

Experiments With LSD Made In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. veterans administration hospitals are experimenting with the drug LSD in nine research projects, five of them connected with the treatment of alcoholic patients, its medical director testified Wednesday.

Dr. H. Martin Engle said the VA is aware of the dangerous consequences of indiscriminate, unsupervised use of the drug. "But it would be unfortunate if the publicity attendant on such drug abuse would lead to hasty measures which could stifle the scientific investigation," he said in a testimony prepared for a senate government relations subcommittee.

The subcommittee opened hearings Tuesday on use of the drug which produces hallucinations.

Engle said the VA projects with LSD have involved more than 1,000 patients and thus far there have been no reports of serious complications. "The beneficial effects reported appear quite promising," he said.

Besides alcoholics, he said, the projects involve the therapy of personality disorders, biochemical and physiological changes produced by LSD, and its effects on human perception, emotions and thinking.

STUDY WAYS OF PEACE
The Swedish Parliament has voted $180,000 to fund an institute for war and peace research.

Conference Is Called

OTTAWA (CP) — A federal-provincial conference has been called for next month to examine the whole field of corporate financial disclosures, securities regulation and fraud prevention, Prime Minister Pearson announced Wednesday.

The meeting will be held at Ottawa June 27 and 28 with officials from all provinces participating.

Officials will consider possibilities of improved co-ordination and "greater uniformity in the field of securities and company legislation."

There will be a review of measures in the discussion areas at federal and provincial levels.

A federal team including outside consultants has conducted preliminary discussions in provincial capitals in preparation for the Ottawa conference.

Blind Workers Go Out On Strike

TORONTO (CP) — Twenty-five blind workers, tapping along with white canes, picketed the Canadian National Institute of the Blind Wednesday after walking out of the broom-making shop in a protest over low wages. Seven other workers refused to join the walkout.

The picketers, who do not belong to a union, claim they are underpaid. A CNIB spokesman said they were paid as much as in a comparable private industry, but declined to give any figure.

Spaceship Test Ends

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union announced Wednesday the "successful conclusion" of a 5½-month test of a spaceship landing program in the Pacific Ocean.

An announcement by the news agency Tass said the test area in the Pacific would be reopened to planes and ships.

A Tass statement Dec. 14 had asked all ships and planes to stay clear of the area from midnight to noon daily.

That announcement had said the Russians would test "a variant of a system of landing space vehicles."

There was no elaboration on the tests in either announcement.

It was not clear whether the tests involved were designed for eventual landings on the earth, the moon or planets.

GOOD SERVICE IS OUR BYWORD

Volkswagens Are Our Specialty
Complete line of genuine Volkswagen parts.
RUDISCH'S GARAGE
Alberr Plains

The Guardian

"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

Charlottetown, Thur., May 26, 1966.

PAGE 13

Financier Says Can't Recall Meeting Girl Friend Of Gerda

OTTAWA (CP) — Financier John C. Doyle said Wednesday he has no recollection of ever meeting Jacqueline Delorme, a friend of Gerda Munsinger.

Miss Delorme, known to Mrs. Munsinger as the Duchess, testified at the Munsinger security inquiry that she told Mr. Doyle and Montreal lawyer Hubert Ducharme at a New York airport in November, 1964, that "Olga Monseigneur" had died of leukemia in Germany.

Jules Dupre, counsel for Pierre Sevigny, former Conservative associate defence minister, said Tuesday at the inquiry that Justice Minister Cardin had originally referred to Mrs. Munsinger as Olga Monseigneur and had stated wrongly she had died of leukemia in Germany.

Li. Dupre added that it was "extraordinary" that Mr. Cardin had repeated "the very words" told by Mrs. Delorme to Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme.

DIDN'T KNOW CARDIN
Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Life Terms Are Given

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Two defendants in the Sylvia Likens torture slaying drew life sentences in the Indiana women's prison Tuesday and three others were sentenced to term of two to 21 year.

Mrs. Gertrude Baniszewski, 37, and her daughter, Paula Marie, 18, got life sentences. The mother was convicted of first-degree murder and the daughter of second-degree murder.

The reformatory terms were handed Mrs. Baniszewski's son, John Steohen, 13, and two neighbor teen-age boys, Richard Hobbs, 16, and Coy Hubbard, 15, by Judge Saul I. Rabb of Marion County criminal court.

Sylvia, a 16-year-old girl boarded in the Baniszewski home, died Oct. 26 last after a series of beatings, abuse and branding detailed in the five-week trial which led to the convictions.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

Asked in an interview whether he had told Mr. Cardin that Mrs. Munsinger was dead, Mr. Doyle said:

"I don't know Mr. Cardin." Asked the same question again, Mr. Doyle said:

"I haven't talked to him (Mr. Cardin) on the telephone."

Mr. Doyle, who last year skipped $10,000 bail in the United States after being sentenced to three months in jail for selling unregistered stock, said it would have been "very extraordinary" if he had met Miss Elorme in New York.

He said he travels by private airplane, not by airlines, and that his private plane doesn't land at New York but at Morristown, N.J., or at a private terminal at Newark, N.J.

