LATEST IRISH NEWS.

LONDON, Oct. 17.

The rioting in Dublin on Saturday night arose through the police parading in front of the Imperial hotel, and through an impromptu meeting at Nelson's pillar, where three thousand persons were listening to an inebriate demagogue. The police, exasperated by the jeers of the mob, drove them off the steps.

The riot at Mallow was in consequence of an unsuccessful attempt to rescue John Hefferman (who was re-arrested at Cork, yesterday,) while he was being conveyed to Limerick jail. The police were stoned and a head constable seriously wounded.

A gentleman who had assisted the police was attacked and fled for refuge into the Irish Times office, where many windows were smashed. The crowd collected outside Kilmainham jail and cheered the imprisoned suspects.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

A Dublin special says: Reports of recent outbreaks in various parts of Ireland are much exaggerated. That mobs are not dangerous, and that the importance of affairs here on Saturday and Sunday nights is not ascribable to the violence of crowds but to the brutality of the special police.

LONDON, Oct. 15.

The Press Association despatch says the head office of the Irish Land League has been transferred to Liverpool, where Mr. O'Connor is conducting its business.

DUBLIN, Oct. 18.

Parnell is in the prison infirmary with Dillon, Sexton and O'Brien.

The Fifty-Second Regiment has been ordered to Ireland.

DUBLIN, Oct. 18.

Rioting was renewed here to-night. The police were compelled to retreat over Carlisle Bridge under a shower of stones. It is probable that the troops will be called out.

At Charleville, County Cork, the police were stoned. The Riot Act was read and the military called out and the streets cleared. Thirty-five arrests were made.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 17.

The Times' Paris despatch says De Lesseps and the New Caledonia Government favor the experiment of employing "Ticket of Leave men on the Panama Canal."

LONDON, Oct. 17.

One hundred and thirty British and Foreign vessels were wrecked last week, being an increase of one hundred and four over the previous week. The approximate value of property lost is £8,000,000, of which the sum of £6,000 represents British losses. Eighty-five vessels, principally British, were lost off the coast of the United Kingdom during the recent gale against only twenty wrecks in the early part of the week in all parts of the world. One hundred and thirty-eight persons were reported lost or missing. Accounts received subsequent to compilation of these statistics, state that down to last evening fifty-nine fishermen belonging to Burnmouth and Eyemouth are known to have been drowned, and that one hundred and forty others, belonging to both places, are missing.

The British bark Snowdonia, Captain Roberts, has foundered off North Sunderland. It is supposed the crew have perished. The Snowdonia arrived at Berwick, Sept. 20th, from Coosawic.

Great damage and loss of life throughout North Germany has resulted from the late gale. The river Elbe rose twelve feet above the normal level and is covered with wreckage. Several vessels are stranded at Altona, and the loss of petroleum is enormous. Five vessels were wrecked at Bremen and some members of their crews were drowned.

King George of Greece, with his premier, has been visiting his newly acquired provinces His army is about to be reduced to 30,000.

MR. HENRY GARFIELD, eldest son of the late President, has been chosen vice-president of the freshman class at Williams College

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor-General is back again at Rideau hall for the time being, but leaves again on the 21st inst. for Quebec, where he takes the Allan steamer for a trip across the ocean.

Mrs Mary Cowden Clark, author of the "Complete Concordance of Shakespeare," played the part of Mrs. Malaprop at some private theatricals in London recently. She is seventy-two years old, and did very well.

THE fortunes of war seem to have placed Abdurrahman Khan in complete control of Afghanistan. A despatch from Quetta of the 13th inst., says that the Ameer's general reports two defeats of the Herat forces of Ayoob Khan in the vicinity of Herat,—the latter of which seems to have been decisive. It is stated that Ayoob Khan, who for some time past has held Herat, and put forth pretentions to the Ameership, is now a fugitive in Persia, and Herat is in the possession of the Ameer's forces.

General Garfield wrote in answer to a friend who had congratulated him upon his election to the senate:—"As to the hope you express that I shall be called higher, I can only say that my idea of the highest ambition of a public man ought to be to discharge fully the duties of the position to which he is already called. A man is not in position to discharge his duties fully and without bias if he is aspiring to higher places, and labouring to secure them. The post of greatest usefulness ought to be the place of highest honor."

PRINCESS LOUISE arrived at Perth on the morning of the 30th ult., en route for Balmoral. She was accompanied by Miss Paton. Breakfast was served in the Royal refreshment rooms. The Princess travelled north by ordinary train, and reached Ballater shortly before two o'clock. Sir Charles Fizroy was in waiting, and a guard of honour of the 32nd Regiment, under Captain Munro, gave the royal salute. Her Royal Highness was not expected so early, and consequently comparatively few people assembled at the station to welcome her to the Highlands.

A GOOD story comes from a village not one hundred miles from Bristol, which, if true, exemplifies the old proverb of Ne sutor ultra crepidam. A gentleman highly esteemed in the village was not at all pleased with a horse he had, and disposed of it for something under £18. Shortly after he attended a Bristol market, and was captivated with a "good stopper," and the "perfect moral of a 'oss," as the seller remarked. A bargain was struck for a little over £23, and, on nearing the stables of its new owner, the animal found its way as easily as possible. It was the same horse he had sold a few weeks before!
