

Sandy Koufax Fans 13 As Dodgers Win; Tigers Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Brooklyn's bonus lefty Sandy Koufax struck out 13 and yielded four hits as the Dodgers clipped Chicago Cubs 3-2 Thursday in a game that matched the National League record of 23 strikeouts by both clubs.

Loser Moe Drabowsky anned eight in six innings and his replacement, Turk Lown, whipped two for a total of 10 Dodger strikeouts. Duke Snider, center fielder, was the only Dodger to prove the winning margin.

In the only other day game, Detroit righthander Jim Bunning checked Boston Red Sox on five hits for a 2-1 American League victory. His shutout bid was foiled in the ninth inning after Ted Williams' fly ball was lost in the sun.

Williams, who struck out three times earlier in the contest, got a cheap double when righthander Al Killebrew was momentarily blinded. Ted went to third on an infield out and scored on Jackie Jensen's single.

Bunning struck out eight while the Tigers built their scoring edge on Frank Bolling's leadoff homer and another "all in the eighth." Bob Porterfield was the loser.

Bunning made only his second recorded his second victory with out a loss, were unearned. One came on a shortstop Peewee Reese's hobble in the fifth after streak of wildness, issued three of his seven walks.

Only in the third inning did the Phillies get more than one hit. Grano Hamner singled after Chico Fernandez beat out a bunt, but Fernandez was thrown out trying to reach third on the play.

McDaniel issued only three walks in three separate innings. The Cardinals defeated their one-time 20-game winner, Harvey Haddix, who had control trouble. The Redbirds bunched five of their hits in their two scoring innings.

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Turley threw a four-hitter at Kansas City Thursday night as the New York Yankees won their second successive 3-0 shutout from the Athletics. The victory enabled the Yankees to stay within a half game of the league-leading Chicago White Sox who whipped Washington 8-3.

Turley, making only his second start of the season, struck out eight and walked five. He issued two of his passes with nobody Reese's hobble in the fifth after streak of wildness, issued three of his seven walks.

Death Thursday Of Dick Irvin

MONTREAL (CP)—Dick Irvin, longtime National Hockey League coach, died at his home here Thursday night.

Irvin, one of the shrewdest and most successful coaches ever to direct NHL teams, had been sick since 1956, when he was forced to retire as mentor of the Chicago Black Hawks. He was 64.

Irvin was an outstanding player before turning to coaching. His playing career was ended in 1927-28 when he suffered a skull fracture.

During his 27-year-old coaching career, he directed the Toronto Maple Leafs for nine years, the Montreal Canadiens for 15, and the Chicago Black Hawks for three seasons. He had four Stanley Cup winners, three in Montreal and one in Toronto.

Irvin spent considerable time in hospital and illness forced him to leave the Black Hawks. He underwent one minor operation and had to be given frequent blood transfusions.

NOTED FOR INNOVATIONS
Irvin was born at Limestone Ridge, Ont., near Hamilton, July 19, 1892, but his family moved to Winnipeg when he was seven. It was in western Canada and on the Pacific coast that he played most of his hockey.

A slight man whose hair was prematurely grey, he was noted for the intensity he brought to the game. As coach of Chicago in 1930-31, he was the first person to rotate three intact lines in play. Opposing teams, which did not use such wholesale substitutions, faltered as Irvin poured one fresh line after another on the boards.

In the 1955 Stanley Cup playoffs, Irvin came up with a shuttle system of goals, alternating regular netminder Jacques Plante and sub-goalie Charlie Hodge at intervals of seven or eight minutes.

In his playing days, Irvin was a centre noted as a smart stickhandler and a hard, accurate shot. He always was among the scoring leaders in his league.

Irvin turned professional with the Portland Rosebuds of the Pacific Coast Hockey League in 1915-16, after playing with Winnipeg amateur teams from 1912.

INJURY ENDS PLAYING
He was 34 when he saw his first NHL action with Chicago but scored 18 goals and 18 assists, winding up second by one point to Bill Cook of New York in the scoring title. The following season he was checked by Red Dutton of the New York Americans, who later became president of the league and suffered a fractured skull that ended his playing career.

He became coach of Chicago and guided them into the playoffs in his two years at the helm.

In 1931-32 he joined Toronto as coach and directed the Maple Leafs to the Stanley Cup. He remained in Toronto for nine years before coming to Montreal, where the Canadiens were having trouble icing a solid team.

