SUDDEN DEATH.—On Wednesday night, George H. Whiting, aged 54, of Cliff Street, St. John, left his home to post some letters. Ten minutes later he returned, falling upon the floor and dying in a few minutes, having burst a blood vessel.

POLICE COURT.—This morning two young lads pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly on Kent Street on Thanksgiving Day, and promised not to repeat the offence. They were fined $1 or 4 days each. One drunk was fined $1 or 4 d-y's.

THE LATE E. W. HEFFER.—The Commercial Travelers' Association of Canada contemplate erecting a monument in Montreal in memory of their late brother, Mr. E. W. Heffer, who died at the Hotel Davies recently.

I. O. O. F.—A new lodge of the order was instituted at Bridgetown on Wednesday evening, 8th inst.

Wildley Lodge confers the first degree to-night. Every Oddfellow in the city is invited to be present.

THE MARKET.—There was a large attendance at the market to-day, and sales were brisk. There is no material change in prices. Hay is plentiful at from 32 to 35 cents per 100 lbs.

Commencing on Monday next, the market will be open daily (Sundays excepted) until 8 p. m., except Saturday, when it will remain open two hours later, or until 10 p. m.

FROM HALIFAX.—The steamer City of Ghent arrived from Halifax at nine o'clock this morning with a full general cargo. She will leave on return this evening with a cargo of pork, potatoes, oats, fish, canned meats, etc.

The Fastnet will not come to Charlottetown this week. She sails from Summerside to Halifax direct with a full cargo.

A REVOLUTION IN CUSTOM TAILORING.—The time was, when a custom made winter overcoat could not be had for less than $15 or $20. Now this is changed and we are able to make the astounding announcement, that we can furnish custom made Melton and Nap overcoats for the small sum of ten dollars. "Hand me downs" are no where in comparison for fit, make or value. We have the Meltons in three shades, blue, seal brown and medium brown.—John McLeod, & Co.

BOUNTY CLAIMS.—All claims for fishery bounty, according to present regulations, must be made on or before the end of the present month. A. Lord, Esq., of the Marine Department, has charge of the western section, and Michael McCormack, Esq., of Souris, is taking the claims for the eastern half of the Island. So far, not half as many claims have been filed, it is said, as were handed in on former years. Fishermen should not forget that the time for presenting their claims will end on the 31st.

DAILY MARKET.—We fear that a mistake has been made in ordering a daily market for this city. It is stated that the stall holders have unanimously decided not to attend the market except on Tuesdays and Fridays. The success of a daily market in a small town like this, supported by agriculturists, is certainly, very doubtful. It is urged that people in the country can't come to town to attend the market every day; and that people in the town are too few in number to make a daily market profitable if they came. The change is, however, merely experimental.

ALL ABOUT A HORSE.—A colored man named John Francis applied at the police station this morning for an order empowering him to take possession of a horse which, he claims, was stolen from him last night by a man named David Bell. Francis says that some time ago he got the horse in exchange for an axe from a man named Ronald Bell; that the horse then had a sore leg and after spending a good deal of time and money trying to restore the animal to his wonted health and vigor he at last succeeded in doing so. Having done so he thinks it too bad that he should lose him in the manner above stated. He was advised to go and take possession of the horse no matter in whose possession he found him.

RELIGIOUS CHARACTERISTICS OF THIS CENTURY.—This topic was carefully and ably discussed last evening by the Rev. Alexander Falconer. Mr. Falconer referred particularly to what he termed the Romanizing drift, the Democratic drift, the Philanthropic drift and the Scientific drift, of religious thought in these latter days, and maintained that all would contribute more or less towards that great current of Christianity which is destined to overflow the earth. He spoke of the influence for good and ill exercised by Heber, Newman, Pusey, Mill, Carlyle, Matthew Arnold and other great theologians and laymen of the Nineteenth Century. It is needless to say that some of the points in the lecturer's position are open to question. But every one will admit that the lecture was a thoughtful and (for thoughtful persons) an exceedingly interesting dissertation upon a widely important subject. The vote of thanks was moved by H. B. D. Laird and seconded by L. Miller, Esq., and passed by unanimous standing vote. Rev. D. Sturtevant occupied the chair.

IMPROVEMENTS IN HALIFAX.—Mr. F. W. W. Doane, city engineer, has submitted a report to the Halifax City Council relative to the paving of Lower Water Street from the Ordnance to Morris Street, with granite blocks. The cost of the paving will be $60,000, and $30,000 additional will be required for a main sewer through the street before the paving is laid down. The report will come up for consideration at a future meeting of the Council.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY ASSOCIATION.—Moncton is the centre of a high sounding sect, known as the Religious Liberty Association of Canada. The object of the association is to secure the observance of Saturday and not Sunday as the Christian Sabbath. The association council has circulated petitions in Moncton and elsewhere to be sent to Parliament against the passing of Sunday observance laws. For some time these people have refused to work on Saturday and recently a number who were employed in the I. C. R. shops were notified that they would be required to be at their posts on Saturday, as their absence interfered with the work of the shop. Four of them refused to work on their "Sabbath" and were discharged.