Mr. Doyle said he has checked his records—"I keep very accurate expense accounts, you know"—for the latter part of October, all of November and early December, 1964.

He said he has no record of being in Nassau during that time.

Miss Delorme testified that she met Mr. Doyle and Mr. Ducharme when she was on her way to Nassau and that they told her they might see her later there.

MEETING ST. PETER'S HALL

THURSDAY, MAY 26

8:30 P.M.

ALEX B. CAMPBELL AND CANDIDATES

DON ANDERSON and FRANK SIGSWORTH

LIBERAL

The Deal Of A Lifetime

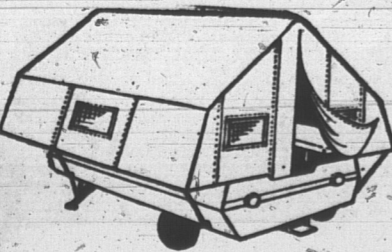

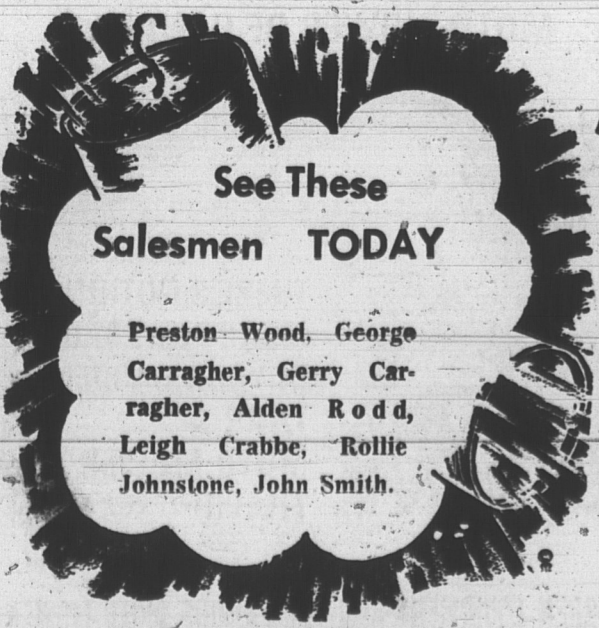

On New 1966 Units Now At HILLSIDE MOTORS LTD.

Our Used Car Inventory Has Reached It's Lowest In Six Months! WE NEED ADDITIONAL USED CARS NOW! So For The Best Deal On A New Car or Truck SEE US TO-DAY!

ONLY FOUR DAYS LEFT!

To Win Absolutely Free . . .

CTC CAMPER TRAILER

Yes . . . Here's the deal every car or truck buyer in Charlottetown and area has waited for. With every new or used car or truck purchased from today until May 30th the buyer has a chance to win one of these valuable prizes. One lucky person will win his choice of one of the prizes listed here.

OR YOUR CHOICE

- 22 cu. ft. Westinghouse Deep Freezer with 800 lb. capacity.
- 23" Deluxe Console Westinghouse Television
- Westinghouse solid state stereo and radio combination

Every Purchase of a New Car or a Used Car or Truck Valued at $750 or Over Makes You Eligible.

HILLSIDE MOTORS LTD.

Where Customer Service and Satisfaction Come First

PURITY DAIRY

"Parents Prefer Purity Products"
317 Kent St. Dial 4.7125

Halifax Okays Aquarium Plans

HALIFAX (CP)—A city board has approved plans for a $600,000 aquarium to be built in the centre of Halifax as a Canadian centennial project. It will be a 16-sided, three-storey building of pre-cast concrete with an 80,000-gallon circular tank on the main floor.

The project still requires city council approval.

CAP THAT BLOCKHEAD
CHICAGO (AP) — Boys with Beattie haircuts are going to have to wear bathing caps in Chicago park swimming pools. "Long hair clogs up the strainers in the drains and we have to call the engineers to clean up the mess," complained Vernon F. Herlund, director of recreation.

STATE TAKES LESS
Government spending in Canada went up 32.5 per cent from 1961 to 1965 while gross national product went up 41 per cent.

SET SAIL FOR CANADA

Brothers George and Bill Caesar and Scott Pillier sail from the harbor at Szczecin, Poland Wednesday bound for ports in Scandinavia, Britain and Canada which they expect to reach in two years. Their 20-foot long, Polish-built vessel is named Paranova. (CP Wirephoto via cable from Warsaw)

Price Of Vancouver Block Holds Up Big Development

By JACK MOORE
VANCOUVER (CP) — Everybody seems to have a redevelopment scheme for downtown Vancouver but only one outfit is doing anything about it. And that group—the T. Eaton Co. and Camp Investments of Montreal—has found two major obstacles in the form of a group of merchants and $2,000,000.

Eaton's-Camp has proposed a $75,000,000 skyscraper complex for two separate blocks at the city's main intersection of Georgia and Granville. The companies plan a joint development, including an Eaton's store and a 44-storey office building, on one of the blocks, while Camp alone plans to build a covered shopping mall, two 31-storey office buildings and a 20-storey hotel on the adjacent block.

