

THE DAILY EXAMINER. AUGUST 21, 1884.

An Erroneous Inference.

In the Patriot of last evening there is an important admission and an erroneous inference. The Patriot says—

"At the last election the Conservatives affirmed, and we believe they were correct, (the italics are ours) that Mr. Laird polled the then party vote."

This is another way of saying that Mr. L. H. Davies holds his seat by the favor of Liberal-Conservatives. This is, indeed, the fact; and it is well to have it admitted by the Grit organ.

Omissions Supplied.

In making mention of the prominent men who took the stump and rendered good service in behalf of the Liberal-Conservative cause, THE EXAMINER, in the hurry of the time, omitted mention of the Hon. William Campbell, Donald McKay, Esq., M. P. P., E. J. Hodgson, Esq., Dr. McNeill, New London, and others.

Thanks should also have been given Mr. William Paterson, M. P. of Brantford, for his timely visit and powerful addresses. Had he remained a few days longer he would, no doubt, have exploded many errors of our Maritime Grits, in addition to that of the flour duties.

We regret that the Hon. David Laird did not return from Ireland a little sooner. A few more rousing articles in the Patriot would have helped materially to swell the Liberal-Conservative majority, and would have entitled him, too, to the thanks of THE EXAMINER and the Liberal-Conservative party.

The Halifax Election.

As a rule, it is better that journalists should not come down to the level of the party politician. By allowing themselves to become part and parcel of the "machine," they are unable to perform aright the duty of influencing the power which moves the "machine."

The Halifax Chronicle of the 20th has an erroneous report of the result of the Queen's County election, in which a majority of one hundred for Welsh is claimed.

Wages Under Protection.

The annual report of the Massachusetts Bureau of Labor is of more than ordinary interest from the fact that it contains the results of an exhaustive enquiry into the relative condition of workingmen in Great Britain and in Massachusetts.

Table with 3 columns: Industry, Massachu., Great Britain. Includes Agricultural implements, $10 25 $ 8 85; Artisan's tools, 11 80 4 89; etc.

The statistical tables show not only this general advantage to all wage earners in the protected country, irrespective of age and sex, but afford a means of arriving at the ratio of wages paid to women, young persons, and children to those paid to men.

According to a recent Parliamentary return issued on the 1st of January, 1884, there were 28 armoured ships in commission in the British Navy in reserve, 14 complete, 9 preparing, 4 waiting repair, and 7 building or ordered to be built—total, 62.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Water Cart Wanted. Sir,—If we (the merchants) have to continue living in this, our native although dilapidated town, and about fifty years behind the times, the sooner we get up a water cart at our own expense the better, as it is certainly ruining our goods.

SIR,—I would like to ask what does Mr. Laird mean when he tells the public, after the election, that it was "Altogether an unfair thing that a tax paid on the day of election, and not before the date of the writ, should give any person an admission to the polls."

I am yours truly, JOHN McMASTERS. Ch'town, Aug. 21, 1884.

The "Crofter" Question.

The general crofter question is full of interest. Is the thinning out of that class of the population the social blessing to the class itself, as well as the landlord, that the latter maintain; or is it the national loss, or personal injustice that the advocates of the former assert?