PUBLIC TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The monthly meeting of the Sons of Temperance and the members of the W. C. T. U. of Souris, was held in their hall on Wednesday evening last, Mr. Frank White sr. in the chair. Recitations by Miss Bessie Mathew, Master Seaman, Misses Goldsmith, Wood, Seaman, Morrow, Currie, McLeod, McDonald, and McBride, with music by the choir and by the band, formed a most interesting part of the programme. Short speeches on the evils of intemperance were given by several parties present, among whom was the Pacific Mr. Walker, Collector for the Bible Society, who said in the course of his remarks that over forty years ago he joined a temperance society and had faithfully kept the pledge ever since, and intends to keep it while he lived. The usual collection was taken up at the close of the meeting.

THE CEMETERY QUESTION.—Additional cemetery accommodation for Halifax has for some time been a "live" question. The corporation owns Camp Hill cemetery, and both it and the Catholic Cemetery of the Holy Cross are overcrowded. The city proposed to purchase new cemetery grounds and divide them, the Roman Catholics to have the exclusive use of part, the corporation to control the revenues of both. This the Archbishop refused to agree to, asking a fee simple of the Catholic portion. The subject was to have come up at the city council for final discussion on Tuesday and an interesting time was expected, but the matter was quietly disposed of by a resolution which leaves the providing of a new cemetery to private enterprise.

CONVENT CHRISTMAS TREE.—The Christmas Tree in St. Joseph's Convent closed last evening. There was a good attendance throughout the proceedings, and the snug sum of $400 was realized. The ladies of the Sodality are to be congratulated upon the success that has attended their efforts. They got up the affair at very short notice, and must have worked unusually hard to make it the success it was. The lotteries last evening resulted as follows: Silver water pitcher, Miss B. Lantry; painted sofa cushion, Father Hogan; lamp, Rev. Dr. Morrison, St. Dunstan's College; sofa cushion, Patrick Dunn; picture of the late Bishop Intyre, James McIsaac; Whatnot, Dr. John F. Murray; music stand, Miss Mary Murray; doll, Miss A. Welch; razor, Mr. A. E. McEwen. The ladies of the Sodality and the Sisters of the Convent desire to express, through THE EXAMINER, their deep sense of gratitude and most heartfelt thanks to each and every one who in any way contributed to the success of the Christmas Tree. The goods remaining unsold were auctioned off by Mr. James McIsaac.

AN UNFAIR ADVANTAGE!

Opposition Merchants in this City are taking advantage of our Low Prices, and sending boys to buy our Reefers and putting them in stock and selling them at a profit.

Now, we claim that such transactions are unfair. If we sell goods at cost, in order to give the poor people a chance, competitors should be charitable enough to let the poor people buy them from us, and not put the price up 25 per cent.

We are determined to undersell all selfish competitors, even if we have to sell goods at half what they cost.

Our trade has increased very much the last two years by doing the fair, square thing by our customers; and we know that if the people knew as much as we do about the way some people do business, they would trade with us every time for Clothing, Gents' Furnishings, Hats, etc.

We don't want the Earth, but we want people to buy good goods cheap; so come along and buy Reefers, Overcoats and Suits at never-to-be-forgotten prices.

If opposition men in the city want to buy Children's Clothing from us they can do so if they come themselves, as we can sell much cheaper than they can buy.

Gloves Have Always Been Among Our Specialties.

If any weakness is pardonable, it is surely the natural feminine desire to be well gloved; a poor glove is an abomination and an aggravation to the buyer and seller, so that we aim to keep only a line of Gloves that will give satisfactory wear to the buyer.

We show all the NEW MAKES and SHADES suitable to the season, and carry a complete list of sizes. Our Gloves are cheap in the best sense of the word. They give the buyer the utmost of value possible for the price put upon them.

COME AND SEE THE BALL ROLLING

THE STAR TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT

TRADE has commenced to move earlier than usual, and we mean to keep it moving if BARGAINS will do it. As we have decided to run our business, on and after October 1st, for CASH, and CASH ONLY, we have determined to quote prices lower than the lowest to secure the patronage of Cash customers.

We have taken this step after an experience of years in business. We learned that those who pay cash are entitled to the full benefit derived from prompt payments; and as "pay as you go" is the only safe road to travel, we will endeavor to educate public sentiment in favor of that independence of character which is not found in those who prefer credit to paying cash.

As we want money, we also want to give value for your money. We must, therefore, have you come in and see what we can do for you. The LATEST NOVELTIES in our line always on hand.