Irvin had a hand in developing such stars as Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Toe Blake, Elmer Lach, Ken Reardon and goalie Bill Durnan. Canadiens' fortunes improved and they won three Stanley Cups under Irvin's direction.

MOVED TO CHICAGO
In 1955 he was lured to Chicago by the plight of the Black Hawks and the challenge of trying to build them into a contending team. He lasted one season before his health failed and he had to retire.

He was noted for his dry wit and a coach who got the best out of every player. He was a reporter's delight, always willing to comment on any hockey situation.

Even in his 60s, he was out on the ice on skates, demonstrating some particular point to his players.

He was a non-smoker and a non-drinker but he permitted his players to smoke and allowed them a beer or two after a tough game.

But he was a hard loser and expected his players to be the same. The one thing he wouldn't permit was to have his team shrug off a loss.

He is survived by his widow, a son, Dick, Jr., and a daughter, Faye.

City Softball League To Get Underway On June 3

A five team City Softball League will swing into operation on Monday evening, June 3, it was disclosed last night at a softball meeting in the City Hall.

The five teams are the Basilia Youth Club, Junior Basilia Youth Club, Abbies, Benevolent Irish Society and Ross Burner and Electric Ltd.

Missing from the meeting and not expected to start this year are Barry's Lions. The Lions place in the circuit will probably be taken by the newcomers Ross Burner and Electric.

A deadline for entering teams has been set for Tuesday evening, May 21. Teams wishing to play must enter to League Secretary Des Burge or enter at the meeting in the City Hall next Tuesday evening at 8:15.

Cleaver MacLean was re-elected president, Danny McCormack vice-president and Des Burge secretary. Other executive members are Sverret Beagan, Rev. Clarence Willis Hennessey, Roche and Willis Hennessey.

The next League meeting will be held in the City Hall on Tuesday, May 21 at 8:15.

Of the five teams intending to play this year, four were in operation a year ago. The senior member of the group is the Basilia Youth Club who have been playing since the League was first organized five years ago. They are the only survivors from the original eight teams.

This will be the Abbies third year in the League and the second season for both Father Roche's Junior B.Y.C. and the B.I.S.

Gaston Roy Beats Norm Gautreau

MONCTON (CP)—Gaston Roy of Charlottetown and Quebec City pounded out an eight-round unanimous decision over Moncton's Norman Gautreau here Thursday night.

Roy, who received his bachelor of Arts degree Monday from St. Dunstan's University, was awarded the fight 4-3-1 by all three judges.

Gautreau, a sparring mate of Yvon Durell, brought the crowd to its feet by clipping Roy to the head, sending the ropes in for a mandatory eight count.

From the opening bell the two boxers went at it hammer-and-tong.

Roy, making his final appearance in the Maritimes, stood Gautreau up against the ropes in the second and delivered a series of rocking left and rights to the body and head, but the game Gautreau, who spotted the Charlottetown-Quebec City scrapper 10 pounds, weathered the attack.

Both fighters underwent heavy punishment in the third, fourth and fifth. Roy pummeled home some jarring blows in the fourth. The third and fifth were fairly even.

Roy, a 43-7 performer entering the ring Thursday, picked his spots in the sixth, connecting to Gautreau's head with lightning-fast jabs. Gautreau and Roy performed a slugfest but near the end of the round, both smashing each other with heavy artillery.

Gautreau, who had 26 wins, nine losses and two draws entering the fight, started to tire in the seventh.

solid single to his schnozz: "I don't know where it came from."

He added that he had been told Bauer delivered the blow.

"Nobody ever touched nobody," was the comment of Yankee catcher Yogi Berra, one of the cleanup men in the exchange of words between Bauer and Jones.

With Bauer and Berra at the night club were outfielder Mickey Mantle, infielder Billy Martin and pitchers Whitey Ford and Johnny Kucks. Several of the players had brought their wives with them to celebrate Martin's 29th birthday.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Frank Robinson, held hitless in his first four times at bat, singled in the winning run in the 10th inning Thursday night as the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the New York Yankees 3-2. The victory, coupled with Pittsburgh's defeat of Milwaukee, gave the Reds sole possession of first place in the National League.

The winning run came off Steve Ridzik, who had relieved starter Stu Miller at the start of the 10th. In the game-winning inning Johnny Temple walked with one out. He was forced at second by Wally Post. Post went to third on Gus Bell's single and romped home as Robinson rammed his single to centre.

