EXHIBITION TILTS OVER WEEKEND

Stars Blank S' side 16-0; Flyers-S' side Draw 5-5

Tom MacFarlane's Charlotte Stars unleashing a devastating 14-hit attack on three Summerside pitchers humbled the Summerside Pontiacs 16-0 at Memorial Field on Sunday.

The Pontiacs, the first Summerside team to visit Charlottetown in nearly two years, kicked in with 6 damaging errors to make the Stars job that much easier while the Stars played almost flawlessly behind the 4-hit pitching of Vern Handrahan and Charlie Ryan. The Charlottetown team made only one error and came up with a rally killing double play in the top of the fifth.

Stace Harris, Summerside's starting pitcher, came through the first three frames unscathed but in the fourth the stars, whose power had been lying dormant in city league play, came alive with a 5-0 lead in the fourth. Harris, who pitched five runs and an error produced five runs. The biggest blow of the frame was Glen Matheson's 2-run double.

Flyers, Stars Meet Tonight In Baseball Game

The first-place Flyers and the cellar-dwelling Stars will tangle in City Baseball League play at Memorial Field this evening. The Stars have yet to lose one. The Flyers have yet to lose one. The Flyers and Stars are scheduled to meet tonight at Memorial Field.

single and in the sixth the Stars put the cap on it as singles and four straight hits accounted for four more runs.

Glen Matheson's big bat boomed off two doubles and a single in three official trips to the plate. Joe Coyle lashed three singles in three tries and Kip Ready got a pair of singles to go along with his circuit cut. Vern Handrahan had a double and a single.

Johnny Whalen, who commuted for the best part of the game between shortstop and the pitcher's mound, was the only Pontiac player to get as far as second base. He got there by virtue of a double over second base in the 6th inning.

on a strikeouts and caught foul fly, but an infield error gave Charlottetown two runs and tied the game.

Donnie MacLean held the home forces to one hit for six frames. They got to him for 5 safe singles in the seventh and eighth innings however, and these coupled with the Flyers' only miscue, a dropped throw at the plate, accounted for 5 runs. MacLean struck out 14 Pontiacs and walked 3. Vance Harris whiffed one and hit one.

Kip Ready, Charlottetown first sacker, belted a home run to deep right centre in the seventh inning. He led all Charlottetown batters with 2 hits in 5 trips. Kenny MacDonald had one for one, Jack Kane and Jackie Burke, 1 for 3. MacLean 1 for 4, and Keith Dalziel 1 for 5.
