THE EXAMINER is amusing were it not for the lamentable lack of principle, the utter inappreciation of right-doing, and the wanton recklessness they display with regard to it.

Now the matter is a very simple one; and we shall easily make it clear. Mr. Mr. Blake and his friends came here to attack the Government and raise a political agitation at a time when as he knew, and as all the Dominion knew, the Hon. J. C. Pope, was dangerously ill—at a time when if he had been allowed by his friends to remain within reach of the disturbing influences of a political campaign, Mr. Pope's recovery might, at least, have been retarded.

The five years mis-rule of the late administration will never be forgotten. During that time the farmers will remember the low prices for farm produce; the mechanic knows the hard times and scarcity of money; and the ordinary laborer the self-sacrifice and grinding economy that were necessary, in so many instances, in order to keep the County Court wolf from his door.

In THE EXAMINER of the 16th August there appeared a short comment on the Mail's article, in which it was stated that the Mail had "taken up the allusions made by Mr. Blake and his peripatetic comrades respecting the condition of the Minister of Marine," and that "these allusions were of the most heartless character."

Whether or not Mr. Blake and Mr. Anglin can be justified for coming into this Province and charging the Government with misleading the people, unnecessarily overburdening the country with taxation and extravagantly wasting public money, while they knew well that the only member of the Government in this Province was lying seriously ill, unable to speak or act either in defence of himself or his colleagues, is a question of taste which the Mail or any other paper may discuss.

Without waiting to see what THE EXAMINER really did say, a writer in the Mail (who should be looked after) seized upon the scrap paraded in the Opposition Press, and declared forthwith that THE EXAMINER's apology was "absurd, needless and discreditable."

The death is announced of Lord Carew, an Irish peer.

The Good Cause and the Popular Breeze.

In concluding his speech in Halifax, Mr. Blake spoke frequently of "the good cause." Speaking of the ultimate triumph of the good cause he broke out into a poetical quotation after the following fashion—

Oh for the faith to read the signs aright, And from the angle of thy perfect sight, See Truth's white banner floating on before; See the good cause, despite of venal friends' And base expedients, move to noble ends.

To the applause which followed this poetical outburst we would gladly add a fervent amen. Truth's white banner! that is a decided improvement upon the public standard of which we formerly heard so much. Venal friends! and base expedients. Very significant expressions these from the leader of the party of purity and reform.

And so it will be found, we venture to predict, when the day comes in which Mr. Blake's good cause is expected to triumph. Whatever the good cause may mean to the Grit leaders, with envious upon the present occupants of the Treasury Benches, of this we feel assured, that the majority of the free and independent electors of this Canada of ours will never desire to go back to the days of deep and dark depression which marked the Administration of McKenzie, Cartwright, Blake & Co.

The five years mis-rule of the late administration will never be forgotten. During that time the farmers will remember the low prices for farm produce; the mechanic knows the hard times and scarcity of money; and the ordinary laborer the self-sacrifice and grinding economy that were necessary, in so many instances, in order to keep the County Court wolf from his door.

Hughes.

Thanksgiving Day.

We understand that the Government has named Thursday, the 20th October, as a day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the many blessings bestowed upon us as a people. This day is somewhat earlier than last year; and we are inclined to think will prove more suitable. In most of the parishes the Harvest Home services have not yet been held, and we doubt not there will be a general acquiescence in the suggestion that they should be held upon the day of public thanksgiving.

A Pre-Adamic Fossil.

The excellence of the road, however, and the good cars taken of the Island generally by the Dominion Government, have not wholly destroyed the acrobatic of the Grit grumbler. At a dinner party of seven I was assured by no less than three that the Island people, if they could, would cheerfully give up the railway if they could at the same time get separated from Canada, and restored to the condition of happiness, which the Island enjoyed when land troubles were rampant and communication was exclusively effected by wheels and boats.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner. Sir,—In last evening's issue, I noticed a communication from G. W. DeBlois, Esq., referring to some remarks made in Mr. Walter Lewis's letter respecting the Stock Farm buildings. Evidently the senior member for Charlottetown is "not much acquainted" with Walter, otherwise any insinuations thrown out by that individual must certainly have been treated with the silent contempt they deserved.

Yours, etc., CHITOWN, Sept. 17, 1881.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—I should like to know what do the City Councillors mean in allowing the acting City Surveyor to macadamize the streets in the way he is doing with old tin pans, bottles, etc. These things, mixed with night soil, are not the material to make good streets with, and yet hundreds of dollars of the Citizen's taxes are spent in that way.