Eaton's already owns one block, but the other block must be acquired before both companies will go ahead with the plan. The city has offered the block for $7,000,000. Camp has offered $5,000,000.

"Our offer is not negotiable," said Camp President C. R. Bronfman of Montreal. Five million dollars is a fair and reasonable price for the block.

MERCHANTS STALL
Also holding up the huge development are the retail merchants who own portions of one block. They say they will go to court to keep their property.

Mr. Bronfman said in reply the merchants might be successful in holding up the project, but not in blocking it.

City council is split on the issue, though if the city's negotiating team is successful in getting the extra $2,000,000 or a substantial part of it, the development seems assured of approval.

There is agreement that something in the nature of the Eaton's-Camp development must take place or the downtown core will stagnate, but few people agree on how to do it, or how much to pay for it.

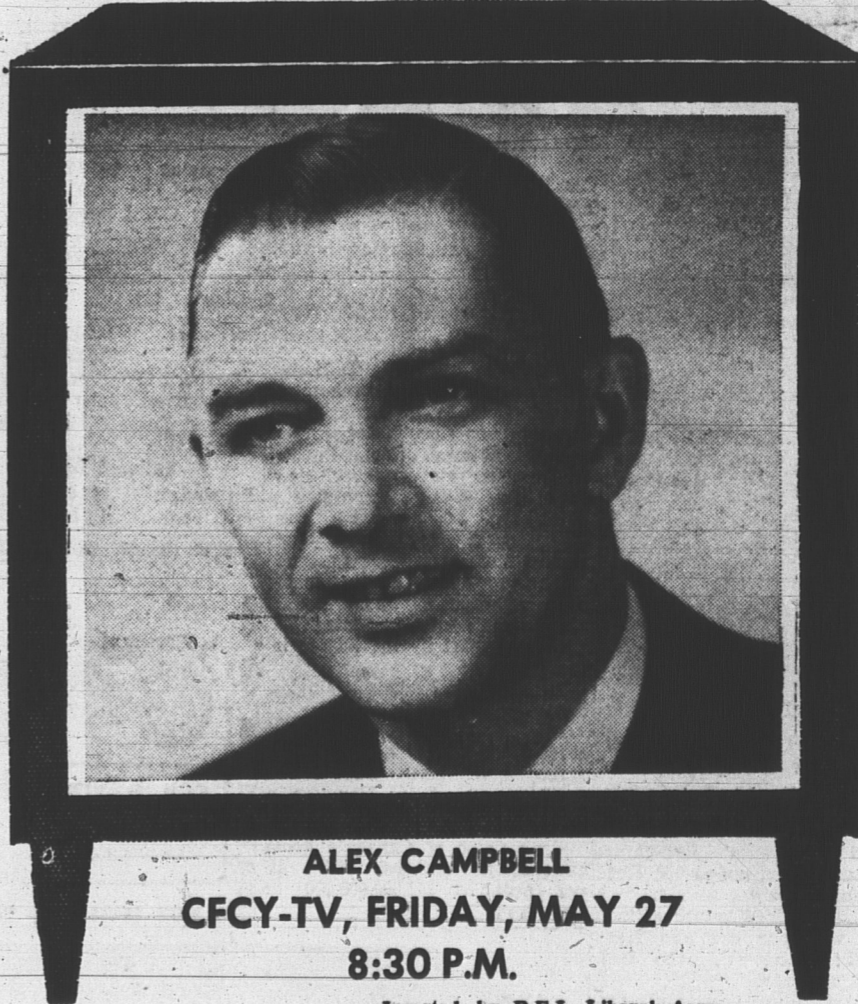

Several other downtown building proposals have sprung up since the Eaton's-Camp one was announced. But few are beyond the idea stage.

The most spectacular is one for a $300,000,000 development at Richards and Cordova, an area close to the waterfront and now covered mainly with warehouses and wholesale outlets.

DETAILS LACKING
This plan envisages stores, hotels, offices and possibly apartment blocks. Detail are sketchy so far, however, and Mayor Bill Rathie says no more will be released until the unnamed firm behind it finishes getting options on property.

Nearby, the Canadian Pacific Railway's long-rumored waterfront development is still in the embryo stage, as is a plan to put a complex of buildings over the railway tracks.

Further uptown, near the Eaton's-Camp area, there is a planned B.C. government skyscraper of some 55 storeys and a 10- to 20-storey addition, at a cost of more than $20,000,000.

ALEX CAMPBELL
CFCY-TV, FRIDAY, MAY 27
8:30 P.M.
Inserted by P.E.I. Liberal Assn.

the ladies of Second King's are cordially invited to an AFTERNOON TEA to meet

Mrs. Alex Campbell and DON ANDERSON and FRANK SIGSWORTH

Your Alex Campbell Liberal Team in Second King's at

The Canadian Legion Hall, Morell

THURSDAY, MAY 26th

3 — 5 p.m.

Come and chat about the Better Deal for Second King