Tom Acton, who relieved starter Hal Jeffcoat in the ninth, got credit for the victory.

Jeffcoat mowed down 12 straight Giant batters until the New Yorkers erupted in the sixth.

In that frame Whitey Lockman's single and a double by Mays put the Giants out in front and they held the lead until the eighth when the Reds knotted the count.

Miller had retired 10 straight Redlegs when pinch hitter Smokey Burgess led off the eighth with an awkward Whiteanant, running for him, was sacrificed to second, took third on Post's long fly and scored on Bell's single.

The victory was Cincinnati's 14th in its last 15 games.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Lindy McDaniel, 21-year-old bonus pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, shut out Philadelphia Phillies on four hits and permitted only one runner as far as second base in a 5-0 victory Thursday night. New Daniel's career, which began with a $50,000 bonus signing in September, 1955, for the divinity student from Hollis, Okla.

Only in the third inning did the Phillies get more than one hit. Grano Hamner singled after Chico Fernandez beat out a bunt, but Fernandez was thrown out trying to reach third on the play.

McDaniel issued only three walks in three separate innings. The Cardinals defeated their one-time 20-game winner, Harvey Haddix, who had control trouble. The Redbirds bunched five of their hits in their two scoring innings.

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Turley threw a four-hitter at Kansas City Thursday night as the New York Yankees won their second successive 3-0 shutout from the Athletics. The victory enabled the Yankees to stay within a half game of the league-leading Chicago White Sox who whipped Washington 8-3.

Turley, making only his second start of the season, struck out eight and walked five. He issued two of his passes with nobody Reese's hobble in the fifth after streak of wildness, issued three of his seven walks.

The last time 23 batters fanned was on Aug. 27, 1955 in a Brooklyn-Cincinnati game. The major league record is 24.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Bob Friend had a rocky ninth inning Thursday night when he allowed three of his seven hits, but survived to pitch Pittsburgh Pirates to a 2-1 victory over Milwaukee Braves who went into the game tied for first place in the National League.

Friend, taking his third victory against three defeats, was never threatened by the Braves until Ed Mathews belted a solo homer leading off in the ninth. Johnny Logan and Bill Bruton also singled, but a double play and a fly ball got the Pittsburgh starter out of trouble. Mathews' homer was his sixth.

Friend, a righthander, gave up only one walk and struck out two. The victory pulled the Pirates out of the cellar.

The Pirates went without a hit off Milwaukee rookie left-hander Juan Pizarro until the fourth inning when Roberto Clemente smacked his third homer of the season. Pizarro, tagged with his second defeat against one victory, allowed only five hits before he was lifted for a pinchhitter in the eighth.

Athletes In Detroit Are Taking Happiness Pills

DETROIT (AP)—The disclosure that the major league's top baseball players are taking "tranquillizing drugs" to ease nervous tension drew both praise and a warning Thursday from the new team physician of the Detroit Tigers.

Dr. Luther R. Leader said the tranquilizing drugs that apparently have helped third baseman Reno Bertoia may have a bad effect on other people. He warned against over-the-counter sale of the drugs often referred to as "happiness pills."

"Sometimes they aren't happiness pills at all," said the doctor. "The drugs are still in the experimental stage and personally, I think that any new drug development must be considered in the light of the people who receive pleasant relaxing effects from these drugs, others may get very bad results."

The 22-year-old Bertoia was leading both leagues in batting with a .393 mark before Thursday's game at Boston. He began taking the pills—upon the advice of a physician—during the Florida training season in March. A year ago, the former bonus rookie couldn't find the .200 batting mark and spent almost the entire season in the minor leagues.

Aber Tigler southpaw relief pitcher, also has been taking the tranquilizing drugs to relieve muscular tension in his legs. At least six members of the Detroit Lions professional football team, including two-time American halfback Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, took the pills during the foot-

Bauer Is Accused Of Breaking Nose

NEW YORK (AP)—A husky delicatessen owner Thursday accused New York Yankee outfielder Hank Bauer of belting him one in the nose as Bauer and five of his teammates were living it up in a wee hours at the Copacabana night club.

"They were feeling no pain, either," claimed the doctor, connecting to the 200-pound Edwin Jones, 40, who admittedly had enjoyed a few drinks himself. He wound up with a broken nose.

However, Bauer denied that he hit Jones and no formal police complaint was lodged against the baseball player, indeed, as the dust settled, Jones said of the
